SEPTEMBER 20-26, 2020

September 20 Mercury at 22* Libra square Pluto at 22* Capricorn

Communication information, media/news.

Normally this would be a day of caution for all communications, paperwork, documents meetings and important decisions. It's a time for examining one's relationships past and present, work or personal with the depth of wisdom one needs in order to face certain things that won't change- at least not any time in the near future. We can take any one of these options: Pray for change, enlightenment and a peaceful transformation of the situation into more truth and reality so the relationship or situation can progress. We could decide to mentally leave behind something and move on. We can remain in the situation but develop a strength with our own connection to our higher self, purpose and truth that is unlikely to waver or compromise no matter how much we're being pressured or at the mercy of someone elses' powers of persuasion ( or bullying)

Whatever you decide works for you, there is a sense of completeness or finality with the decision.

However, it's not the best time to discuss your thoughts, hold a meeting or confront others' mishaps as the sharpness and intensity of the discussion could be unproductive.

September 21 Venus at 17* Leo inconjunct Jupiter at 17*Capricorn Love and social situations are exasperatingly out of sync. ...what you would think is crystal clear is not to the other person, especially in the manner in which they repeat back to you the issues you're bringing up. In general, nothing in particular might happen this day between you and anyone – it's just a day of incongruency, missing the meaning of someone's point, missing out on connecting with people in your life, misunderstandings or taking things too personally.

September 22 Mercury at 24* Libra trine the Node at 24* Gemini With your mind and practical energy flowing towards more productive tasks- much can get done today! Money, organizing, efficiency with projects and a flow of success is amazing. Excellent for discussion, meetings, signing agreements, negotiating, mediating and making important decisions. Excellent for short trips, arranging vacations and anything involving plans and networking with others. Excellent for legal work.

Sun enters Libra A month of balance, beauty, love, increased harmony, peaceful connections and setting intention for win-win attitudes. The reality and truth of all situations will be exposed. Maintaining goodwill towards others will pay off.

September 23/24 Mercury at 25/26* Libra square Saturn at 25* Capricorn and oppose Mars at 26* Aries then returns most intensely November 1-6.

Another communication/information glitch. This is like a mental standoff which intensifies thoughts of urgency or amplified reaction to information or conversations one is pondering now.

Globally and personally, people could be at odds with very specific issues that have surfaced in the news and within our own personally lives. Firm decisions need to be made under this transit, but unlike the one above at the top ( Mercury square Pluto ) this one on Sept 23/24 is more or less a 'fed up' attitude and willing to finally put one's foot down with lazy, sloppy, compromising people, situations or circumstances. It might be more of an outspoken confrontational Mercury moment.

Problems will be addressed powerfully now. Some have legal issues that must be squared away – one party in denial or delusion, another party intensely fed up and calling it out.

Saturn checkmates Mercury in Libra's 'taking the easy way out' non confrontational posture and a history of compromising. We even look at ourselves and wonder why we're allowing ourselves off the hook with our own issues or being too easy on someone.

Time to create order in our minds, put everything and everyone in the correct place in our lives, value what we have, bring love and intense gratitude to the gifts we have already received, and the lessons! And yes, share, love, get together and support each other during this self examination period and bringing reality out into the open.

BY THE WAY, THIS CYCLE FROM SEPT 23-24 GROWS IN INTENSITY PERSONALLY AND GLOBALLY AND WILL REACH A CRESCENDO NOVEMBER 1-6 FOR 6 SOLID STRAIGHT DAYS.

It could be another form of lockdown of a plan in some form. It's quite serious. See Mercury/Saturn Symbols below to get the visual of the dates it's occurring:

This Mercury issue will be in an upcoming article titled Mercury Retro in Libra/Scorpio, the Sifting – but I want to add one more event about this Mercury retro, since it is occurring during one of the most historic elections ever – and this third Mercury issue is in the middle of these two Sept 17-23 and the Nov 1 – 6 Dates ---- It's between October 7 and 19th.

This is when Mercury will officially turn retrograde at 11* Scorpio and oppose Uranus at 11* Taurus.

The official date of Mercury turning Retro is October 13, 2020 oppose Uranus in Taurus (Money, Economy, Gold)

This Mercury retro oppose Uranus has something to do with a splitting apart, breaking away, cutting off, discarding an old regime, an archaic system, financial institution, amputating a corporation and all its tentacles connections and funding. it can be seen in so many ways as a splitting apart and separation between something much more effective and functional versus a corruption. There is a sudden public exposure, reveal occurring while these separations are going on.

Let's list all the possibilities of what the meaning of this cutting off and discarding an old regime might possibly be! I look forward to hearing from you and your ideas!

