

STARDROPS JUNE 20 - 26

This week's Stardrops has the usual astrological cycles, however, the Jupiter in Pisces turning retrograde today, jumped out to me as a key event. As I dove into this expansive planet's movement at this time, I began pondering all the events which occurred in this one life. I wondered for the first time, if a certain event was never suppose to happen, but could have been somehow mishandled, or deviated from its original potential or pathway, which led to this week's AFFIRMATION at the end of our Stardrops. This brings rise to many questions about time/space and our reality.

June 20 Jupiter turns retrograde at 2* Pisces ( See Jupiter retro description below)

June 20-22 Venus at 23* Cancer trine Neptune at 23* Pisces...with Venus in Cancer,

Our need for special social time, beauty and style, love and friendships, music, art, refinement of ones' surroundings, property and real estate, family time and closeness with those you love are dominating the theme on these days. Certain activities regarding any of these issues could have even been building up for a week or two. Hopefully, this astrology cycle provides us with not only external security and preparedness, such as getting certain financial or domestic issues out of the way so one might feel a sense of completeness and peace but also an internal intuition. This intuition could come as an inner guidance of direction towards any security you do need to think about and acquire. It should support your goals to achieve it.

June 22 Mercury stationary Direct at 16* Gemini Finally Mercury is leaving retrograde and going Direct. Certain business activities should pick up along with intelligent and exciting conversations which may have been left hanging over the past 3 weeks. Strange delays, frustrations and personal set backs might have occurred since the end of May, but now we can get back on track with proper support, information and also, good fortune for our daily life to begin making more sense.

June 22-23 Sun at 2* Cancer trine Jupiter at 2* Pisces With the Sun in a favorable aspect to Jupiter, the nuances you pick up within your feelings and intuition about important situations increases. Common sense, wisdom, intuition all increase to help and protect you. This is a good day for medical, financial, family events and a general mood of providing reassurance for others around you.

June 23 Venus at 26* Cancer oppose Pluto at 26* Capricorn One problem might pop up with a strained relationship. This day is a good day, however, something important needs to be handled in order to stabilize yourself. Frustrations with another might come up. Let it go if you can, and tell yourself to be patient until another day.

June 23 Saturn at 12* Aquarius sextile Chiron at 12* Aries Saturn provides objective truth and progressive information, a strategy and a strong possibility that those who have been somewhat behind, immobile and a bit paralyzed lately can now address that stuck feeling and get going with physical logical steps to take. The sextile usually involves a conversation with another which can support you, motivate you and open the door for you to walk through and get ahead with this issues.

June 24 Full Moon in Capricorn 3* ( Sun at 3* Cancer oppose Moon at 3* Capricorn)
As we approach this next Full Moon it's time to wrap up your tasks and projects if you can by June 24, as this is typically the moment when all things come due as the moon becomes full. Capricorn problems such as should I be trusting those in powerful positions, their opinions and expertise? How am I feeling about the people closest to me, am I becoming more perturbed about something they are doing - am I being surrounded by friends or situations which have an intensely sarcastic, critical or negative energy? Am I being pushed ( or pushing myself) too much, especially in regards to financial material accomplishments I feel I should have achieved by now?

Capricorn Full Moon amplifies criticism and sarcasm. Shield oneself from this type of banter within and without, and simply utilize this energy now up through the 24th, to tidy your place, organize your business and money, and be kind to self and to others. Beware of being cold, distant, aloof and, no shunning allowed!

June 25 Neptune turns Retro at 23* Pisces ( See description for the past Neptune Retro below)

June 26 Venus is in Leo As Venus moves into Leo soon it will catch up to Mars which has also moved into Leo on June 11. Both of these planets create the power to bring to us dynamic creative potential, activities, increase our leadership abilities and find greater meaning in our lives each day. It enhances joy, purpose, precipitation of hearts' desires.

From June 26 up through July 13, these two planets are running parallel with each other in Leo the sign of realizing our Divinity and Regal heritage from another plane of existence long forgotten. Feel it, believe it could be true! and project your love, confidence and creative ideas out into your future now!

( Excerpt from previous Stardrops)

Upcoming events:

Pluto turned retro on April 27

Saturn turns retro on May 23,

Jupiter turns retro on June 20

Neptune turns retro on June 25

Mercury turns retro on May 28

Each planet moving retrograde, tends to turn the power of that planet somewhat introspective and underground. It becomes introverted, passively active, REFLECTIVE. During this time, it would be helpful to take each Retro Planet occurring right now, and use its energy to take in something we have learned personally for the past six months or so, something you've suffered through, dealt with, or attempted to process. Take this time, during these retro cycles, to allow those lessons to sink in hard.

Allow these lessons to take.

It is a process of assimilating lessons which can enhance our Masterful Self, growing in wisdom, increasing our conscience and loving powerful nature.

Something we should have learned since the date it last turned Direct which is noted below.

When the planet turns retro, it turns inward and we process how far we've come, question and reflect. The planet operates beneath the level of outer expression. It becomes introspective, deeper and alters us to another perspective of our lives.

SEVERAL RETROGRADES IN PLAY

NEPTUNE

On November 28 2020, Neptune has been direct. June 22, 2021 it turns Retrograde. ( Normally when moving forward in the sky, Neptune assists us to be in touch with our intense ideals and expectations about life, the world, politics in the world, our business, money, our loved ones along with the potential of increasing some massive confusion, unhappiness, depression or grieving. These symptoms would absolutely be possible among many people with an active Neptune. Also issues such as increased deceptions, lies, subterfuge, and seemingly unsolvable and complex global or personal life situations which have gone left field, bringing much distress and appear no one is accountable nor acts as if they care, are seriously distressing and frustrating during an active Neptune. They are all in contrast with the heavenly blueprint ideals of what should be, but are not.)

