Stardrops

I have seen how collective hearts unified for the highest outcome of Light, changed a course of an agenda. You can see the agenda building, target its patterns and realize this will not end well unless some thing intervenes. As one draws upon the power of emotion (water) combined with that divine idea and determination, amazing transformation manifests. Even though we are in a war, we can diffuse and turn the tide of a war until it is re-framed as a Golden River. This golden river concept, carves a pathway out of the pretend constructed world in these returning times of the Fall of Atlantis and other degenerate civilizations. No matter what your reasons for being here during this time of epic history in the making, you very well may have been made aware you were to exercise your abilities of your consciousness, determined to be part of the bending of this river of chaos into one of greater liberation from a constant manipulation at every level.

As we are now officially in the Pluto return within the 1776 U.S astrology this week, once in a few hundred year moment in time launching the cycle of a new revolution desiring a higher way of life, and all which comes in its wake, let's explore some additional nuances with certain fixed stars.

The strongest influences are Fixed Stars activating Pluto, Jupiter, Neptune and especially the North Node in Taurus, the one which captured my attention the most.

The first description below, Algol conjoined the North Node, is particularly highlighted and was the one which got me on this vein as I see the Moons' Node molding trends of thoughts, moods and the energies of the people. These aspects below are to be tackled and harnessed, to utilize the most energized positive powers of their potential, while transmuting as we call it, the more destructive part of their nature.

As we journey through 2022, keep in mind that visual we have talked about in several past newsletters, of the Cylinder of high frequency millions are living in, apart from the lower frequencies of the planet earth in this particular dimension. This crystalline Cylinder of light assists us with maneuvering through one of the most difficult transitional periods in Earth's history, while dealing with the world, yet not of this world. maintaining that higher confident frequency would be key in order to maintain this security. Even though difficult things hit us, react to them in ways which always centers upon solutions and positive confident outcomes, no matter what. Let's examine...

Algol conjoins the Transiting North Node at 26* Taurus

The energy of the fixed star Algol conjoin the Node, building since the Node entered 27-25* Taurus February 11 March 6, 2022

Algol on the Node is our challenge to hold the highest peace and intellectual humane progress possible for all altercations globally, now. This fixed star can induce and aggravate a posture of violence, physical confrontation and bullying. An intense impulse towards pushing one's position, stubborn confrontations incited and pushing a severe authoritarian punitive action in order to cut off evil. Whether deluded perspective of evil, or a true interpretation of evil, this Fixed Star needs to be contained.

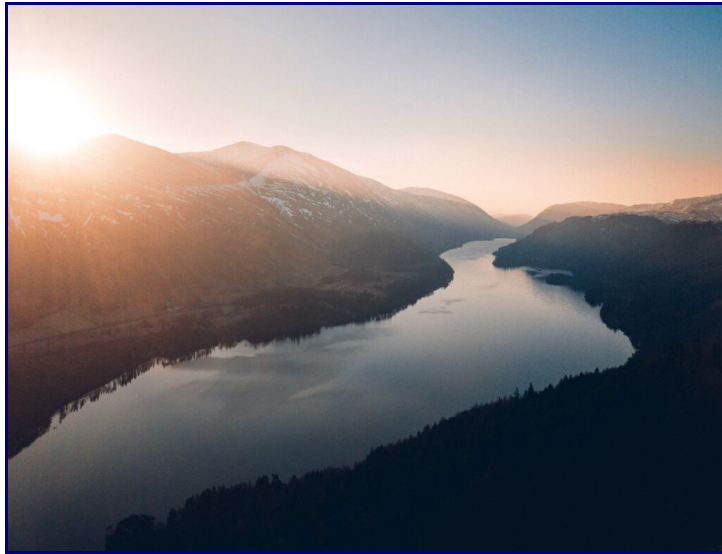

The myth of Algol, is the "the Gorgon of Perseus" death by decapitation, Perseus' conquering Medusa by decapitation. It is a violent dangerous star and associated with initiating battle.

It has an energy of the combination of the planets Saturn and Jupiter acting in a strong, punitive, unmovable position, leaning towards rules, authority, regulations and an all consuming belief in one's position and authority or right to implement these strict regulations even to the point of extreme danger and violence being used.

It can be a pious and self righteous posture enforced onto the Node (populace). When these characteristics are combined with the North Node for this period of time, we can witness this type of posturing around the globe ..the right to enforce or persist in some stance which could escalate extreme danger/violence, in an attempt to cut off the threat at its head.

Observing this as a metaphorical cutting off the head of a demonic force will be the global (and personal) theme attempting to take hold of us during this February - early March time frame. This is a hard energy attempting to achieve a victory by inevitable violence.

I would think we would desire to navigate through this cycle, this potential momentum of a build up of extreme action/reaction with a more strategic alternative by chopping off the roots of a demonic force energetically, rather than outright physical violence to achieve its end.

