

STARDROPS JANUARY 23, 2022

Today's report is a quick overview of the larger planetary cycles for the next eight months ahead. Some of the descriptions might seem a bit unrealistic, a bit fairy-tale like for the times we're living in, and you would be correct... but if we could find a way to recognize these positive cycles and use them, in spite of the war, we can pull our society's activities up and establish advanced solutions, institutions and services. These cycles can be used along side of the America/World Astrology we discussed in December 2021 (Find Here), to advance our way of life, in spite of the challenges we have ahead in 2022.

There is no denying, we have an escalation of intensity with the Pluto conjoin natal Pluto in the U.S. chart re-occurring February 2022 for a few years kicks in. This will be marking the repeat of the 1776 revolutionary cycle for the U.S. and this time around, the entire world (symbolizing a tearing down and re-building economic, financial and philosophically powerful activities challenging oppression and restrictions, manipulations and abuse globally, just a small issue to deal with!).

An integral part of this revolution would be to reconstruct a more sane world to live in. The purpose of presenting this report is so we can pay attention to a higher productive movement taking place with these other planetary influences. They will be providing a higher and more ideal functionality for our lives, At the same time, everything seems to be in full chaotic shambles, weekly changing narratives and threats of aggressive dramas, yet, we could build an amazing world which eventually replaces what doesn't work any longer, gradually overriding the old.

When a new year begins, I look ahead for the bigger cycles for the year in order to plan important events. Use these dates as markers for your planning (along with your own personal forecast to your birth chart planets). There are a few negative ones, so try to circumvent these for your more important activities.

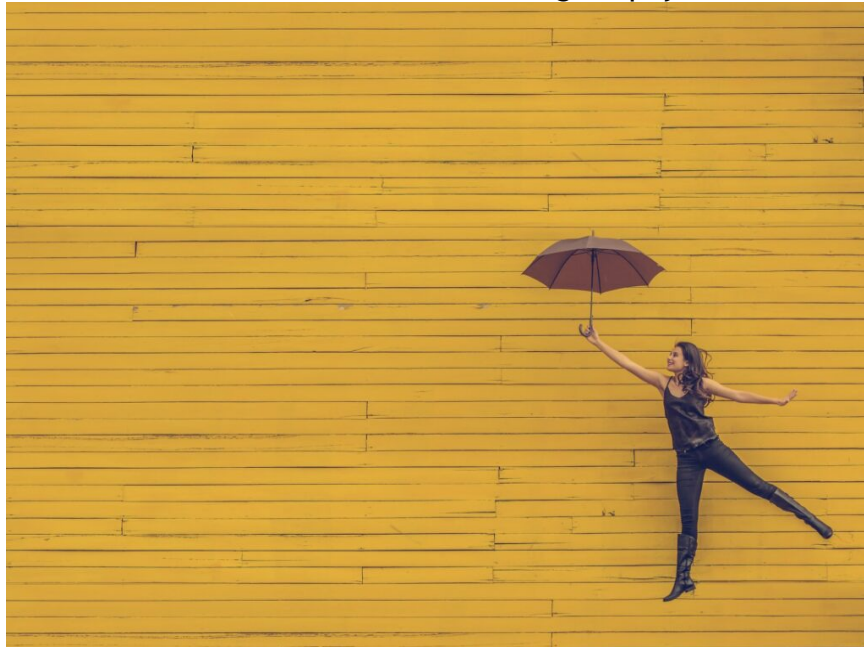

Pluto trine the North Node February 2022

The first cycle is the planet Pluto in good aspect to the North Node in Taurus.

From now up through February 2022, use this period to engage in all activities which require physical transformation, improvement, body/health/medicine activities, or financial, material, assets successfully arranged, or simply empowering your own view of what you are able to accomplish. Personal worth and value, recognizing your innate power in order to give yourself a genuine boost of love.

Building and construction, designing or any activity that requires physical work, all forms of engineering.

Recognizing meaningful useful skills to build upon, - pouring energy and time into your own talents, resources and mastery to increase your own sense of mastery and worth, or even increase your professional worth in order to receive higher pay.

Globally, it is a successful period for putting into place economic blueprints which are embracing higher principles, implementing systems which provide opportunity for more options available for exchange of goods for currency without losing value of one's money or forced to comply with future social credits or blocked from purchasing. This cycle can open doors for all forms of material, basic living issues to improve.

