

STARFIRES MAY 17 -23

May 17 - Sun 27* Taurus Trine Jupiter at 27* Capricorn

A beautiful day for pondering moral spiritual ideas. It's time to contemplate an expansive plan for the next few months. What is it you would like to see happen that might need your confidence, faith and strategic planning in order to achieve some nice thing?

Education and study, expanding one's thinking and allowing self to believe something you want to see play out, could be shielded in your positive energy and come true the way you desire.

It's time to truly examine and catch yourself when you think of anything discouraging. Stop yourself when you find you are stuck worrying on some challenging stressful thought, and quickly switch to the outcome you would actually love to see instead.

Have you ever tried do this with even the most worrisome random thoughts? Do it with even the smallest seemingly insignificant negative things that we blow off.. Practice this starting today as the Sun is entering Gemini.

Make a promise to yourself you will concentrate upon a powerful ideal replacing the negative whatever it is. Begin today. Then pay attention to how your days flow. It's amazing how sensitive one becomes as the thoughts are challenged throughout the hours. I had taken an achievement course a few years ago, and one of my assignments was to stop and take note once an hour, of my state of mind and emotions.

I think this technique is actually even more effective, as we're training ourselves to catch random limiting mindsets, opinions and judgments throughout the entire day, whenever they pop up. You'll feel a little twinge in your stomach or some sort of tenseness might appear, that's how you know, something is going on in your mind, you don't want there.

May 20 Sun enters 0* Gemini – For 29 days starting now, we can all advance in the purification of our minds. Thoughts are everything, especially if emotion is interwoven.

Let's expand our accountability with our minds, nurture the mind, concentrate on what it is we hope to achieve, experience. A brighter sharper kind of wisdom and information should be forefront throughout the most of June. People are thinking, connecting, networking and sharing. Busy life, errands, ideas, conversations are accelerated, and our need for movement is strong. This will be an amazing Gemini month.

May 20 - Venus retro square Neptune – Continuation of disturbing epic events globally.

We need the shields to insulate somewhat from such Neptunian strangeness and mysteriousness of something?

I've decided to push it back and continue to project the most constructive transformations for us all.

I don't even want to wonder if this ominous energy is even worth investigating. I honestly don't want to put any energy into it.

Venus continues this week with the undercurrent of social confusion and distress over inconsistency within all forms of communications.

This is how it goes with Venus in Gemini .

Venus rules social safety, comfort and love, and Gemini - facts, data and statistics.

Because Venus is square ( conflict) to Neptune, much information about people, their history, background, financial ties and investments continue to pour into the internet hinting at personal reasons for global and social decisions.

Venus ( the intuitive nature within the people) should get square with Neptunian secrecy and confusing history of what is happening in almost every area of importance on the planet.

Let's get it straight. Even though this is the last date of the 3 week long square ( April 22 – May 20) these questions will not go away until clarity is achieved.

Pick any national and global subject that you've noticed has numerous conflicting theories including economic trends, Federal Reserve, Illness records and Covid stats, virus remedies and drug solutions, immunization, government WH reveals with transcripts and discovery and even rumors of other operations in play behind the scenes throughout these past three months. Why so many conflicting stories from experts, government officials and real time credible Doctors and nurses? Squares have the ability to press secrets out into the open during April 22 – May 20, and continuing ....

AFFIRMATION:

“Mighty Presence I AM THAT I AM, I call for clarity, truth, transparency and accuracy in all media, news, journalists and sources of communications, information, documents and discerning with sharing information.

Beloved Archangel Michael take command with angels of Illumination and the brilliant divine beings of Truth and Vision to swiftly move into action into every social, financial and medical area of confusion to perfectly elevate accuracy and truth, for myself and the world. Amen.”

May 22 - Mercury conjoin Venus The power of grace, music, poetry, generosity and love should be in the air during this day. It's easier now for sharing and expressing yourself or others sharing with you in ways that bring a smile.

