

STARDROPS

APRIL 26, 2020 – MAY 2, 2020

April 26 - Sun conjoin Mercury - A moment of locking right into your clarity of purpose; alignment with your purpose and taking action – writing down plans so concise and do-able, sans any distractions. Mental clarity is welcome today.

April 27/28 - Mercury moves into Taurus until ....May 11/12

Your once a year mind grounding. Get physical. Plant something you can eat and/or appreciate – clean out the garage, get moving on that financial boost that can come back into high focus as Taurus deals with all things related to organic material, money, gardening, equipment and business. The mind needs to do something practical now, it wants to build again.

April 28 - Mercury In Taurus sextiles Transiting North Node. An excellent day to feel industrious. People are open and receptive. Communication is practical, supportive and seems to open up financial opportunities and business excitement. Focus on your future, there will be support.

April 20 - May 10, 2020 - Transiting Saturn in Aquarius Inconjuncts the Transiting North Node in Cancer.

Here is a powerful cycle which compels people to shift gears from one way of living to a new way.

It is mostly regarding North Node things like public and social trends, commerce, activities which appeal to people's emotional needs. Business, money, work and social interactions.

It is a transition period for creating “safe spaces” ( Cancer) while learning about Saturn in Aquarius science, data, figures and statistics. It could be analyzing medical alternatives, business and investment reports, public place restaurants, place of work and open areas where people will gather. An inconjunct is simply an adjustment using Aquarius science and facts, objective logical parameters in regards to making money again and also re- connecting with the people you want to spend time with.

There will inevitably be frustrations in certain areas with an inconjunct caught between Aquarius facts/truth and objective information versus emotional habitual reactions and triggers.

If you are thinking about attending important meetings throughout these dates, go with an attitude of impersonal rational information to offer, but knowing full well, you'll possibly be dealing with a room full of children.

As we move past May 10, it will loosen up and the adjustment to the new trends, parameters and Saturn consolidating of agreed upon expectations for all should be easier. This is true especially with most businesses opening up again needing to make that bug decisions, should we or should we wait. It will be easier after May 10 for people feeling comfortable about going out in the more congested locations.

Experiencing the reality of how much these past two months have financially inconvenienced so many, will be a hugely analyzed topic. Please try to shift from the loss to the future. That is the assignment of Saturn in Aquarius now. Cancer is the sign of security and Saturn inconjunct says it's been obviously compromised for many, however, the inconjunct does create a shift of perspective, bringing new life by concentrating upon your innate mysterious ability to magnetize what you need. Somehow, literally mysteriously, it can happen! That's Aquarius.

April 30 - Mercury Conjoins Uranus in Taurus at 6* Brilliant, innovative and the unusual. We always love something fresh to contemplate. A new piece of information breaks the monotony adding a genius sort of element to the narrative. Truth and transparency override ambiguity, deceptive side stepping of facts, issues and recommendations everywhere. Watch for something said in the news which cuts right through the garbage and brings us to a higher level of clarity and truth. Excellent for all things technical and advanced.

May 3 - Venus and square to Neptune May 23 2020, and Venus begins to turn retrograde at 21* Gemini.

Venus is about to turn retrograde and are one of my favorite cycles. It begins on May 12/13 2020 and lasts for a few months, definitely guiding us back into our hearts and intuition in order to calm down the nervous system and bring us much closer to what we truly value in our lives again. ( Many of us already feel its blessing sneaking into our observations, turning our mind towards softer things, faith, sweetness and meaningful activities by April 22 2020.)

It gets us back to tasks, study, books, social connections and love which have a depth of meaning for us. This is because Venus will be in Gemini this time.

Creative decisions can intensify throughout this period, rather than simply analytical mental reasoning.

Your intuition will guide you more now, rather than listening only to news, experts or people who are spouting warnings, statistics or fearful predictions.

Your heart could tell you the exact opposite of what you've been surrounded with, and in addition, you have this gut feeling and inner knowing that you're most likely correct and the outer noise is not.

This should build all through June and July, then we need to let go of this special period and get back into that “normal” everyday mind routine once more.

As Venus turns retrograde, this time it will be in square with Neptune.

.....Excerpt from U.S. Natal and Conceptional Cycles from 2020-2022 PDF ( from Starfires April 6 2020 ) ....Access entire Article Here

“From April 20 2020 to May 23, 2020 peak between May 8 – 16 will be the cycle of confronting dysfunction, confusion and ambiguities with social direction for our country.

