

STARDROPS – MAY 31 – JUNE 6

POWER PLAYS – TRAGIC EVENTS OCCUR IN THE THEATER OF THE WORLD

Jupiter and Pluto continue to conjoin in the sign of Capricorn from March through November 2020. We have a strong peak of this conjunction returning now up through June.

The conjunction is the strongest on the following dates:

April 4, 2020

June 30, 2020

Nov 12, 2020

As usual, these cycles begin to set situations in motion in our personal life and the world about ten days to two weeks before and after each peak above.

Jupiter represents cultural beliefs, opinions and the narratives that mold public opinion. It is suppose to be the planet of morality.

This planet has a lot to do with what one believes whether it's true or not. Social engineering comes under Jupiters' influence. Since it is operating through the sign of Capricorn, these opinions and projected ideas put upon the people during these times are dangerously filtering through serious Capricorn influence.

The influence of the lower nature of Capricorn funneling through anyone in a position of power, any authorities, highly influential professionals and individuals with strong desires to control and establish rules and set laws. They corral people's thinking into yielding to what authorities want you to believe. It takes an incredibly strong mind and independent nature to rise above the "status quo? social opinions and strong persuasions.

Sometimes restrictions, orders and rules are absolutely necessary and good.

Discernment is required during these times to detect which authoritative suggestions, opinions, statements or rules are balanced and fair or illogical and nuts.

We are in a year where there will be plenty of these situations to deal with.

Remain objective and check facts throughout this year. Because the planets are in the sign of Capricorn and with this conjunction strong opinions could be biased and based on incomplete facts or manipulated circumstances.

Any established institutions departments, agencies organizations, parties and those who are at the head of these activities will be intensely vocal with strong convictions their way is absolutely the only way.

Moral judgment is absorbed into Pluto's larger order. What this means is this – Jupiters' normal opinions and wisdom is possibly being influenced by Pluto's stronger power, for good or ill.

Let's hope and pray Pluto's order is the highest divine order possible this year and in the coming years.

In our personal lives, this period creates a theme of highly charged opinions, beliefs and concern of being somehow at the mercy of life's circumstances.

Let this be a time to extricate oneself from all abuses of power in your own personal world. Set yourself as free as possible from entanglements of lower energies. Shield yourself with truth and objective clarity.

Expect the truth in all things. If you can't find it, dig until it is revealed.

Don't tire of the work at hand to rise to a higher Jupiter conjoin Pluto order. The higher way would be the realization of a moral order at a more beautiful and divine dimension which holds the standard for not just the earth, but all time, space and dimensions. We need to seek it, want it and come up higher. Discipline and responsibility creates the foundation for reaching worthy goals.

Personally, we are advancing and expanding the power of our ability to analyze and see through mind manipulations. Power in wisdom. Pluto and Jupiter in Capricorn.

The New Norm is US expecting truth and expecting a more versatile originality coming from those in power.

The New Norm is liberation from oppression. Relief from ignorant uninformed decisions of those in control. The New Norm is Divine justice and a life full of Joy.

Certain national and global decisions made through this period might be favorable, some incomplete and partially or entirely incompetent.

These new parameters, rules, orders or policies might be found in:

National, state, city or town policies.

Economic changes/Financial/Federal Reserve, and foreign trade policies.

Medical, health, medicine, evaluation of data and any decisions based upon either the positive or the incomplete or misuse of data, being subjected to professionals' positive accurate or poor Judgment during this time. It has gone both ways and might continue throughout the year. No astrology is set in stone.

The launch of a new era in space, decisions made for future power space agendas. Any political polarizing attempting to establish rules, policies set a new norm for Capricorn status and Jupiter expansion, foreign travel and breaking bonds of limitations.

Abuse of power and authority in certain states, abuse of power from police or any compulsive triggers towards violence, misuse of power through rioting, destruction, anarchy and especially organizations executing extreme disruptive and violent means to force a new norm of social conformity in an incredible number of ways. These types of abuse of power would keep shape-shifting all year, from one tragedy to another. Stay balanced. Stay objective.

The abuse of power held in the hands of paid actors accelerating riots and oppositional posture to tear apart society. This must not happen - after chaos has been established, a stronger darker force would come in with the full abusive of power, the misuse of Capricorn Order and Authority and establish control.

I know there are positive elements to this Jupiter cycle, however, let's concentrate right now upon the seriousness of the negative danger of this cycle running up through November. Remember, it began at the end of March 2020.

Look at it as one long pattern of strange and serious threats which might be coming from the same energetic source, but with different disguises each time it peaks...March/April – June/July and October/November. It's goal is to establish a new normal of oppression, masking as solutions to the apparently emergence of catastrophes seemingly beyond anyone's control. But are they really?

A darker force could take advantage of this Jupiter/Pluto cycle as opportunity to infiltrate and insert their own agenda instigating violence and destructive activities in order to escalate chaos as a means to further attempt to disintegrate society.

We could go on

What would be interesting however, is for all of us to personally discover new blueprints, systems and routines we have been inspired to put into place in our own world during these times.