The theme of this cycle now through February is organic, natural, down to earth and treasuring physical items, money, quality possessions, metals backing currencies, building value, working on the idea of preserving and increasing anything which has long lasting value in our lives, and that would include relationships and friends. Globally, this cycle can intensify economic growth, pour intelligent inspiration and opportunities for the entire world to begin learning about money, goods, product distribution, alternatives, other ways to save money, exchange their currency for goods and protect their ownership over what they have rather than succumb to one world government, agencies or corporations controlling, regulating or interfering with who can move, travel, purchase and enjoy their lives. This Pluto cycle motivates the world to not give up owning their own lives. This Pluto trine is a nice thrust for 2022.

Jupiter sextile Uranus

Jupiter in Pisces sextile Uranus in Taurus on February 5 - 20, deals with belief systems within the individual and the community worldwide. It sextiles Uranus which means a network of rapid forms of innovative original independence with information, education, documentation and discussion flooding the world with truth, facts and revelations about many many things that have been confusing and hidden in the past. Personally, it enhances our own desire to change and open up to doing things differently this time around. We want change, the new, excitement, novelty. We want to fee free and as all sextiles do, they inspire us to entertain, network, form connections with communities of like minds, go out and connect with our friends and groups. Introduction of new technology, space innovation and networking via internet in some form which has not been used before, begins.

Neptune sextile North Node in Taurus

March 10 - 30, 2022, lasting up through 2024

We've been waiting for this Neptune cycle for one year, as it brings rings truth and productive dismantling of delusional situations, deceptions, secrets and disjointed narratives - it replaces certain people and circumstances which have been at the root of social depression.

This is the midpoint period where the past Neptune/Node cycle from January 2021 (Neptune square the Nodes) which was symbolic for a year of unfortunate massive confusion, illusion and deceptions as the theme for the entire year up to the next big Neptune/Node cycle on January 2025, Neptune conjoin the North Node.

This upcoming Neptune cycle, is a sextile, which acts as a midpoint as sextiles are not as anchoring and initiating power, (March 10 - 22, 2022) will be bringing ideals and dreams of a more productive and inspirational way of life, answer many many questions for the world, if the world will hear, and provide solutions, exchange of information openly and fairly, increase honest cooperation regardless of the price they personally need to pay for their transparency. It brings an energy of goodness to all professionals who do still have the capacity to receive the higher energies of Neptune, which are universal love and compassion, truth and helpfulness.

This cycle supports society with problem solving, communications, forming like- minded groups, unifying professionals who desire a higher and more accurate, efficient and intelligent systems, solutions, innovations upgrading quality of life.

It segways into the transiting Neptune conjoin the North Node on January 2025, which has the full power to launch progress for more functioning, sane, beautiful and efficient society while providing opportunities for expanding ones' best self, increases financial opportunities and inspires innovation in all areas of life. It will be the power of sanity, the opportunity for the etheric to mesh for a while with the physical, bringing that clarity to all situations. It exposes undeniably the evils in the world, perfectly.

Personally from now up through 2025, Neptune, the planet of dreams and inspirations, reaches out to others easily for collaboration, friendship and unity. It can stimulate and motivate moving forward with fulfilling our destinies.

Saturn square the Nodes in Taurus (and the Solar Eclipse on April 30, 2022)

This cycle might create a stuck glitchy event regarding finance, investments, economic issues and currency. It forces financial accountability, some sort of disruptive new systems to replace the norm financial systems. It can force people to react and counteract the rolling out of some plan, which directly or indirectly impacts our money or security. It forces us to make choices, personally, nationally and globally, increasing our own accountability and responsibility with how to move forward with our functioning every day lives. It can bring some positive new systems for economic, financial yet these would be fighting against another system from somewhere, attempts to be enforced upon the world in some way. It can also be a long cycle of caution, resisting something which is trying to be enforced upon the people in some areas.

It is occurring between March 20 - up to July 21, 2022, yet begins exact on April 10, peaking on the Solar Eclipse date, April 30, 2022.

