

Welcome to the Stardrops series.

STARDROPS March 15 -21 2020

Let's jump right in today....

March 15 – 22 Transiting Venus in Taurus 10-20* sextile Neptune at 18* Pisces.

Exact March 22 2020

Love, arts, music and precious communion with special people is in the air. Arrangements made, plans made, kindness and uplifting conversations taking place. Opportunities to be engaging in a more spiritual, psychological mystical perspective of all things going on around you at this time. Opening the heart up towards a combination of the psychological and intuitive blended with facts and concrete situations or activities...an inner knowing that issues will be resolved, and certain things will be for the best. Events to look forward to, are planned now.

March 15 – 22 Mercury at 29* Aquarius to 5* Pisces sextile Uranus at 4*- 3* Taurus and trine the North Node at 3* Cancer. Peaks on March 21 -22

Your mind is aware of what you need to do. This cycle brings hope, look for it.

A clarity and internal revelation of how to proceed with your future security is inspiring you to put your life in order and make plans. Don't allow anything to plant seeds of doubt, distract, sway or get you off your primary goals. Trust what your inner (Higher) voice wants.

March 15-23 Mars 18 -23* conjoin Jupiter (Capricorn March 19-21) conjoin Pluto at 23-24* Capricorn (March 20-23) intensifies action. Globally, big plans are in the air. Expansive plans for executing strategic systems of power and control. Counteract manipulative agendas with this Affirmation:

“I AM the complete perfection of true freedom, independence, and internal intelligence guiding me and my loved ones in all ways now. I AM the invincible shield protecting me and all around me, from unnecessary control, abuses of power and destructive energies, whether physical or in ones' minds. I AM NOW exactly where I need to be in body, mind and soul, and am infinitely protected in all ways now.”

Positively, it creates expansion, enthusiasm, a re-grouping and re-vitalizing of one's ideas, will and determination to achieve some important goal. It is a release of power into your world. We can cut through, regain one's power, confidence and re-structure.

It is highly motivating and organizing.

It compels action, movement.

This is NOT a passive apathetic cycle. Major use of your strategic abilities can be exerted to cut through on all Capricorn activities: Business, finance, systems in place, order, getting messy unorganized situations, sloppy lethargic people and circumstances, whipped into shape.

It's time to begin buying some gold and silver here and there when you can throughout 2020. The Virus is not just about a virus.

Work on this plan if you are able, throughout 2020 and Chip away at your debt all 2020.

Finances are getting organized and a new thrust of discipline is moving through us. With this conjunction, and the Uranus trine Node (below) in Taurus (economy) things are about to change, which could take a years' time.

The motivation depends upon where these planets in Capricorn are placed into your own Natal Chart (find the house where you have Capricorn on that house cusp) and it depends upon what your focus is every day. This is where it will intensify.

March 20 – April 1 Positive for finances, supply, economy, flow of money, productive activities and bringing strength back into ones' life. 3 planets (Jupiter, Pluto and Mars) will all trine Venus in Taurus during last 2 weeks of March.

March 14-28 Uranus at 4-5* Taurus sextile the transiting North Node, trine the South Node.

Truth and freedom, revelation, innovative decisions, unconventional strategies are now poured into action into the economy and each person's insight as to what to do with their own money and possessions, their net worth, or acquiring possessions, real estate, security, work, employment, acquiring stronger career skill, creating exciting future business plans, or simply consolidating, are now in play throughout 2020. Plan to be free from as much restriction, oppression as possible, throughout 2020.

It releases personal vision within each ones' circumstances in order to receive a gift of vision, re-prioritizing your life and money, and bringing some form of support and answers as to what truly matters now. Excellent for technology, software, upgrading life, equipment and innovative strategies.

It is an increase of information in a Taurus (Uranus) /Cancer North Node) /Capricorn (South Node) way –meaning large scope solutions delivered, politically and economically deep internal re-structuring is occurring, whether revealed or not...will be revealed eventually.

People will get answers and solutions for any circumstancebe patient and calm, be in tune with your inner wisdom, the world is changing, again.

In so many ways, personally and globally, this Uranus is breaking up the delivery of that strange insertion upon the public of sabotage, the Uranian Planet Hades deployed into our world December 17 2019 – February 28 2020, in Cancer conjoin the North Node in Cancer, and oppose the planets in Capricorn (Saturn, Jupiter, Pluto, Mercury, the Lunar Eclipse { January 10 peaked }).

