LUNAR ECLIPSE IN TAURUS/SCORPIO

This week, several important aspects are occurring, but the most important one to watch will be the Lunar Eclipse building up to a peak on November 19. Harnessing the Light from the love around us has the sufficiency to negate any Lunar Eclipse trickery. Many of you know, eclipses in my world, mean potential physical accidents. In addition to poor judgment with ones' physical surroundings, behavior or decisions, there is also a compelling emotional element to it.

From November 10 or around that date, a new minor theme could insert itself into our world which can be potentially sabotaging. Typically with Taurus/Scorpio, it's based upon the assumption what another is expecting from us, we need to give. We assume a mutual trust, a give and take will be honored. During a Lunar Eclipse such as this one, if your own circumstances involve you in any kind of Scorpio desire to share, act on someone's information, or receive support or reassurance from someone, expecting something in return from someone, or possibly a situation of unfair negotiation or temptation to accept an offer, or make a purchase or exchange of service which seems perfectly fine, but isn't fine, watch for the signs of breezing through a meeting, a conversation, a process without truly vetting the situation, and the people or company or product etc.. involved. During the time of November 10 or around there, up to November 19th, and a few weeks thereafter, It's not the best time to trust, commit or plan any out of the ordinary event, especially if there is danger or risk involved.

Some sort of mishap or entrapment could occur, or possibly a betrayal in some manner.

Usually during Lunar Eclipses the problem is doing or saying things we regret. Sometimes the events are physical, we weren't paying attention and we get hurt, or someone close to us was not careful. I seriously sense at times, it's a set up from some invisible force., using the Lunar Moon Eclipse as the vehicle to anchor the disruption into the physical.

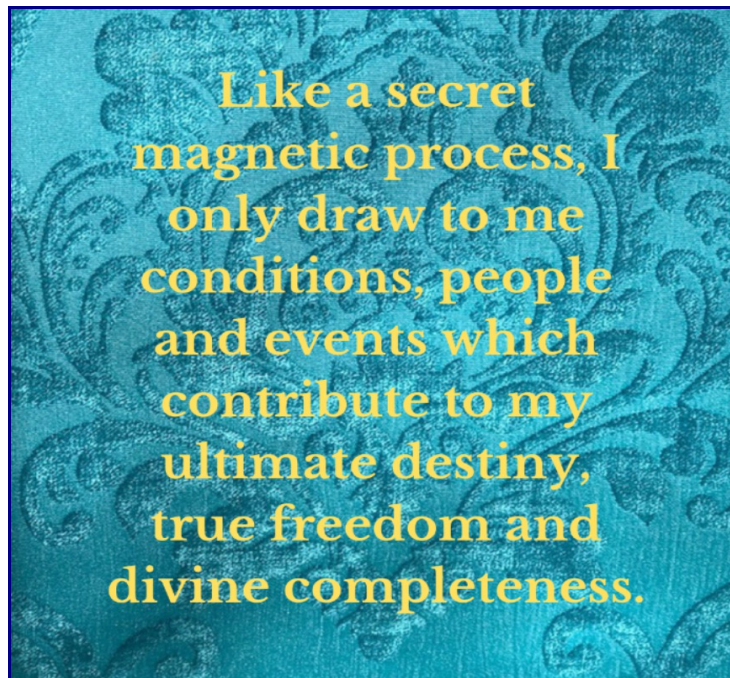

LUNAR ECLIPSE IN TAURUS NOVEMBER 19, 2021

Not everyone is going to experience this, but do be on guard for unexpected mishaps and definitely use precaution.

Because Jupiter in Aquarius is at right angles to both the Sun in Scorpio and the Moon in Taurus, excess is the problem. Overdoing something, magnifying an issue, or not using the best vision or judgment. Issues involving lack of foresight, or assuming someone else surely must be handling this or that issue properly. Also, severe arguments based upon conflicts of opinions, judgments and emotionally charged beliefs which conflict with another person's reality. Don't assume. Jupiter squares also bring moral issues up. Lack of integrity, morality or any pressure to deviate from ones' standards.

Also, any issues where you sense you are compromising in some way, but do not know how to handle it. This Lunar Eclipse, the Sun and Moon opposite, are both square Jupiter, so Jupiter is the funnel, the tip of a T-square, which tries to handle the polarizing stress. Jupiter in Aquarius is all about massively investigating depth of detail using mental agility. It is intelligent, asks all the right questions and only cares about truth, transparency and progress. The way out of the pressure and trickery of this Lunar Eclipse, is to ask enough questions to the point of maybe even being a bit annoying, until you get to the bottom of the situation. Now you have a handle on any potential danger or conflict. This Lunar Eclipse funneled into Aquarius Jupiter, will also increase the brilliant mind which requires a treasure trove of never heard before information. Because Aquarius is Air, it is mentally adept at comprehending profound insight into any subject.