Jupiter conjoins Neptune and Venus in Pisces April 2022

In addition, Jupiter and Venus will conjoin Neptune in Pisces, which can amplify either fears and confusion, but just like a turn of the dial, bring vision, idealistic dreamy experiences, hopeful news and events, yet are they real or illusions? Highly spiritual energies can be released to activate deep beliefs and knowing of events, the meaning of events, the ability to see through veils of deception and be guided into the right paths. These planets and can represent a bending time experience, opening up opportunities and breakthroughs, suspension of evil, a trick of the hand and voila! Some other magical solution has replaced the darkness.

These planets in Pisces, could aggravate the mind with thoughts getting carried away regarding to some challenging situation, thereby prone to feeling engulfed in fear or panic. You can see, it can represent the highest loveliness but the other side, could incite delusions or a bit of anxiety as a result of some very peculiar event which takes place around April 1 -18, 2022.-

Jupiter sextile Pluto May 1 - 15, 2022

Soon after this period, Jupiter will sextile Pluto, establishing order and opportunity for governments, leadership and nations to negotiate, discuss, cooperate and resolve something. It also provides a constructive time for us all May 1 - 15 especially. All May is an odd yet helpful understanding of psychology, sizing up people, facing truth about disturbing people, disruptive plans, dysfunctional situations and addressing them, facing them and moving beyond any tolerance to this type of activity in our lives anymore. Because of Pluto, it tends to penetrate beyond the surface.

Saturn semi-sextile Neptune in Pisces May 8 - 25

This period is a mild Saturn semi-sextile Neptune in Pisces, providing opportunity for implementing more sane and logical systems or order out of chaos, dysfunction, bad habits, addictions, denial and physical issues which keep being avoided by us....it can help us face techniques, medicines, economic solutions and idealistic plans....it is a quick period assisting us to face reality and come out of illusion, just a little bit more. On May 9 - 12, Jupiter makes a quick semi-square to Uranus, hardly noticeable, yet with Uranus, sudden jerks of energy, unexpected challenges, disruptions, quirkiness and eccentricities can emerge. It peaks exactly on May 11.

Jupiter semi-square the North Node and Saturn

This leads up to a double Jupiter semi-square North Node and Saturn on June 16 - July 30, exact on June 25 and July 21, 2022. The semi-square to Saturn will return on September 15- 30, and again, March 15 - 30, 2023.

A semi-square is a slight annoying irritant regarding non functioning systems, authority figures' decisions, legal judicial irrationality, or activities which interfere with others' efficiency, in regards to travel, everyday movement and functioning in our lives might be a tiny bit sketchy.

It can also be the discussion among each other regarding the foreseeing of a problem which if not addressed and fixed, could expand into a real issue later on.

It's an irritant experienced which has shown up somewhere in our lives. It can be personal and globally both, something which isn't right. It can be a mindset, a conflict unresolved, partly prohibiting progress. But semi-sextiles are more inferences of a problem coming, or before it descends into our physical world and becomes a reality. We can catch it before it occurs.

Uranus conjoins the transiting North Node in Taurus July 20 - August 30, exact August 1 - 5

Finally our planetary cycles lead to an amazing Uranus conjoin Node all August 2022 which burst out of the restrictions, the old outworn world, a brand new innovative energy pouring through solutions, truth, transparency, upgrades, action taken with very little patience any longer for process... industries, technology, engineering new forms of businesses, new money, new means of exchange, repurposing things or suddenly, a new trend ripping through the network of humanity supercharging the world with the importance of having, doing or acquiring something which has a new value to people.

A new industry??? taking off in some area and building business and increasing our confidence and risk taking behavior everywhere no longer hold ourselves back from our own progress and happiness. Intensifies freedom and expansion of thinking. It does mark an unstable sudden out of nowhere, disruption also. Something could trigger this escalation of change.

This cycle will launch a revolutionary energy worldwide for the rest of the year 2022.

The two Lunar Eclipses to be on guard for:

May 15, 2022 at 25* Scorpio/Taurus and November 8, 2022 at 16* Taurus/Scorpio

The lunar eclipses are powerful emotionally manipulative energies which play on our weaknesses of character. For many, they don't even notice them, but for those who have sensitive triggers, or other vulnerabilities from energies which attempt to take advantage of those sensitive tendencies, the rule is to resist taking risks, speaking, writing controversial statements or making sudden decisions based upon emotional triggers or impulsive actions during a lunar eclipse. It's not a good idea to make important events, appointments, travel arrangements or important moments in life during these dates. Avoid making rash decisions or purchases and commitments. For some, nothing ever happens - let's experiment!

