

STARDROPS JANUARY 30 2022 New Moon in Aquarius

Big Statements Will Be Made

Beginning on Jan 28, 29, 2022 we'll all enter a very interesting place as a new moon begins, and Mercury turns direct 24* Capricorn on February 3 while conjoining Pluto. The Mercury conjoin Pluto from January 28 - Feb 11, 2022 we will go into first.

Mercury Direct in Capricorn conjoin Pluto

The two peak dates where our Planet of the mind, decisions and communications conjoins the power planet Pluto, are January 29 and February 11, 2022 exact, however, the theme will run through the entire two weeks.

From January 28/29th up through February 11 a more than ordinary mental power drives us to dig deep, be thorough, plan and organize, schedule and achieve. Something purposeful and serious, has slipped into our world.

Take advantage of this time to really zero in on how to move from A to Z in any one particular path of your life now. Make a plan, give yourself a challenge. It will be fun to start February with this kind of clarity and purpose, in addition to the New Moon now supporting you.

Since this conjunction will be in Capricorn, the possibility for the plan to be long term, building one layer at a time over the span of even the entire year, is super charged with success.

Define your category this determined focus for achievement will be in - Emotional/Spiritual needs? Physical and health requirements or possibly business and financial pragmatic plans which must be reached.

The global upside will be witnessing a fierce and piercing penetrating mental attitude to strip and purge all that is punitive and corrupt. Pluto acts a bit obsessive, but also has the ability to be a tearing down and dissolving energy in order for something better to emerge. This is personal and what you will notice occurring in the world during February.

Expect a strong narrative capturing the minds of many regarding very specific issues. These energies from Mercury/Pluto act as triggers. Each issue will be deeply torn apart, penetrated and made into an obvious point to be protected or destroyed.

Mercury can involved networking, pathways of information and Pluto would be universal, global, on a massive scale.

Mercury is travel, transportation, movement and Pluto leads it to a force of overriding other power structures.

Mercury is health, immune systems because of its innate connection to the sign Virgo, and logic, data, science because Mercury also rules Gemini. Pluto is transformation, reveal and rejuvenation on a large scale. Are you seeing how Pluto magnifies one or many of these issues and causes them to become new rules, policies, setting precedence?

Mercury rules letters, conversations, news, media, documents, communication sharing and reveals, and Pluto's influence makes it shocking, controversial, dramatic. Because it involves Capricorn government, power structures, regulations and desire to control in a massive way is possible. Large systems of authority, established agencies, leaders, government and supreme postures of power speaking, challenging and being challenged publicly. Public display of punitive actions directed by certain individuals is threatening. Equally challenging will be plain and simple talk but with authority, mass and power.

Mercury conjoin Pluto will also unfortunately be dealing with death and it will instigate huge conflagration of power individuals, nations or regions zeroing in on discussion over documents, treaties, negotiations and resources.

It rules pathways opened or shut and severe confrontations and solutions. It will be the coming to a head of decisions on how to move forward in quite a dynamic way. It's no skipping through fields of wildflowers and buzzing little bees. It means business. It can rip up documents, decisions and agreements. It will root out people. Disturbing conversations can erupt publicly. People can exit offices.

This cycle is intense, only because of three things - Mercury has been retrograde and already conjoined Pluto once as it started the retro, just after Christmas 2021, then returns as Mercury begins to move forward again, from that January 29 to February 11, 2022 period. Secondly, It's occurring during the New Moon in Aquarius square to Uranus, which is its own unique force. And thirdly, we are entering the Pluto return in U.S. Chart, cycle in February. If Mercury is in a holding pattern for over a few weeks, which is has been, it intensifies the impact of it's purpose.

Because of Pluto's ability to reach far and wide, this will encompass the world. Remember, this mind planet conjoined with Pluto/Global one pointedness with a plan, is running right into the 1776 Pluto return in the U.S. Conceptional 1776 chart which builds up to the official date of February 21 2022....and who knows how long this new revolutionary power will last. It could last years, once the doors swing open.