May 22 - Sun trine Saturn - A conservative and pragmatic day for order and serious attending to important tasks and responsibilities. Get your stuff in order.

May 22 - Mercury at 20* Gemini square Neptune - with the emphasis upon order, social generosity and creating upliftment of energy, there might be one person or situation where it's not the best day to count on a person reciprocating at all. Maybe they won't be revealing their truth.

A person or possibly a public person hides their feelings, are nervous to express, avoid confrontation and want to smooth things over to avoid the awkwardness of difficult subjects. One could feel an exaggeration of emotions, distortion of actual facts. Not the best to sign agreements or contracts, make sales or count on total honesty on this day.

Even though there are very nice reliable aspects to the day, at some point, something might disrupt the flow and cause you to question the meaning of something. People in your life might be upset and need things straightened out.

In general, your attention to a frank objective approach is the best way.

Things to look forward to

Transiting Node enters Gemini/Sagittarius up to Dec 22, 2021 and then it will leave Gemini .

Similar to the Sun entering Gemini on May 20 through June 21, and Venus retro in Gemini from May 12 up through end of July, this NODE cycle is much longer and has a stronger background theme.

The theme is about social trends, how people are now behaving. They will be social, quick, mental. A very high emphasis upon social connections, business, education, training, sales, sharing advice and re-thinking business and financial decisions and trends is what's on everyone's mind.

It will be a long cycle of emphasizing utilizing internet for education, business, sales and intellectual mental connections versus physically being in person involved in every day business. This is one possibility.

Another theme would be the expansion and acceleration of tech communication, new platforms of getting videos, blogs, messages out, and a trend towards freedom of speech. Travel, mobility, cars, new talk about transportation and staying connected.

All these trends may be interconnected with some form of income for entrepreneurs.

EXPERIMENT:

We'll watch together if this becomes real....The upcoming Transiting North Node will make an inconjunct to Saturn from June 30, peaking exactly the strongest on July 14, then continuing along up to September 1, 2020.

The start of a process of changing the U.S. economic base. Is it possible other countries will also shift their financial foundations and challenge particular money institutions or arrangements? If a few begin to change their money, disentangle from financial compromise, it could begin a domino effect. The Nodes are public trends, future aspirations and goals, and money.

Saturn is structure, institutions, organizations, agencies and structures which keep order in society.

An inconjunct is like an EPIC SHIFT. An Adjustment, a big change of direction and can even appear as a disentangling of one thing from another thing during intense distress.

This cycle had already slightly started mid April 2020. I think this is an economic epic shift of some sort, potentially changing the financial world. It might be just a start, but, I think it could be bigger than just the hint of something. I think it's the beginning of a process of constructively transforming our economic way of life, with many steps and layers to put into position. It's incredibly complicated, and might even take up to that momentous Pluto return in November 2021 – 2022 in the U.S. Conceptual 1776 chart we've been speaking about now for sometime. That Pluto if you recall, is in the 2nd house of banking and economy and finance, if you use the timestamp I mentioned in the U.S. 2020-2023 Article, you can find right HERE. We'll see if it happens...

The main theme of the Nodes moving into Gemini/Sag is an increase of the brightness and quickness of mind, increase of creative thinking everywhere.

MERCURY RETRO IS COMING....

We are entering the Mercury Retro this May building up to that crescendo we all feel just prior by June 18 at 14* Cancer when Mercury officially turns retrograde. Many begin to feel the shift three weeks before the actual retrograde date, I've included it in this weeks' Stardrops.

So....begin to look out for inspirations for more security, emotional needs being addressed, housing, money, food and family.

I trust it will be your very own unique Stardrop of a message coming directly from another higher beautiful mind.

Hum....is it our Divine higher mind or a divine beings'

direct inspiration dropped into our world?

The seed Mercury drops can grow into a a real live manifestation of an important piece of your 2020.

Pay attention, it will be a thought that persistently keeps returning throughout the next few weeks, for sure.

Well, that's the Stardrops for this week. Funny how a few appearing insignificant planetary positions end up being so full of life!