Let's move on to some more interesting cycles!

November 15

Sun in Scorpio square Jupiter in Aquarius and Venus in Capricorn squares Chiron in Aries

The penetrating vision of Scorpio's energies push us to go farther, deeper than normal. We seek out vibrant contrasts of experiences in order to enhance what we desire to accomplish. When Jupiter makes a sharp angle to the Sun, it increases the desire to understand everything! It also could cause interference from outside opinions or politically incorrect postures making it hard to stay on track with what seemed originally like a clear road to follow. Branching off to modify ones' position doesn't hurt but attempt to maintain ones true blue destiny.

November 16

Sun sextile Pluto

Favorable energies are available to us now to receive and give, share and support with important people who get where we're coming from. They share our vision. Embrace this comfort.

November 16 - 18

Mars, Mercury oppose Uranus in Taurus

Unstable Global financial swings lead to reacting too far one way or another. Maintain the middle ground. This goes for all external threats which appear to be asking way too much from each individual. Personally, the challenge for these days hint upon the insight you get about what your future is going to need for you to do. Uranus oppositions can give us sharp awareness projecting into future situations which we need to handle now. Balance is needed however, since we are all under Lunar Eclipse potential spells to make some wrong judgment in spending, surrendering, accommodating or acquiring something. Take it easy.

November 18

Mercury trine Neptune at 20* Pisces

Strong intuition floods our minds as we seem to just know how to move forward. Trust that peace inside which shifts you to a mood of inner confidence. Music, love, creativity and the power of vision you muster up in order to remind oneself what is at the end of your rainbow journey, will be easy this day.

November 18

Venus trine Uranus in Taurus

Love is permeating all your negotiations. You are honest, transparent, have nothing to hide. You feel like projecting good will and true camaraderie onto your group that you are working with. We're all in this together for the greater good!

Excellent energies bring curious unconventional interests in things which one would not normally put any importance on. This is a nice day for visits, company, getting together with friends and experiencing that love we experience when we're in the presence of others who are like us.

November 20

Mercury square Jupiter and sextile Pluto

An exaggeration with communication. Poor judgment with contracts, either feeling rushed and overlooking the fine print, or feeling pressured to hurry up and make a decision...this aspect could simply cause one to feel impatient to decide upon something, but typically we're under some kind of duress, attempting to do way too much in a small amount of time. Give yourself another day to figure it all out. What's one more day?

November 21

Sun enters Sagittarius

The shift into Sagittarius energizes our physical and spiritual optimism projecting what we want out there as a target we're sure we'll reach somehow. Keep that theme strong in your mind as we move through the Sagittarius power.

Venus in Capricorn Retrograde

Even though this astrological event called Venus Retrograde occurs on December 19 2021 and only lasts up to January 29, 2022, You can expect an uncanny protection around you like a padded insulation penetrating your world, replacing worry and negativity with love and worth, self esteem and opportunity. A person could even experience more joy with a Venus retrograde. Look for it as early as November 25 up to March 5, 2022.

Capricorn is a Blue Cardinal Sign and governs Blueprints. With Venus activating this Sign of Capricorn, a tremendous clarity and confidence about where you are going and what steps to take should organically and naturally take over your heart. This action is coming from the interior of your being, not really impacting the mind so much at all. It's coming from within and causing your next steps of action to literally fall into place. Venus enhances for us what we might want to value, invest in, and Capricorn has to do with ambition, our goals we desire to materialize. We can make great strides now, materializing what we need and be guided to exactly what we should be prioritizing in our lives.

It also denotes status and how the world around not only sees us, but how we would like the world to see us. It governs power, authority, government, procedures, protocol, law and the rules. It assists in your career. It enhances your own self esteem in order to make the right choices, and can bring love into your life. Venus in Capricorn, you would think should enhance love, social kindness, recognizing ones worth as a human being and bring about fairness, since Venus naturally rules the signs Libra and Taurus.

