

STARDROPS AUGUST 9-15, 2020

Theme: August 9 – 18 This Stardrops will include the New Moon on August 18, Tuesday) the Sun and Mercury are conjoined creating a finger of God with Jupiter/Saturn and Pluto ( one set) and Neptune in Pisces ( the other set). ( Note in the wheel below, it appears like a sideways letter Y.

The two branches of the Y point to the Sun/Moon ( New Moon) and Mercury in Leo on the right side of the wheel.

August 9-11 - Mercury at 10° Leo square Uranus at 10° Taurus – Seems we're all extremely astute this weekend, taking apart all the details of information, sorting, organizing materials, and discarding and throwing away ideas, things that are no longer valid. The mind is confident now, what it knows is important and accurate, of value and priority. The rest is pushed away – eliminated and challenged. Abuse of power is no longer tolerated. A pushback is now in motion.

Personally, your keen mind is no longer subjected to foolery, manipulation or a clutter of things vying for your attention. You get down to brass tacks and cut through on what is only true, honest and real. These qualities only serve your movement upwards now, in your frequency and happiness.

Aug 10-12 - Sun in Leo inconjunct Jupiter in Capricorn and Neptune in Pisces – Several of the next planetary cycles will follow the same pattern.

The Sun which radiates a vitality of growth and thriving is totally out of sync with pedantic rigid opinions which have an energy arrogant authority just for the sake of posturing over you, just because.

There is also a strange uncertainty and fear also coming from the same source desiring to position themselves above us, we can notice a bluffing posture of superiority and critical eye. The key is the Sun in the middle of the two prongs– forming the shape of a letter Y. The Tip of the Y, (below) is where the Sun sits. The tip is where there is a test – it's where all the energy is flowing towards, motivating us to a particular action that is required for all of us to take. The message is this, the Sun is supreme and can no longer be bluffed by the energies on the left or the right.

You are the Sun in control of the game

The Sun represents in its highest form your Divine Presence, your Higher Authority over all matter and human condition or nonsense. Take Charge and trust yourself now.

August 13 - 14 - Mercury in Leo at 17 -20* inconjunct Jupiter at 18* Capricorn and Neptune at 20* Pisces

Mercury is also in the same position of the Sun now. Mercury are thoughts and your every day decisions that must be made, no matter how mundane are now clear and make sense. Contemplation upon the scenario and narrative of intimidation or restrictions. The Mind must be fused with the Royalty of the Sun's lead and trust logic and facts, and that beautiful intuition of the heart now.

Thoughts will come to adjust you into greater confidence regarding your course, and into peaceful leadership, taking command of all situations which now appear to you somewhat crazy, ridiculous and a huge waste of time if you cave to the situations' limitations.

No longer putting up with nonsense, you move forward with a higher wisdom which governs your life.

August 12-14 – Mars at 23* Aries square Pluto at 23* Capricorn – Energized positive action takes hold. Even though it is a square, a power of regaining control (Aries) is in the air, as one sees the Capricorn/Pluto Power simply for the sake of them being in power, not willing to relinquish their control. Mars challenges and pushes back. There must be reasoning, intuition, compassion and higher purpose in order to follow, otherwise, it lacks the purity of motive, and we are changing.

August 15- 16 Sun and Mercury at 22*/23* Leo trines Mars at 22* Aries and inconjunct Pluto at 23* Capricorn.

Mind, Vitality, A Force of Light flows in proper and constructive ways. Tasks are handled well, people respond around you.

The inconjunct means we're having to go around a Plutonian power as it is dense and backwards. The Power Posture of Pluto is incongruent with the Radiant Vitality and what we sense is the correct way.

Your energy is moving in constructive directions. The urge to initiate action and begin a new thrust of a message, a project or task is great. Take action and let's engage in the progress of smart creative accomplishments.

August 16 - Venus at 8* Cancer square Chiron at 8* Aries - Socially, there can be conflicts between the sensitivity and more passive posture others might take at this time, holding back and pondering too much. These attitudes of others could be reflective of past fears of failure and pain. A day to be patient with those who don't understand and clouded by bad memories of attempting to advance and thrive, trust and love life but faced failure in their efforts. Time for Transmutation of the situation.

