

STARDROPS

January 5 -11

Theme for this week – Stay cool as a cucumber, logical, stick to your facts, and wish good-will and helpfulness towards everyone you interact with.

January 6 – 9

Jupiter at 7 Capricorn conjoin South Node*

Review: Jupiter is a moral, ethical, and generous good-will planet and is conjoined the S. Node. This magnifies past good karma individually and collectively. It Intensifies qualities of self-respect and owning of ones' actions, being in Capricorn. It is in opposition to hell right now, (Hades) basically. (Anything that you could interpret as a lower frequency you would not want to connect with or engage in.) It is a non-compromising position....

...however, with the Lunar Eclipse below, caution against one's outlook being too judgmental, in order to preserve the things you value, which could even be YOU!

January 6 – 8

Sun at 16 and Mercury at 13-16* Capricorn sextile Neptune at 16* Pisces*

Precious exchanges of sweetness, love, conversations, music, movies, sharing literature with friends of like mind. This cycle helps prevent upsets from the next Mars aspect below. It assists maintaining a level head, sticking to facts, business as usual. Papers are in order, life is becoming organized and routines are easier to follow. People can see the logic of sticking with common sense and decisions made based upon facts and experience now. Because of Neptune's involvement, the entire cycle has a hint of promise of a reward at the end of crunching numbers, or reviewing and researching the hard facts, coming up with a solid plan. You can rely on this cycle for making beautiful goals with step by step systems now. January 8 - Mercury at 16* Capricorn sextile Neptune at 16* Pisces is considered Cazimi, infuses the mind with tremendous light of power, Capricorn, to reign problems in, and get things totally under control. Cazimi means... "As if in the heart (of the Sun) "

January 6- 8

Mars at 2 Sagittarius inconjunct Uranus at 2* Taurus*

Anything involving uncomfortable and stressful obligations throughout these days could really mess up the harmony you're trying to maintain. Sudden upsets, change of plans, awkward meetings or assertive, even aggressive behaviors are high probabilities now. Challenges with technology, machinery, computers, cars, mechanical anything, driving (be a defensive driver please) require some extra prayers outloud invoking some angels to simply walk with you through the next 10 days, that actually sounds like a great remedy for this Stardrop's issues.

January 7

Venus at 22 Aquarius semi-sextile the Saturn and Pluto at 22* Capricorn*

This Venus creates objectivity, humanitarian goals and a friendly impersonal way of wanting to improve on situations that are at hand, while welcoming the structure and realism of Saturn, and the authoritative powers of some person/place or activity that one might be dealing with at this time. In other words, we can tap into the higher vision, the bigger picture that is best for everyone now, and settle some things that may have seemed daunting before. People are being friendly, helpful, especially in money and business matters. Uranus turns Direct - January 10 (I would wait however, until at least the 12th a few days past the eclipse to take serious actions) Helpful for resolving the following issues, after months of sensing the timing has been off: Group and community decisions Successfully resolving or launching important technological, software or other activities. Making some unconventional and courageous moves, conversations, decisions. Anything which requires a new start, new job, new attitude, new health regime. It streamlines and upgrades things in our lives. New years resolutions regarding finances, possessions, purchases or increasing value of your life, even psychologically and spiritually.

THE LUNAR ECLIPSE

January 10, 2020

The theme of this Lunar eclipse beginning its influence around the end of December, peaking January 9-10, and continuing its energy up through the month of January intensifies the following traits and activities in an unreliable and possible negative way:

- Ambition
- Coldness of heart towards situations which might need love and compassion
- Strong urge to cave-in to something, feel the pressure to say or do something at this time, which would be a BIG mistake.
- Strong urge to elevate oneself in status with ambitious goals not trustworthy now.
- Striving for status and maintaining one's public image and ego casting aside humility and accountability.
- Prioritizing money and success over personal caring and the development of a spiritual side.
- Obsessed with reaching a top position
- Overly concerned over maintaining ones' appearance.
- Seeking worldly goals, power for powers' sake, and prestige.
- A destructive show of power. More problems with this eclipse:
- Situations which come into play, that can trigger pride or cruelty, even just in words.
- Reacting to someone's judgment to an extreme.
- Finding oneself emotionally charged and revolving over a negative interaction.
- Temptation to take an offer from another, which could be some form of compromise in the long run, wishing one had never accepted it, purchased it, or committed to the offer.

Meditation

Let's maintain our composure, common sense, patience and mental and emotional harmony throughout this January period.

Try to make important financial and career decisions a few weeks after the eclipse. The energies of this cycle, along with its conjunction to Saturn and Pluto, simply intensifies rigid concrete positions groups and individuals can take, especially among government leaders and military actions. Serious actions which play out for months could occur during this cycle.

For a nice affirmation, I would like to add something a subscriber sent to me, and you can use it if it suits you. Have a beautiful New Year start!

"Dear Christine, I want to share a prayer that you can share with your people too....

I invoke Archangel Michael with the Fifth Dimensional Tube of Light. Michael, please place this tube of light around me in this lifetime and all lifetimes, all planetary systems, all alternate realities and all parallel realities, all alternate universes and all parallel universes as well as all source systems in this time and all times. Michael, use your sword of light to clear me of all foreign energies, all thought forms, and beings and when I am clear, escort these energies into the tube of light to be transmuted into another form of light.

Michael, please close my aura to the influence of all beings except for higher self, the god consciousness, my guides and guardians. So be it and so it is.

Amen.

All my best.