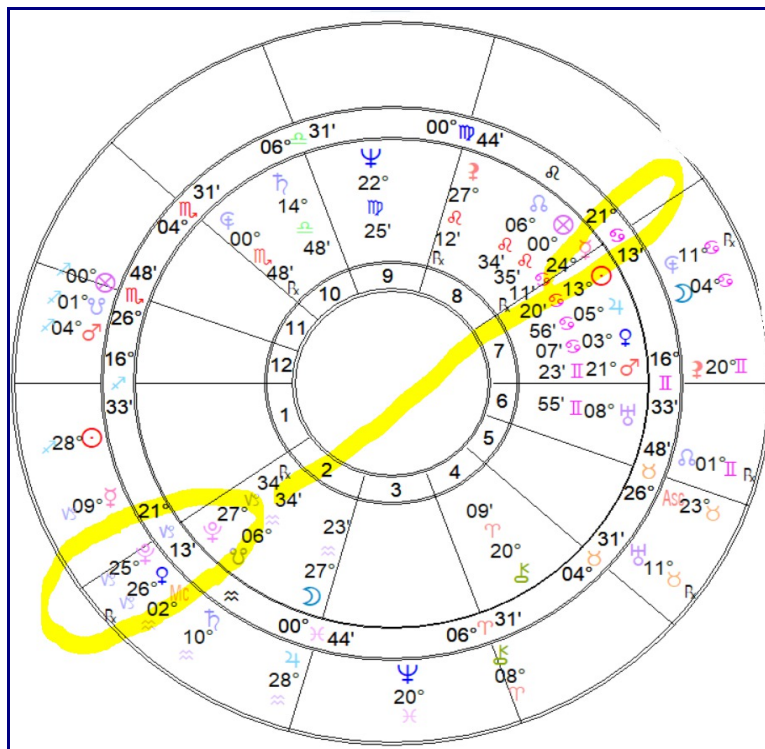

It should also bring to the surface the global events, economic structures which some particular power group might decide is the perfect timing to implement. There are always two sides of every astrological event, so if there are those that will use Venus in Capricorn's ambitious energy who are not in harmony (Venus) with the majority of the people, the higher power of Venus takes over, and pushes for the taking back of ones' right to have ownership over one's life, and authority to maintain and increase each person's status and significance. Venus will then enhance and maximize a global wave of empowerment with ones' worth and right to own ones' own life as the motive.

Because of Venus' conjunction to Pluto, an obsessive, one-pointed power will probably take hold of you for whatever reason, now. This is why global unilateral power could be acted upon especially in an area of disregarding individuals' financial and personal value. In reverse, the individual could feel absolutely pushed to the wall to react based upon their Venus feelings of wanting ownership over their own lives and decisions. Pluto can also purge a toxic situation. It drives deep to uncover, EVERYTHING. More Exposures will come out. Power will still be the motive of this Venus/Pluto even though Venus the planet of love, is the instigator. This is because it's in Capricorn, the sign of power. But the power can be based upon love rather than another amalgamation of power grab from the handful of, whatever they are, group of individuals that always love to take over the world.

This aspect is also targeting America's charts....

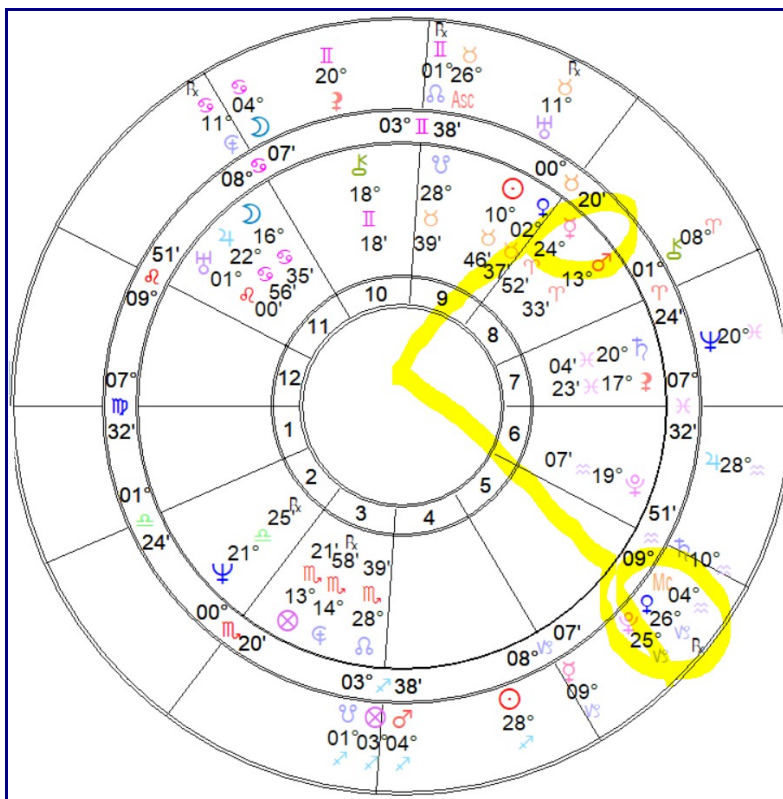

...Venus will be conjoin transiting Pluto at 25 degrees (as we noted above), and simultaneously, the U.S. 1776 Pluto at 27 degrees Capricorn in the U.S. 2nd house and oppose the U.S. 1776 Mercury. In addition, Venus and Pluto both, will also be in a square to the U.S. 1789 Mercury in the 8th house at 24° Aries end of November up to March 6, 2022, especially between December 1 - 19th, 2021.