August 17-18 Sun and Mercury in Leo conjoin exact sextile the North Node in Gemini. An excellent time to plan, meet with your important people and strategize your finances, purchases and business plans for success. Budgets, financial focus and confident creative work is put into action and will reap good fortune throughout this cycle, this entire August 5 – 20, especially August 18.

Here is where I veer off the race track into speculative danger zones.....

If you can, important items which help you be prepared for any old thing that might be coming down the pike during this increasing time of volatile situations could be useful.

Mars and the Black Moon continues in the zodiac confrontational sign Aries along with the early degree of Chiron also in Aries lining up to hard aspects with Saturn/Pluto and Jupiter in Capricorn, then culminating in a Mercury in Libra in November, ( LEAVES RETRO ON NOV 1 – 6 in the sign of LIBRA at 26 degrees station).

This is forming a strong confrontational clash of power, where any show of force of ANY KIND could happen. We are already seeing it in all the explosions around the world.

So on November 1- 10 approximately, we'll have Mercury stationary ( more powerful) in Libra at 26* square Jupiter/Saturn/Pluto at 21 – 26 degrees Capricorn oppose Mars at 15 degrees and Chiron at 5* Aries ( Mars already building up its own power because it's been retrograde.)

This is such a volatile pressure in the warring sign of Aries – opposing against Mercury in Libra squaring off against the power trio of Pluto/Saturn and Jupiter in Capricorn end of October, peaking right through elections in the U.S. and supposedly diminishing by November 10 but I don't see that happening. Remember, Mercury rules decisions, papers, documents, bills and the way some are making conclusions completely stationary square ( conflicted) by Saturn in Capricorn, rigid, holding pattern, checkmate, stalled or blocked. Exact Nov 1- 6, 2020.

Aug 16-18

Sun /Moon and Mercury conjoined exact at 25* Leo sextile Node at 26 Gemini (Aug 17-18).

The Moon moves into Leo on August 16, joins the Sun and Mercury in Leo from August 16-18, and travels in the exact same pattern as the Sun and Mercury just went through in all the previous descriptions above.

( The pattern is the Moon in Leo square Uranus, inconjunct Jupiter and Pluto, sextile the Node and ending up in a conjunction with the Sun exact on August 18th creating a New Moon.)

New Moon in Leo at 26°*

conjoining Mercury and forming a Finger of God to Neptune in Pisces, and Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto in Capricorn.

This New Moon theme in full action exact on August 18 is the culmination of much deep thought we have already been in from the past week up through the 18th, serious processing and hard work August 9-16, leading up to the New Moon on the 18th. I can see it was already in full motion even last week from August 3-9th.

People have been working very hard trying to make the right decisions, taking command of their situations and having the confidence to rally creatively and draw down information in order to make the right choices. All situations and opportunities require empowerment to plan and initiate extremely constructive action into the physical world, to make the changes necessary to thrive for the future.

This can occur in every which way possible depending upon your life's priorities now. Pluto looming in the background inconjunct these powerful Leo qualities, could appear as an energy, small or gigantic, holding a threatening unmoveable position. It is either Energy ( a threatening sense of uncertainty we get when about to break through) or it is a real danger of abuse of some sort unwilling to bend or negotiate.) You are moving around this consciousness very creatively realizing this is a block and deciding to Thrive and move up regardless of its daunting size.

This is what the New Moon in Leo is teaching you, and you are the example leading the way for all to witness how it works. This is why I titled this week's STARDROPS "THE AMAZING SPIRIT BOUNCES BACK BUILDING SPEED FOR THE NEW MOON'S ACTION."

I guess we could say, gaining momentum, increasing velocity or something like, increasing our confidence in our own innate Spirit of Vibrancy, Reasoning, Common Sense and Trust in ourselves so by the time we reach that New Moon in Leo on August 18, we've reached a higher plateau in our consciousness, so much so, we've gone miles higher than that old self, and lower program that has tried to keep us down.

LET'S DO IT!