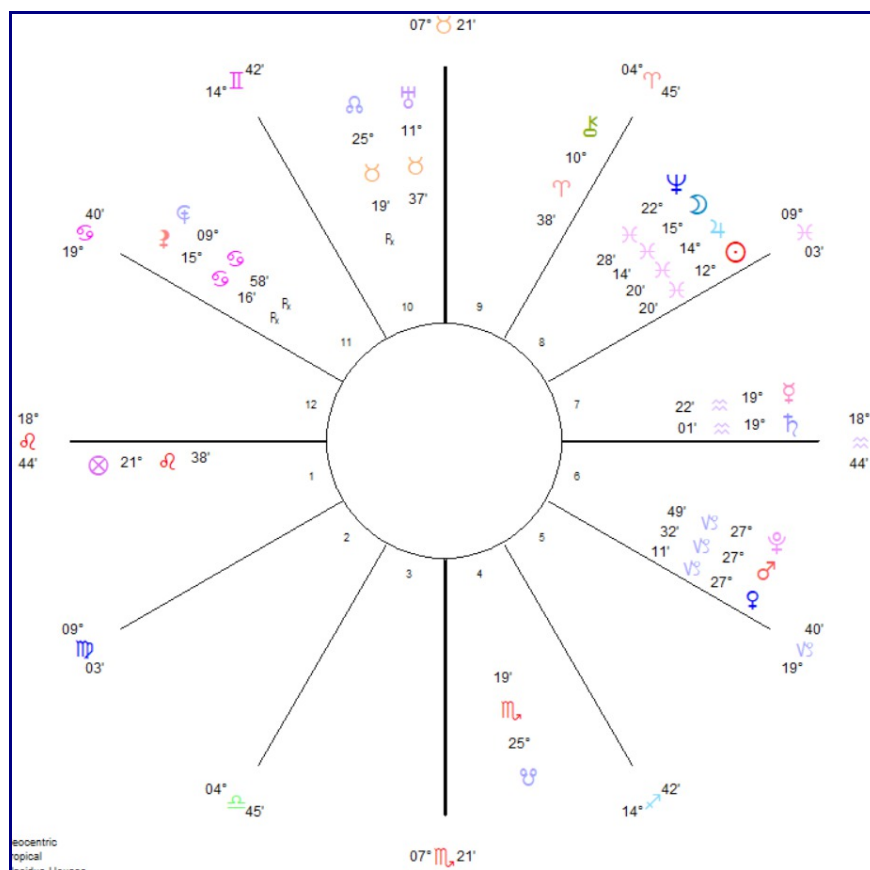

As this Pluto return kicks in, on February 21, just after the Mercury/Pluto event, it leads to yet another power conjunction on February 22 - March 6, peaking exact March 2, 3, 4th of the Mars, Venus and Pluto conjunction at 27-28° Capricorn.

In our own lives, this story continues to uplift and clarify our values and priorities, encouraging us to get it together with our issues, dealing with particular realities and restrictions we need to figure out how to solve, while choosing how to use our mental energy throughout the day. Some are choosing to increase spiritual meditation and contemplation in order to rejuvenate themselves, others, understandably, glued to current events in the world.

As we approach this date of February 22 - March 3, emotions can become out of control, so much so it could cause an inconvenient mishap. Important now, to engage in visualization and affirmation and prayer to contain the highly charged on the surface RED HOT, values (Venus) leading to extreme measures taken in order to solve social problems once and for all, during these dates.

This could be the date of that first shot heard around the world return of July 4 1776 moment. Mars can make it very physical

March 2 2022 Mars, Venus and Pluto in Capricorn

Negative issues would be a noticeably increase and distinct abuses of power, triggers leading to destructive retaliation, authoritarian escalation and desperation. Most networking and communication with Pluto involved, will be undercover and extremely coded. So back to the Mercury/Pluto again, communication might be missing, encrypted or things might not make sense. This will be another cycle of uncovering motives and extremely complex entanglements handled, like supercharged chess pieces moving across the board of the world. People will be fully engaged speculating what is really going on here.

Keep life simple, cut and dry, logical and well planned out, using facts and a straight line drawn to your ultimate destination - this is how to navigate through this Mercury direct conjoin Pluto.

Other Relevant Cycles

Feb 4, 2022 Mars 8° Capricorn sextile Jupiter at 8° Pisces A few days of excellent and reliable information. Meetings go well. Planning, quick trips, optimism comes in spurts, motivating one to creatively share, teach, write, produce and bring love to the world.

Feb 4, 2022 Sun at 15° Aquarius conjoin Saturn At the same time, Saturn reminds us to maintain a realistic outlook and work on our objectivity. A strong theme this day to change something, address something that is broken or needs mending, even if it is a relationship, our health or a physical object.

Feb 6 2022 Mars at 9° Capricorn square Chiron Wounds can be triggered, ultra sensitivity, wondering how to get a handle on some ambitious plan. No worries, It's only a few days where we might question ourselves' ability to accomplish something important.

