

STARDROPS

MARCH 8 - 14 2020

Theme for this week – Avoiding Overwhelm with Self Purification in many forms.

March 9 -Two major themes, the Full Moon in Virgo (19*) and Mercury coming out of Retrograde at 28* Aquarius

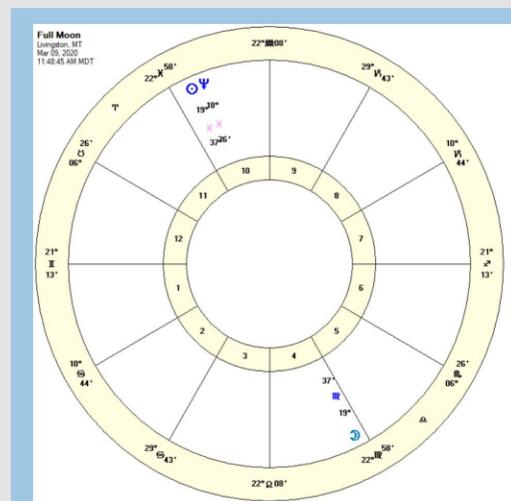

The Full Moon at 19* Virgo oppose Sun and Neptune conjoined at 19* Pisces.

March 9, 2020.

Project an ideal goal into your future. It might be a healing, a resurrection of sorts, for self, body, health and past mistakes. The realization a healing is required is so helpvul now. What could it be for you? Healing past body damage, psychology and/or mental life strain.

Healing from world fear, programming and weaponized information, agendas and unfortunate circumstances. The full moon could trigger stress from the unknown, reaching an emotionally full capacity.

The Full Moon could support many to reach an ultimate realization of what one must do to thrive, narrowed down to the individual and global needs. What do you need in order to thrive?

Avoiding the see-saw pattern of swinging to Idyllic beliefs and escaping into fantasy, obsessions or throwing oneself into extreme micro details of critical thinking.

Transcend the negative

PERSONAL:

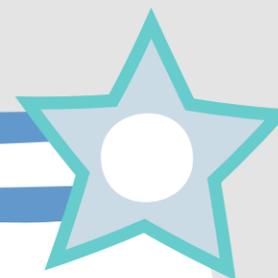

Idealist romanticism concepts and living in a theme of high expectations of outcomes, yet not paying attention to the logistics of how to get there. Neptune conjoins the Sun in Pisces (the idyllic concepts or irrational fears) a dreamy vision held in our hearts which could very well, come true! However, the Neptune conjunction creates a serious intensity within ones' mind as to how something should be, or play out.

GLOBAL:

High level fixation upon any one potentially disturbing global scenario, losing oneself in opinions and beliefs of worse case scenarios, checking out or over preparedness and panic. or what could happen, God forbid!

Moon in Virgo: Tendency to talk oneself out of things, be too hard, negative, lacking what it will take to ever achieve the positive outcome. Finding too much that's wrong with this picture.

The Full Moon marks a moment where Pisces/Virgo issues reach maximum saturation of a worse case scenario with the forecast of the future. Raise your frequency with beautiful music, Tibetan chants play them in the background, essential oils cleansing and fasting to get clear. It's a time of purging, purification, fresh air and sun. It's a time of re-aligning ones' diet to the ultimate power foods, enzymes, raw and fresh.

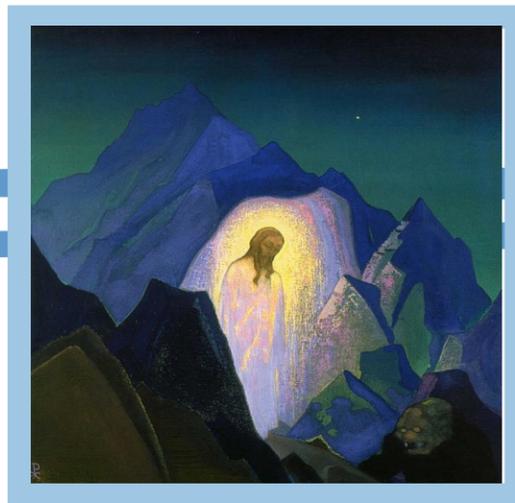

From now until the first week In June, create a plan to consistently take action week after week to feed something, nurture or engage in something in order to reach a particular goal that is about, purification, purging, fixing, making it right, uplifting and accelerating something into a higher form.

The desire to fix things and make them better is the key theme right now throughout the week. Getting real and practical about your vision, yet allowing self to see the situation with a fresh pair of eyes, someone who does not have your patterns, habits, mind set or familiar sabotaging behaviors.

Be wary of sicknesses, acute illnesses, accidents and mishaps energetic attacks upon ourselves, body, well being, seemingly coming out of nowhere. Losses and misfortunes. Let's shield up and roll this off of ourselves.

Here is the affirmation:

“Archangel Michael, we call you into action to release now, tremendous blue lightning power, penetrating into the cause and core of this Full Moon in Virgo, all disease, misfortune, panic, fear, sense of loss, doom, and media hypnosis. We command you into action now, to seal us in your invincible shields of protection. Throw off and out of our worlds all unnecessary suffering and set backs of any kind and secure us in the shining brilliant dazzling blue fire light that repels all darkness and manipulations, now and forever, Amen.”

The Full Moon trines several planets in Capricorn, which enhances cooperation, creative solutions and collaboration with others. This will bring help, assistance and support for each other. It brings a willingness from others to work with you and support your vision. (Full Moon trine Mars, Jupiter and Pluto at 15, 21*and Pluto at 24* Capricorn.

March 9 - Venus conjoin Uranus

(Uranus rules the Mercury in Aquarius turning direct (leaving retrograde))

This cycle intensifies the novel, unusual, experimental and eccentric. It brings into our lives innovative people and events. It fills us with excitement and fresh new breakthroughs. It helps work with the higher realms, angels and spiritual beings who when called into action form a transcendental atmosphere of innovative transmutation and solutions to problems, individually and collectively. Venus releases love and magnetizes all that is healthy, good and increases vitality in the blood, the network of people, money, economy and social scenarios while Uranus stimulates the innovative, the shocking, unusual, bringing revelations of information with social situations. Uranus and Venus combined creates social dynamics which are subject to both exciting revelations and also possible shock over never heard of before technologies, science and engineering (mechanically engineered, technical and biological { the sign of Taurus})
