

STARDROPS

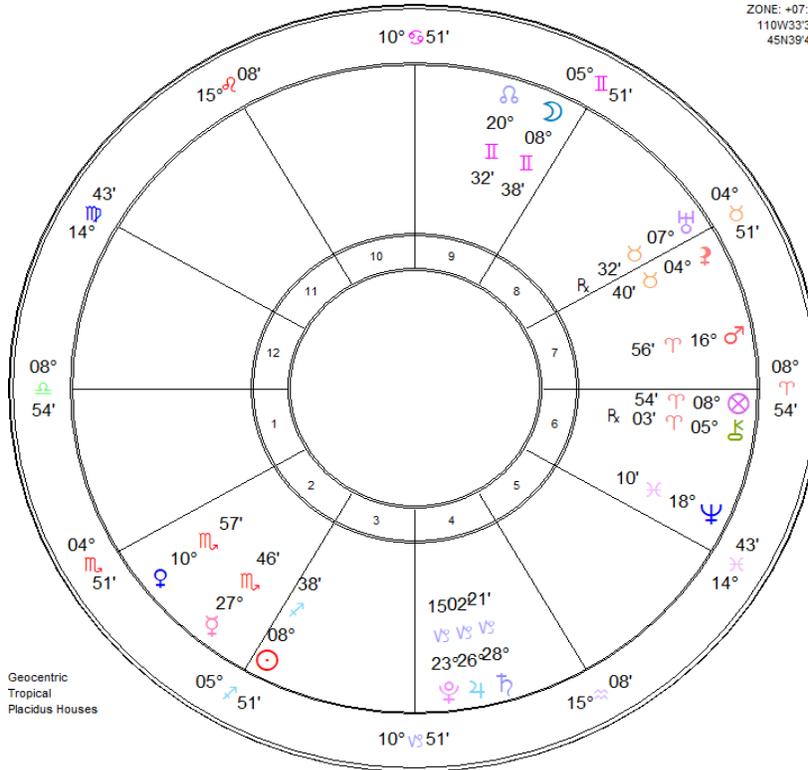

NOV 29 – DEC 5, 2020

Lunar Eclipse in Gemini Nov 25 – Dec 3, peaking exact on November 30, 2020

Caution required now with making important decisions – engaging in meetings where clear judgment is crucial, setting up appointments, signing documents and attempting to convey a message which has deep meaning. Beware of becoming entangled in drama.

Disengage from pressures to commit to big purchases. Watch out for being pressured into anything. People could miss key points, gossip and mislead others. Issues would be exaggerated. Taken out of context. Stressful confrontations or information you're involved in, might lack verification, or take a double turn, where others were heading one direction, and suddenly take a side path.

Crucial decisions or messages received which demand response, from the beginning of Nov 23 to Dec 3, peaking especially Nov 30, could seem normal, but might have hidden problems. Communication might seem straight and clear, yet the Moon in Gemini inconjunct Venus in Scorpio, which by the way is opposing Uranus can reveal secret issues in the back of someone's mind leading eventually to mistrust, alienation and indirect shunning.

This astrology cycle is not such a big deal unless you're counting on everyone being honest, reasonable and accurate during this end of November, first part of December, 2020. You all know how I feel about Lunar Eclipses. With practice, one can be on guard weeks before a lunar eclipse to resist any temptation to stir up trouble, thus avoiding making bad karma with others, or sabotage yourself.

Nov 30, 2020 Mercury 28* Scorpio sextile Saturn at 28* Capricorn

There are a few people in your circle who have your back. Certain people provide mature and experienced advice now. This cycle assists in sharing information with just a few, who have knowledge, common sense and analytical thinking, may be in a position to help you with future plans or assist you in organizing your thoughts around financial/health/relationship issues.

Remember, today is also the Lunar Eclipse, so even though you're receiving help, maybe it would be best to wait a few days before committing to anything.

Dec 4, 2020 Mercury at 6° Sagittarius trine Chiron 6° Aries Any wounds you have incurred in the past can be solved or shifted in some way. Physical? Emotional and Psychological? Today might hold a key for an adjustment of an attitude or perspective you've had all this time. Be open to healing.

Dec 5, 2020 Venus at 18° Scorpio trine Neptune at 18° Pisces Venus, our love and social magnetic planet, music arts and sensitivity is receiving beautiful inspirations from Spiritually and Higher Vibration Neptune. Meditation, self care and healing, spiritual communion are strong. Any act of service definitely adds points to your score card in heaven. All things done from love soar up to your own Causal Body held in place for you by your Higher Self. Venus trine Neptune would be one of those precious moments where true support, compassion and depth of love motivates our actions.

Dec 7-9 Sun at 18° Sagittarius square Neptune at 18° Pisces Shortly after such sweet inspiration comes the possibility of such generosity or kindness given to be taken advantage of, misconstrued or not returned in kind. Continue to protect that precious space of higher vision, love and positive intention now, even though disappointments or negative energies might try to move in on your moment. Push it back, roll it off and dissolve it in a special vessel of fire. Write down the problem or hurt in a letter to the Archangels and literally sign your name on the bottom and burn it.

You deserve to retain your up and powerfully positive supportive and clear perspective with inspiration.

With the continuation of Mars retro in Aries square to Pluto-Jupiter-Saturn in Capricorn, personal limitations, restrictions, frustrations and your natural need for freedom and be in some form of control could be agitating. Globally, a continuation of epic Control Wars for dominion over people of earth continues.
