We left off last week, discovering we have all been in some sort of crucial shift. The day after the Post,

A New Path Emerges, October 3 - 9, our website broke, which obviously forced us to make the big shift to the new site which has been on hold, since Christmas 2020. Since the article was all about emergency adjustments, taking on suddenly a new direction, I thought I would share!

Along with the break, last weeks' Stardrops describing the New Moon in Libra, Mercury retro in Libra, and Mars in Libra, all inconjunct Uranus in Taurus, oppose Chiron in Aries and square Hades in Cancer, somehow mysteriously disappeared. ?? So, it has been re-inserted but out of order, you can find it above in Blue in case you want to review. What a week!

Oct 10 Saturn turns Direct

Opportunity to move forward successfully with a new clarity and information that was needed, previously did not have all the truth, regroup, be empowered and take the steps to improve on certain situations in your life that now can lead to greater productivity and achievement of ultimate goals. It is as if Saturn has been unleashed from Saturn's restraints and now the new structure, game plan and organization required, can be implemented. It's a green light.

This cycle is occurring the same time Mercury and Jupiter are also about to turn directions and move forward (below) giving us an additional boost of information, knowledge and clarity needed.

In addition to receiving that necessary push of empowerment to implement our constructive plans there are some meddling energies that will also ramp up their own strategies.

As Saturn is coming out of retrograde, this will give darker forces a false sense of power to escalate whatever it is on their minds to do, as we know, they never sleep 24 hours a day, but live to meddle and attempt to integrate their own kind into our beautiful world completely. Many are following a dark hierarchy above their heads that very few ever see or even know exists.

This is why decisions from those in public positions of power, seem absolutely bizarre, no rhyme or reason. Could they be receiving their orders from somewhere way beyond our comprehension?

Look up.

Infiltrating our world is what they live for, any way they can dream up...they will try.

Oct 10-11

A continuation of the Mercury retro in Libra, Mars in Libra, New Moon in Libra all inconjunct (quincunx) Uranus in Taurus at 14***

.....(More of this configuration below)... The Mercury inconjunct Uranus highlighted on these dates puts us in a position of correcting things that have already been acted on or put into motion from the past two weeks. It's necessary to go through the motions, follow the next steps and protocol, especially with data, documents, paperwork, meetings, tech decisions and adjustments. Just keep moving in your new direction even though it's not perfect yet, it's an important step.

Oct 13 Venus at 6* Sagittarius sextile Saturn at 6* Aquarius.

Our social connections are satisfying, happy and fun yet they are also serving a crucial purpose of discussing sobering situations. Planning, organizing ideas, sharing knowledge and discussing how to be of greater usefulness might also be part of this social connecting during this week.

Oct 13 Sun at 21° Libra inconjunct Neptune at 21° Pisces

In addition to the Mars inconjunct Neptune (below) the Sun is in a strange out of sync cycle with Neptune. If the Sun represents our core vitality and radiance, our confidence and peace especially experienced with our key relationships, then this cycle is an odd disconnect requiring us to go deeper in our own needs, project ourselves into future times in order to see what we are shooting for, an end goal, and how right now, it might not be capable of happening.

Oct 15 Sun in Libra trine Jupiter at 22° Aquarius

As Mercury also trines Jupiter in Aquarius, this is a positive day for feedback, improvement, giving and taking advice and feeling the love! It's a good day for positive visionary planning, teaching, publishing, travel, work on our business, children, a date with an important person, finances and employment.

Oct 15 Venus in Sagittarius semi-square Pluto at 24° Capricorn

This cycle could create a hint or intel involving global economic changes, yet because it is a minor aspect, and especially to Pluto, there is no proof, no validation, yet a hunch the information or connecting the dots to this and that activity is accurate and could only be leading to one outcome. This possible outcome is what we needed to know. It helps us realize the complexity of a higher economic prosperity for our future, more security, independence and control yet at the very same time, other activities attempting to make their moves to further re-arrange economic structures in a way to interfere. The latter won't work in the long run as the Venus in Sag has the moral high ground.