Remember that weird disturbing string of Transiting Hades aspects I went on and on about last December through February? I did not trust it.

My attention would return to that astrology cycle, bringing my focus back to it, again and again. IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE, BUT Hades could have been one of the symbols which revealed to us, something diabolical was in play to harm the population (North Node conjoin Hades in Cancer). What is Cancer represent? Food, security, money, home/family, public freedom and emotional comfort and well being, commerce, economy.

What is Hades? "Let's ruin it" (literally)oppose Pluto Saturn Jupiter South Node etc in Capricorn? Some new structure/system on target to be put into place..some factions extremely productive and good, other plans, possibly equally as dark as the Hades posture ...(there could have been an abusive power structure on both sides of the Hades opposition, and on the other hand, in a different and unique dimension of this world, a much higher evolved system was about to be strategically put into place, which were the higher actions of the Capricorn planets opposing the Hades) Are we even possibly looking at two negative factions against each other? And a second activity, of a positive power opposing any negative activity regardless of whether they are unified or not?

Think of the unusual stream of events which occurred from end of December up through first of March that has had the public on edge. (North Node, the public)

Uranus can break up patterns and transform destructive energies into a totally higher and unique pathway of progress from March 20- 30 and for weeks afterwards, unraveling anything that was never meant to be in the first place.

However, we need to get over the idea that these positive astrology cycles will sweep away all future troubles forever.

These positive astrology cycles for all of us are breakthroughs, advantages and helping us to gain ground while living in a fallen reality on earth.

The big story, is the vision of an incredible volume of light pouring out onto the Earth in such enormous waves in order to produce a victory like none other anyone has witnessed. And these waves of light are for the placing into our worlds, positive events, circumstances for those who have light, souls and fire in the heart, in spite of the mess of accidents, misfortune and setbacks we have been experiencing.

Without these waves of light, it would be much much worse. People don't even realize what is happening within this big story.

So in the future, there will still be bizarre set backs, strange events, each one coming out of nowhere and uniquely problematic from the previous ones, but the bigger picture is this wave of light, and astrologically, one cycle would be that transit of Pluto moving towards the U. S. Pluto return (1776) and this (for whatever reason I don't even understand) is the marker point, the date of reaching a peak of chaos and awakening within so many people, to say no to oppression and deception on every single level. Saying no to so much of the corruption that has been going on right under our noses for an incredibly long time. That is the Pluto's drive, and it is primarily focused in the U.S. 1776 2nd house of banking and Federal Reserve, linked to all other corrupt activities of money everywhere.

March 19 - Sun in Pisces sextiles Saturn in Capricorn

Constructive communication. Progress with collaborating with all officials, businesses, people who have helpful information, answers, authority or a presence about them. Good fortune for getting support from others, and you supporting their worthwhile projects.

March 19-20 Sun moves into Aries

Dynamic fire, initiating the new, and instigating confrontation, addressing old issues, resolving unfinished business, and feeling that fire of launching a new cycle in your life. Excellent for Exercise, sports, competitive activities.

March 20/21 Saturn enters Aquarius. Progress and improvements

This deserves an official article (coming) but quickly, Saturn in Aquarius intensifies analytical and higher minded groups and communities, geniuses, gifted individuals to lead the way towards innovative science, metaphysics, spirituality, philosophy, technology all geared towards increasing necessary improvement upon any one given thing that is old, outworn and ineffective.

It is incredibly productive time. The last time this occurred was in 1991 – 1993.

Mental stimulation intensifies. It is determined, fixed, stubborn and completely committed to revolutionary goals, for better or worse.

How this plays out in your chart, will be determined by what houses it crosses through, and how it aspects your natal planets. Saturn has begun entering this sign for only a few months, then will turn retro, and return back to Capricorn for another run.

While Saturn is in Aquarius the energy should lift and become higher, more intelligent and freedom seeking.

The dates of this will be between March 22/23 to July 1-2 2020, then returning at the end of the year.

Enjoy these unusual cycles, and remember, energized renewing and improving in specific areas of your life, is the main theme to focus on.

You will feel committed to throw yourself into transforming and upgrading, and will only get stronger, at the end of 2020.

More later, have a powerful week!