The Three Mercury Retrogrades in 2022

May 10 - June 3, 2022 4* Gemini

September 9 - October 2 8* Libra

December 29 - January 12, 2023 24* Capricorn

As usual, we use these Mercury retrogrades to feel inspired so, it's always a good idea to pay attention to the one thing which keeps popping into our thinking over and over again, just before and on these dates. It could be a necessary next step shown to you for your progress in life. More will be discussed at Starfires about these Mercury retros as we venture closer to the dates, so stay tune!

Mars turns retrograde in 2022

Mars will also turn retrograde in the zodiac sign of 26* Gemini on October 30, 2022 up to January 12, 2023. This will be a big deal. There are positive energies coming out of this cycle described below, but, Mars is an aggressor, and can stimulate a form of War, altercations, extreme battles in the sign of Gemini, communication, documents, facts, messages, emails, science, technology, travel, logistics, numbers, money, and speedy transfer of money/information/data. It amps up the intensity and urgency of handling some of these issues, quickly in order to resolve, calm down and bring a stream of order and clarity back into the world again.

This Mars will hyper energize all forms business involving writing, artistic expression, publishing, music and programming ideas. It intensifies activities regarding internet, satellites, space travel, innovations with all forms of travel, vehicles, communications.

The Mars in Gemini energy must be harnessed and channeled into constructive pathways, or else mayhem can erupt in any of these activities.

Explosive documentation regarding science, correspondences and recordings among public influential people will bring strong revelations to the public (in the form of documentaries, videos and recordings) and assist in important decisive measures to be taken to fix things. But also, we could be witnessing in many cases, where people should be held accountable, and issues corrected, nothing is done, which is part of the drama escalating of certain persons playing their part to the fullest this year, revealing to the world, what is really going on.

Media, news outlets, journalism will be forced to change the way they report the news. Personally, use this long cycle to energize your own message you desire to use to reach out to others. It emphasizes talking out issues and bringing facts onto the table.

This cycle increases and speeds up your own personal progress in any area you might sense a deadline eminent. Much writing and deep original thoughts are utilized in your life.

Constructive brainstorming, powerful meetings, professional contracts, sales increases and out of the ordinary solutions used to circumvent delays or breakdowns of parts, materials, products and everyday necessities. Mars in Gemini intensifies intelligent solutions, conversations, networking and linking up activities with other innovative unconventional activities. It is very good for marketing, publications and multi-media. It's good for professionals which depend upon publications, organizing workshops, group participation, sending out messages, information, increasing sales, implementing new levels of excellence in one's career.

This Week...

Lots of mental strength, focus, planning and communication. We're all processing new insights, revelations and inspiration. Be watchful for negative heavy communications, pressures and deadlines or other health or physical situations which challenge our composure on January 28.

The rest of the week we are ambitious, focused and our minds are living in reality, resisting the temptation to wander, speculate or indulge in assumptions.

(Mercury in Capricorn beginning January 26, Mars enters Capricorn January 24, Mercury trine the transiting North Node, January 25 - 27 and Sun in Aquarius sextile Chiron in Aries, semi-sextile Jupiter in Pisces . All these denotes an increase of objective grounded responsible thinking and planning ahead for us.

Mercury leaves retrograde on February 3 at 24* Capricorn. The Mercury stationary retro, then direct, at 24-27* Capricorn will be conjoin Pluto at 26* Capricorn, could reflect incredibly challenging few days globally, from January 27 - February 12, 2022. Be on guard and alert worldwide on these days. Bad news, challenging incriminating information is revealed, punitive harsh statements, decisions, and actions, the killing of a deal, the putting to death of a past tolerance, leniency, an old agreement or arrangement, It's Over. Done, Finished. Action is taken. Something has died and it involves an end to one form of abusive power and position.

Dramatic news, global severe solutions, confrontations, media challenges and internet exploding with some new information appearing drastic or dramatic at least. There is a huge back story which must be investigated and brought into the open. People need to work their brains, and take the time to learn the entire back story.

As usual, thank you so much for taking in such volumes of complicated info. You are the best....Christine