Jupiter conjoin Pluto Affirmation

“Beloved Divine I AM, take full command now over all density. Take command and replace ignorance and the potential of the world being fooled by poor judgment and incomplete solutions and conclusions and all forms of abuse of power with that Divine truth, justice, honor, morality and beauty that lifts all into a higher Order of Love and Truth forever.

*Take charge of my own life, by the power, immense gifts and treasures of all the Archangels descending into my life each day.
I AM now perfect wisdom, opportunity, joy and divine direction in all things this day.”*

Lunar Eclipse Week

<https://www.timeanddate.com/eclipse/lunar/2020-june-5>

June 2 Venus square Mars Challenges with arranging your schedule. Plans could be up in the air. You want to initiate certain positive things but not everyone is joining you.

June 3 Venus conjoin Sun A day for allowing oneself to know your worth, the magnificence of your life, your body, soul, capacity to create and thrive. You are truly a multifaceted divine being. Being you and being a human at this time is an amazing thing to behold.

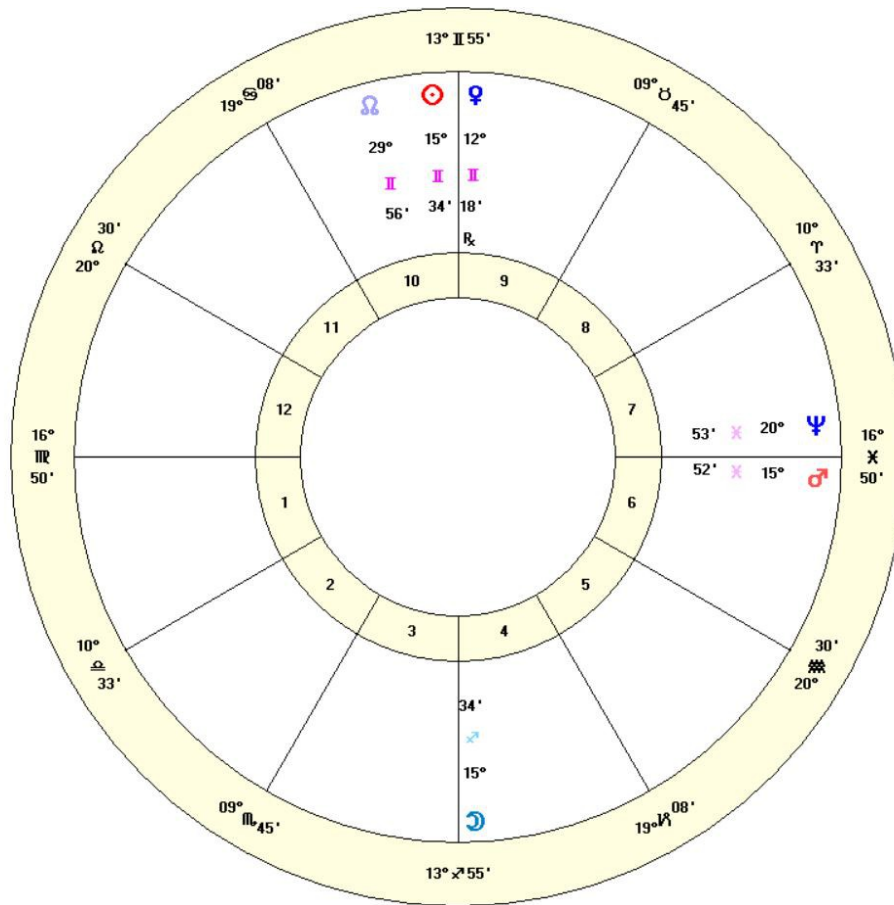

June 5 Mercury sextiles Uranus Conversations, information, news and facts are truthful, reliable. You can make smarter conclusions and decisions today, in spite of the Lunar Eclipse subtle trickery.

Jun 6 Sun square Mars Intense motivation. Stay away from hostile triggered people and situations. You can cut through and get much done today. Stay balanced and clear headed however.

June 6 THE LUNAR ECLIPSE - Moon at 15* Sagittarius square Mars and Neptune in Pisces oppose Sun and Venus in Gemini

Wisdom, truth, illumination versus bias opinions. . . We are in a two week period where we are dealing with strong filters potentially influencing our minds, layers of deception, Martian antagonism and aggression as this Lunar Eclipse forms a T-square to all the planets above.

SEE BELOW:

From May 25 – June 10, it might be incredibly tempting to get caught up in arguments where one is polarizing between the ultimate truth and facts and the other side -misleading information, conversations or downright deceptive and disappointing viewpoint.

Remain clear and calm throughout these next two weeks, as Lunar Eclipses tend to orchestrate some degree of mishaps. This is not a time to take things casually.

Resist making important decisions now, save them for later. Resist large purchases or financial decisions. Remain totally balanced, objective and calm in all situations for the next two weeks as this is a period where seemingly insignificant plans or actions, comments or decisions could contort into the strangest outcomes. I would lay low for a while.

You are strong, intelligent and amazing. Hold on to your heart.
See you next week, Christine