Here is what it looks like, below in Blue...All the 4 circled sections are Mercury making aspects which bring confrontations and conflicts beginning Sept 17 – 23, then leading to the decisions and separations starting Oct 7- 19. Then a round of establishing some form of restriction and formidable last word ( possibly something so factual and accurate, none can deny) occurs on Nov 1 -6. One last final review of this separation occurs on Nov 17, then the entire Mercury retro is over.

We could use other words to describe Mercury oppose Uranus, such as agitated oppositional polarizing confrontations with an end result in walking away, moving away, leaving or ending a situation by eliminating something or someone.

The Mercury Turning Retro and oppose the Uranus is shown in the Blue.

Oct 7 -19, then returning one more time on Nov 17.

Cutting off of an old system. Cutting off of any potential of guessing and projecting mistrust upon another body, person or situation and activity. Verifiable facts, information and truth is at the top to be accepted as fact. The challenging cutting off or separation mechanism is probably involving a splitting apart or choosing prioritizing between this or that, an intellectual decision, a document or an open or verbal and media involved statement or understanding which separates one thing from another, and leaves something archaic and not functional behind – because Mercury is mental/paperwork/documents/media and decisions. In Scorpio, it's pretty final – oppose Uranus – sharp, causative, decisive and unexpected. With Uranus, there will always be an element of surprise and shock, expose and truth coming through it.

When Mercury officially turns retro and is station there is always an extraordinary heightened intelligence sharp and observant, totally focused upon the truth of a thing one must know to move forward in life. This mental focus of intuition, information and powerful insight throughout the weeks before and up to the elections, the turning of Mercury retrograde which will be between October 20 up to Nov 3 exact, will be witnessed everywhere all over the world, and be felt also in our own personal lives.

Remember, the main theme of this September – November in regards to the Mercury retro is this: A profound depth of awakening and awareness is guaranteed to occur at a level not known before. Imagine you are at one end of this opposition being exposed to a revelation about a person/situation or activity that is rapidly becoming clear is terribly abnormal, distorted or in trouble. As the Oct 7 - 19 plays out, your conclusion is crystal clear in regards to learning something new about a person or situation – now what to do about it! This is the expose period.

When Nov 1 - 6 comes, Mercury squares Saturn for 6 days exactly when Mercury slows down a second time and changes directions moving out of retrograde towards direct. This is when a restriction and locked down decision is made. A block, barricade, boundary or an adamant statement based on reality is made which I'm guessing is not only about the elections, but the process used (possibly blockchain voting system) and other issues which took place before during and right after election involving the economy, global economy, systems etc..we discussed earlier. It's a huge two months ahead.

Venus at 19* Leo inconjunct Neptune at 19* Pisces Along with a necessary adjustment with a potentially procrastinating, sloppy or excessive leniency which has been going on forever, our values are being called into question. What are we valuing with this or that situation continuing? What are we getting out of it? Are there elements which are not helpful for us in the long run? Does it seem as if this or that person/ project/ situation is in outer appearance well meaning, positive and able to carry a project or commitment off, but in reality they are massively disconnected from your Sacred Life Purpose and that is what you feel is going on? Is this something you're reflecting on from your past that hasn't gotten settled yet or is it something you are going through right now? An inconjunct to Neptune typically means we're dealing with well meaning social situations, but a lack of depth of understanding, spiritual experience and practical education from life with this other person or situation therefore they don't have the ability to comprehend the bigger picture you're looking for assistance on. Shifts are part of all inconjuncts. Changes and adjustments from your own trust in competence, capable-ness and self directed empowerment versus kindness owed to another, feeling sorry for them, empathy or sensing an emotional connection which compromises what you are truly shooting for.

September 24 Mercury at 26* Libra oppose Mars at 26* Aries A day of sharp contrasts.

September 26 Venus at 22* Leo inconjunct Pluto at 22* Capricorn

An adjustment and obligation to bend, yield and force oneself to get things done, because of deadlines, due dates or personal challenges you've set for yourself.

September 27 is the start of a most surprising and tense globally shocking and polarizing coming from many astrology patterns, including the Mercury entering Scorpio moving towards retrograde, peaking on October 13 and lasting up to October 17, then building up again on Nov 1-6 as it turns out of retrograde and squares Saturn.

It will be the most incredible outpouring of unconventional information. It involves surprise changes and announcements, global economic financial extreme changes, corporate changes. Personally, something might force us to finally make that leap up higher through introspection, meditation or other forms of prayer and contemplation into that sweeter dimension of peace and place of positive aspirations in order to extricate ourselves from the negativity of the world.