This cycle creates an atmosphere of confusion, forever questioning, seeking answers, finding it difficult to land on just one solution or conclusion. It propagates insecurities, fears, apprehension. It symbolizes endless speculations and having one's mind and emotions out of control, subject to worse case scenarios and speculating blame or fault at situations and people that have no part in the problems....it sets a theme for creating a general mood among the people all over the world with these particular issues on their minds: In a positive sense, finally the world is asking questions as they are now desiring to know how this or that situation, crisis, event could have ever happened, and what do we need to learn in order to confront the problems from sneaking up on all of us ever again.

A Deception Is Suspected – Secrets – Hidden Information

The people are not getting one unified message from any one news source in order to know what is going on. Truth brings comfort to people and helps combat challenges.

These mixed messages, or withholding of key information, is part of the Venus square Neptune.

However, Venus is not Mercury, it's typically not about News and Communication because Venus is a heart/emotional and intuitive planet. It also rules social networks, social unity or human bonding and human social values, what makes people feel loved and happy. What if Venus retro in Gemini, the sign of facts and communication were actually confronting Neptune confabulation and confusion at this time?

So this cycle might scramble and diffuse key financial organizations who are filled with Neptunian nervousness as they speculate what is going to happen next with economic changes ahead. It can impact social networks which are negative Neptunian activities, confuting their typical agendas.

It could also be a clash between an intuitive intelligence we all possess versus the confusing messages we're getting from authority figures and their platforms.

The confusion with certain agencies not supporting, allowing or distributing Nutraceuticals or proven medicine in order to assist in recovering from the virus. This and other confusing messages regarding factual numbers of the infected, deaths, remedies, medicine antidotes being delayed, cautioned against or withheld, etc..will be challenged during this Venus cycle. We challenge the socially confusing narratives, opinions and nebulous or erroneous messages throughout this period in order for Venus to do its beautiful work on restoring our socially prosperous and normal life again.

Confusion in general- why the severe global shutdown narrative when suspicion is rampant that there are ongoing Neptunian activities actually being carried out in secret, simultaneously, multi-levels of operations occurring globally with several powerful end goals to reach.

This cycle of Venus is felt more than actual verbal confirmation out in the open. It is a body/organic/emotional state, an intuitive connection with each other that is in the know, rather than an intellectual analysis of events. The body of heart felt people are experiencing a sense of what is happening, more than receiving any one given piece of news as fact. At the least, people are voicing "Something weird is going on.".....End of Quote.

AGAIN, this cycle is technically beginning on May 3, however, wow, look at the massive uncovering of several events which have been escalating for the past few weeks already regarding so many global revelations which prior to this writing, were unknown. Economy, Re-opening of America, confronting origins of Virus, to immunize or not to immunize and on and on. It's not just about these epic issues we're faced with alone, but with a Venus square Neptune, it's about digging underneath EVERYONE'S AGENDA OR HISTORY and what stake do they have in it, or is it truly purely altruistic?

Intuition and Gemini fact finding. Venus is not only ruling our love, heart, intuition and empathy, our social life and friends, but our money, values, valuing ourselves. In Gemini definitely being the air quality it is, our ability to feel free and open minded, come and go without restraint or worry.

Venus rules the blood. Neptune square Venus could inspire people who value their organic bodies' natural physical/spiritual essence to intensely investigate the vaccine cocktails' ingredients, including any additional bio-tech introduced into the mix for social ( Venus ) tracking.

People could be in conflict over the complexities of contamination of our blood via foreign agents introduced within the blood where Neptune secrets are injected into the formulas undermining our life giving light ( blood).

Venus square Neptune will force truth out, or LEACH OUT all Neptunian hidden designs rather than Neptune sneak things into our lives right under our noses, thereby weakening ( Neptune) us. This goes for economic shenanigans also, as Venus rules money and in Gemini the flow and network of money, the freedom Venus brings to us with our money rather than Neptune undermining and projecting ultimate loss, depression and grief over financial future of our world.

Always turn a negative square around and stand in the power of the Positive Planets' higher purpose for you, confronting the undermining invader, determined to override its negative message or behavior.

The Next Full Moon is on May 7 at 17* Scorpio opposing the Sun at 17* Taurus.

Good cycle for planting your garden, nurturing yourself, pulling in and being grateful for what you do have, and what good, relief, hope is about to come your way. Be meditative, loving and make this Full Moon a time of slowing down for your devotional moments, as it is the beautiful time to expand one's highest gratitude and desires, purified now.

Happy May to all, until next time, Christine