U.S. 1776 Chart with Venus/Pluto in the 2nd house

Fortunately, the most powerful oppression from Pluto square the U.S. 1789 Mercury once in 246 years, has ended, from March 2020 - up to November 23rd, 2021, ending an absolutely horrendous experience uncovering everything which has been revealed. Never to go back again to the innocence we all once might have had. This is exactly what happens under this astrological cycle, you know if you have ever lived through it personally.

U.S. 1789 Chart with Venus/Pluto in the 5th house square Mercury

To have Venus and Pluto conjoin in our Solar System throughout December 2021- March 2022, at the very same time it is also conjoining the U.S. Conceptual Pluto, is incredible. We all have been watching the rapidly approaching event of the Transit of Pluto moving towards the U.S. Conceptual Pluto for some time now (Me? About 20 years!) and anticipating heightened global polarizing occur everywhere. It is that return of American symbolic 1776 moment for the first time since 1776. It is intensifying complex demands individually and nationally for everyone, against a small minority of hugely powerful forces who want their way with, everything.

Add Venus in Capricorn to this event and you have a chemical composition of ultimate finalities as to which way it's going to go establishing the new permanent blueprint of law, integrity and value of each person's rights including nations. The powder keg energies will be concentrated upon ones' ownership, personal worth, value, business owners, financial and economics and subjects which continue to surface and have been surfacing for the past four or five years or so - following the money and the blood to get to the root of what it is that must end.

The Aqua Dome

The Blue Teal Dome is a thoughtform I experienced in 1993 September while on an adventure in the Tetons. As you know by now, I want to share information with you I have personally witnessed that is useful. Without disclosing the entire experience, something unbelievable happened which was validated in the news shortly afterwards. The color, the quality and frequency of that light of Aqua, holds some sort of incredible quality. The Power of this Aqua Teal Dome is real. I see these Rays as possible energetic emanations or powers, which hold specific abilities distinguished by the color. It has an intelligence and comes from God to be used with our discretion. Because we're entering a quick Lunar Eclipse period now for a few weeks, and the much anticipated Pluto Return of 1776 on February 2022, I felt like sharing this visual with you so you could use if you like.

Simply visualize an Aqua Teal Dome, transparent and shimmering projected over your country, home, family, town or business or whatever you like. Imagine you are up above the location looking down. Use a map if you like. Make the affirmation below and sustain it in your heart and minds' eye for as long as you can. The key is to feel the depth of love for its action, which is to protect and consume all evil.

By projecting this colorful transparent shimmering Dome over any area, two things occur; A cooling down and healing action takes place, penetrating every single situation which is ready to pop, eliminating all abrasive and violently unjust actions potentially occurring under this dome, and secondly, powerfully repels any outside invasion attempting to aggravate and destroy peace and harmony, sanity and right action within that area. It combines the Blue Power of complete protection and good judgment with the Golden Fire of Wisdom. it provides an amazing cool electric Healing. This Dome demonstrates the efficacy of precision required to unravel all things destructive to people wherever it is placed.

REMEMBER...

November 23 2021 Midnight

Pluto square U.S. Natal Mercury since 2020 March, is done at midnight November 23, 2021. From that day forward, an increase of personal confidence, vitality and mental clarity should begin coming back to America and the world.

One more to go - Saturn at 10 degrees Aquarius square U.S. Natal Sun at 10* Taurus in the 9th house - February 2021 - December 20, 2021. The end of one long grueling process of waking up to harsher and more shocking realities about specific darkness and how it impacted you and everyone. Once in 29 1/2 years, but compounded by the Pluto transit above. Very soon, December 20, 2021, that cycle will also be done.

To recap, be on guard a bit more than normal with interactions with others involving strong emotional expectations and investment of yourself in them. Be cautious with purchases, signing contracts and all forms of commitments that might at the moment appear fine, but really think thoroughly through the situation. Be cautious with your physical body and avoid taking risks.

Expect from Venus at the end of the month, a sensation of padding, increasing ones' standards in life because of a new knowing your own worth as a person. This will be happening all over the world, and there will be a force that is also going to try to tap this Venus' power, and lock down a new fallen blueprint for the planet that will attempt to negate the positive realizations people will be going through. This will segue into the February Pluto return in the U.S. 1776 chart. It could be a spiritual moment of the return of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, but this time, not just for America, but globally. Good Fortune and see you in a week!