The New Moon in Aquarius square Uranus

Our Mystical Union under Aquarius, binds us to similar desires and aspirations. What is this connectedness which moves us simultaneously? Similar goals, longings and love, everywhere. It resonates throughout the entire world especially building throughout February and it rings with the qualities of Aquarius' desire to be unfettered, elevate love, dissolve fear. The New Moon in Aquarius captures innovation and that specific type of change we crave. Our higher Self and body has chosen a different frequency to live in. Millions are resonating within this frequency, this tone of love and truth. The New Moon activates it, as if a secret veil which had been covering the magical millions has dropped, and Voila! Here we are! It's time to play your role and know, Aquarius is individuality, but, requires the transcending community to make it happen.

This community is not a mechanical mindless group of puppet Borgs, no, these Magical Millions, have multi-dimensional awareness, and receive knowledge unique and fresh, they make decisions individually and somehow, collectively, but with their own free will enlightenment. How else could so many spread all over the world, be thinking and embrace similar viewpoints? Come to similar conclusions? Yet still remain, uniquely bright like a snowflake, not one is exactly alike..yet together, it is a force that will not be moved. This is the time of the unification and movement of Higher Frequency Souls, Where and what exactly are they moving? They, you, are pushing back the dark and tossing it aside. Replacing life with inexplicable productivity, honor and integrity. With this level of frequency, there is no need for pushing ones' agenda at the expense of others.

New Moon in Aquarius at 12* square Uranus starting the peak on January 31/February 1, 2022

Beginning January 30 peaking on the 31st late into February 1st and for the next two weeks...this New Moon is so appropriately fitting with the previous planetary movements, it's unreal.

Where once there has been isolation and anxiety, a unified determination under the fixed sign Aquarius is emerging. Keep in mind, at the highest levels, this is a mighty wave of the sign of Aquarius, Freedom descending into our world now. It will be spiritual, intellectual, emotionally charged and act out very physically. It will impact you, me and each person, especially who resonates with that unconventional power. Personally, you will most definitely, change a little bit, or maybe a lot!

It will move the world, at the same time. Sudden events will take place that has never happened before. So, your distinctly individualized Self is needed now, more than ever.

A fresh new start is what the New Moon brings. In Aquarius, we have revolutionary, contrary, oppositional and radical desires to transform, change, and shift out the old, the stagnant patterns for a more aware and efficient world.

Because of its square to Uranus in Taurus, it will intensify the “I've had enough” energy you'll feel all around you. But it can also bring unexpected problems out of thin air. “Oh, I didn't see that coming!”

This of course, will be experienced for us personally and/or globally.

Start the week with a jolt of motivation. The New Moon offers you a choice, to take the new higher productive pathway, a new start, or muck around in negative Aquarian energies of intolerance, attitudes of alienation, isolation and following along with a robotic tribe. Practice changing one thing in our mindset, your body or your work, one thing throughout February. Really concentrate upon it, and with that crazy Uranus, expect interference! It's a test of determination.

Refresh your world! Raise up that environment of yours! Plan to transform one situation into a higher level of existence and productivity.

Aquarius wants to help others do better, improve on the existing situation, in a most loving and logical matter of fact way. Globally, it will unify purpose and spread.

Aquarius is the sign of frequencies. Vibrations and electric currents. As the movement of Aquarian energies moves through humanity stimulating ones' quest for truth and change it runs into a square to Uranus. This aspect is the challenge presented for those who desire to move up and expand, transform and accelerate their lives into a higher form.

For some, an unexpected glitch, error, upset or interference could mess up plans or perspective. This isn't just an inconvenience, it's a challenge out of left field, hurled at the world, that was not expected.

Personally, one can easily adjust, incorporate solutions, bring in the new and move through it.

Globally, it could be anything bizarre, unprecedented and disruptive, involving large sections of the population. It could also be a reversing of an agenda, or direction much of humanity was moving on - out of nowhere.

Challenging, conflicting and again here is that word, revolutionary energies can add to the above, Mercury conjoin Pluto, and the Pluto return dates, beginning now up through February, leading to the March 3, 2022 triple conjunction.

Uranus has an unsettled erratic behavior, forcing to the surface, new revelations about our personal issues, and with sudden unexpected situations, opposition or interference

And once again, if it isn't occurring in your own personal affairs, you can be witness to it happening in the world in some fashion.

If you want to dig deeper, find the House Cusp which has the sign Aquarius on the outer rim, place the New Moon at 12 degrees within that house, and that will be the place where you're required to handle something new, engage in truth, transparency and upgrade that situation. Because of the Uranus in square, it might contain some upsets or unexpected steps. Keep moving forward each day, and take care of the situation. There is most likely a bigger picture at play, a need to forge through and make something new happen for yourself, and the world!