On June 25, (and several weeks just prior to June 25,) we tend to now process what has happened, and accept outcomes, come out of denial, no longer hope for the best ideal fantasies, following pied pipers, and accept or make a truce and gather our wits to begin a new cycle.

It is almost as if we tend to the wounds of any losses and get back up and start the next round, regrouping and gathering new dreams and goals to us, but with a new awareness of the dysfunction we've been handling, vowing to do better next time.) We allow these expectations from others, from life and from Neptune to go underground a bit, realizing it was too much to expect out of life - putting Neptune in the correct perspective. We don't abandon our ideal expectations and dreams, our visions and imaginations...we're simply allowing this planet to take a rest and behave more subconsciously, more spiritual and trust it to internally guide us to a new and higher light.

URANUS

On January 13, 2021, Uranus moved direct, which led to the entire month of January 2021 exploding with revolutionary motivations, autonomous sovereign empowerment and powerful group identification. Direct remember, means coming out, coming alive, waking up and moving forward, having full use of its power out in the open.

This Uranus' awakening to sharp and distinct truths, continues up to August 19, 2021, when finally it goes retrograde sending the sparks which project "you can't control me" narrative underground for reviewing and evaluating the new strategy, to once again rise up with ones' inspiration for independence and freedom on January 18, 2022.

SATURN

May 23, 2021 Saturn turns Retrograde.

Saturn went direct on September 28, 2020 pounding us with its most serious constant message of personal ambition, achievements, accountability, facing realities, pushing strong narratives and putting increase responsibility karmically onto us all.

It compelled us to take upon oneself even more reality checks while it was in Capricorn, and intensify stronger evolution of change and objectivity, exposure.

The need and demand for truth, revolution, change taking on massive responsibility personally and globally. It possibly motivated many to go to the next level of facing hard facts.

Questioning and objectivity increased as Saturn began moving into the revolutionary sign of Aquarius. The intensity increased also to move against corrupt, dark and entitled group allegiances. Saturn acts as an immediate present here and now duty and reality check each day.

As Saturn turns retrograde, May 23, 2021, Saturn becomes the detective, going underground, digging deep deep deep with a highly refined Aquarian sophistication and intelligence, taking apart every piece of the details that was brought out into the global public awareness from that October 2021 on.

From this May 23, 2021 on - personally, it will cause you to get very real and smart with your life now.

Freedom is the objective. It will most likely force a natural organic spontaneity to take over.

The date again will be May 23, 2021 - October 10, 2021, where Saturn will then turn forward and bring to light more information, once again taking the world into another rich and quite overwhelming dump of truths and exposures.

Saturn is in the sign Aquarius, which Uranus is the ruler of, the Aquarian drive for objective knowledge and exposure out into the open into the world of Aquarian humanitarian problem solving.

PLUTO

Pluto Retrograde occurred on April 27, 2021 and has been in the sign of Capricorn since 2008. It has been driving its slow relentless pressure to use every avenue it can to funnel, to control, manipulate and permeate into the physical world either the degenerating dark agenda of those who crave POWER, or encourage us to realize our ability to use power correctly and organize and govern.

It attempts to take over all Capricorn type activities and individuals, to push its rules and agenda into every aspect of our world as fast as it can.

On the flip side, for those who are inclined to utilize Capricorn wisdom and organizational abilities, providing public impact for the betterment of others, laying down higher standards and laws, structures and boundaries, protecting boundaries, protecting sane and clear barriers to maintain order and some sanity in the world, this Pluto inspires those to relentlessly rise up every morning and push through what business they can accomplish.

It's been the power driving their positive ambitions for the better.

This Pluto has been actively direct openly transparent and unabashedly displaying its grandiose obsession of power for all to see since it last turned direct on October 4, 2020.

On April 27, 2021, it turned Retrograde until October 6, 2021. Some form of subduing or frustration of the feverish push for power grabbing might go underground, continue to manipulate, yet not so openly.

For everyday people, this Pluto will operate within us as a silent reminder of our own inner need to achieve something good and important to us. We relax into the process of accepting our achievements and keep moving on with what is left to do.

Pluto will move into Aquarius on March 23, 2023, then return to Capricorn for a while, then move back into Aquarius for several years, officially on November 19, 2024.

JUPITER

As Jupiter turns retrograde, all the curiosity, questioning and processing of past events which might have appeared as misfortunes, can be reflected upon and transmuted now.

Jupiter turning retro in Pisces could very well bring to the surface of your feelings and world, an abundance of history where one wonders, was there a deviation from my true path during these particular events which have altered in some way my original road of fulfillment? How did it happen, and where was I complicit with it, or was I a victim of circumstances that could not be overturned?

This Jupiter in Pisces, now moving retro active to the end of July, is an opportunity to meditate, concentrate and increase affirmations and prayer to the most powerful chemicalization available to us, a Fire all around the ether known as the Violet Transmuting Flame.

It is said age old Masters utilized this powerful essence and high vibrating electrical essence all around their body, their past and even opening new doors for their future success. By visualizing this intense Violet color, then repeating a few times an affirmation such as the one below, directing it to your past mistakes, regrets or hard circumstances, one could begin step by step erasing the cause, effect, record and memory of certain traumas that either should have never been, or were karmic problems which to this day hinder the progress.

AFFIRMATION:

"I call to the most powerful I AM, the God above, within and all around every thing, and ask for the most sweetest release of the Violet Transmuting Fire, from the higher realms of beauty and love, to penetrate into my own body, my mind and its past, to open the way for future blessings, and to consume all emotional pain, physical handicaps and sorrows, and raise me into a purer etheric radiance and mastery now. I thank you and accept this done this hour in full power, Amen."

APPOINTMENTS

sirius@starfires.com

www.starfires.com