(Transiting Pluto at 24° Capricorn is also moving away from that troublesome opposition to the United States Conceptional 1776 Mercury at 24° Cancer in the 8th house we have been in since March 2020, and Pluto in Capricorn is also in its very final square to the U.S. Natal 1789 Mercury in the 8th house since March 2020 on August 17 up through November 23, 2021. Both of these horrible transits have implemented a nightmare roll out of unthinkable destruction for humanity. I'm bringing these cycles of the U.S. Charts up because October 15 Venus semi-square Pluto could be a moment in time where we come up for air and begin projecting a plan, project or decision that is totally workable, in regards to the larger scope of challenges.

Oct 14-17 Mars in Libra inconjunct Neptune at 20* Pisces

Some peculiar situation out of left field, is interfering with the course of action you have committed to take. We might need to adjust our week, refine the way we wanted a particular outcome to occur this week.

Global financial activities don't make any sense. Something mysterious is going on behind the scenes - compose yourself and realize we are in a period of increasing flux. Great wealth is being moved in secret. Take stock in what you do have to create your own secure plan for the next year or two. It doesn't matter how much or small, time to protect.

Oct 16 Mercury at 10* Libra sextile Venus at 10* Sagittarius

Key opportunity to teach something, share information and build a rapport with special people who are in your life.

Get ready for Mercury to turn direct at 10* Libra (Oct 18) and Jupiter to turn direct (Oct 17) at 22* Aquarius.

As you can see, from the 1st part of October, officially beginning on Oct 11 (above) to October 24, as Mercury once again appears stationary in the sky, it make an exact inconjunct to Uranus in Taurus at 14*.

Even though these are exact dates when we might expect the strongest change of direction in some area of our life (and globally). We discovered in last week's Stardrops, many experienced this shift already beginning as early as October 5 or 6th building up through the most powerful period of the change of direction in one's life in some way, October 10 - 24.

In other words, what you started early October, will escalate until your thinking has totally adjusted to a new decision or way by October 24.

As Jupiter becomes stationary in the sky ready to move forward on October 17, there will be another power of ethics expansion, integrity, wisdom and truth radiating everywhere intensified enhancing the Mercury's new direction. Jupiter is also in play with the purpose of the Mercury retro, as it has been in a trine with this Mercury slowing down and turning direct since October 3. When Jupiter appears to stop, (station) and move forward on October 17, it reaches its maximum power to flood our world with knowledge and shall we say a sense of rightness in our new clarity?

This Jupiter/Mercury and New Moon in Libra cycle is and has been an immense empowerment released to give us a push. It has really brought a sharper vision as to what has been going on in the world and what we individually need to do for our own situations. As it turns direct on those key dates (Oct 17-18) it will only increase its power of revelations. You can't deny, you're getting smarter!

As Mercury retro also continues to square the transit of Pluto from September 22 to November 2, and Mercury retro square Hades, September 7, October 14, and October 22, making the most obvious reveal regarding our global predicament and all its origin, details and ramifications on October 14 - 22, 2021. Be watchful for the sobering transparency of our saga in all its reality and truthfulness exposed finally on that time period of OCT 14 - 22, 2021 one way or another, every angle with be uncovered publicly.

In conclusion, my inner longing to share a mystery (but maybe not for some) that the dangers we have been dealt are interfacing with our physical world, and I continue to urge all of us to walk our own Multi-Dimensional paths - one part, with full confidence, to live and work as if not much has changed, just a few things we have been inconvenienced with, challenging us to continue to prosper and thrive.

The other path is Libra Reality. Adjusting to a stark truth of what is possibly attempting to move into our world but determined to block it. Reject it, outsmart it. And all the while, master the ability to remain in the body, not disconnect, disassociate. Know, you can handle it, and simultaneously, maintain your connection to what is truly real in the heart, which is your LIFELINE to ETERNITY, and there is our JOY.

“ I AM now in complete alignment with the Divine Intelligence, Love and Direction, opening the way to claim my security, prosperity, protection and awareness. I call upon the Great Master who overcame the world, to show me the way each day. “