(The Nodes represent the trends of the people at this time, tending to move towards a mindset) .... so with any given personal and global situation, be on guard for a push or impulse to amputate relationships, push ones' weight around, putting yourself in harms way, triggering highly charged bullish reactions from others, react too strongly against what you might perceive as the root or source of some problem, reacting too extreme in an attempt to cut off the source of danger or sensing a right to implement an extreme authority to take personal action in order to enforce one's position. Getting caught up in that impulse, or finding oneself as a victim of that attack...these energies are in the air, but I'm seeing this as a more global trend or wave attempting to sweep through the world at this point.

Themes playing out now up to the first week of March are as follows:

Algol conjoined the transiting Node, becomes a theme in the atmosphere of instigating severe misfortune occurring through unnecessary mob violence.

Also, unexpected events involving decapitation, electrocution, hangings. It is the most evil of all fixed stars. and making an example out of others' misdeeds. The fact it is conjoined the transiting North Node right now, during the Pluto return of the U.S. Astrology 1776 chart, is supercharged like a potential powder keg waiting to blow.

It can bring guts, bravado for achieving ultimate success to petitions and strong posturing, defying abuse of power, showing a great threat to one's enemies. The risks however are extremely high.

Again, this began entering the end of the first week of February, and continues up through the Mars/Venus/Pluto conjunction in Capricorn, March 2 - 6, 2022. Let's diffuse and move this unfortunate energy out of our way.

The Fixed Star Markab conjoin Neptune at 23* Pisces

February 15 2022 continues up to May 15 2022. Returns August 14, 2022 to February 1, 2023

Mentally assertive impulses used to get one's point across powerfully, this is the theme of Markab. This trend combined with Neptune, creates a strong theme we can observe with public figures, of fantasy, illusion, denial and even the possibility of MKUltra victims. They persistently engage either lying to themselves and others, or suffer from some form of conditioning over long periods of time attributing to their serious disconnect from reality and the people.

Markab is in the constellation Pegasus and is likened to the combination of Mars and Mercury, assertive action with regards to all forms of letters, statements, documents, communication and expressing one's ideals and concepts.

As it is conjoining Neptune at 23 degrees Pisces right now, it colors this mental ability and all forms of serious communication with the Intensity of promoting one's ideal of a situation idealistically, beautifully and inspiring way in general, but vulnerable to either naivety or fantasy.

Markab can pull in a theme of poor judgment on the listener and poor judgment on the presenter's part.

Beware of people standing out with much ambition but with very poor judgment attempting to take others on a deluded journey to nowhere.

It intensifies the desire for promoting one's logical position, one's desire to convince others of certain Mercurial factual pieces of information and the presenting a picture, an ideal outcome – or the relaying of events or one's intellectual logical course of action one would ideally desire to take at this time. (

Because of the conjunction to Neptune, parts of it will understandably make sense, however, with all Neptune conjunctions, the end might lead to a crashing disappointment and a sense one has been tricked, deceived. A pretender to mastery. (The Living Stars, Dr. Eric Morse, 1988, p.127-128. )

So it represents at this time, unreliable presentations, trickery with words, discussions, plans and meetings from someone powerfully promoting solutions, idealistic formulas or plans. Globally, professionally and personally...caution advised.

It could also magnify the tendency towards idealistic ideas which surely will work if one pushes one's agenda hard enough.

It has an energy of propaganda around it at its worst – and because of that martian energy, the message can be aggressive, self promoting, loud and emotionally convincing. A combative nature with words, posturing with verbal declarations, promises and pronouncements.

Again, this began peaking exactly around February 15 or a bit earlier, up through May 15 2022, then attempting to return for another round of convincing, August 2022 up to February 1 2023. It rules horsemen and journeys. It could pull in any martial militant or policing effort where the consensus is might for right, naive to the possible disaster they will incur, following such destructive acts stirred from their beliefs.

Where is transiting Neptune around 23 degrees transiting your own astrology chart at this time, and how might this be playing out now? Could it be a wonderful presentation of a plan or dream goal or is it a trap? And where could we target key activities in the world where a partially deluded yet idealistic vision is being projected out there to be put into action?

The Fixed Star Skat conjoin Jupiter at 10* Pisces

February 7 - 23rd, 2022

Skat brings safety, protection during an upheaval, or a precarious event. This cycle brings hope and can elevate certain individuals who have strong convincing visions presenting a future path, providing solutions. If we hang onto the highest beliefs of this configuration now, it can reveal to us what is possible. For the most part, this is a positive energy providing opportunity for some transcendent intervention in the form of ethical integrity and wisdom, much needed.

Because it is in the Aquarius constellation, an energy of desiring improvement within our lives and globally is strong, especially if you have any planets around the 10 degree area in your own chart.

It can enhance unity of purpose and the intense theme of reform, care for the people, humanity and identifying the highest wish and greatest dreams for happiness. So take advantage of this week's powerful impulse to target that greatest wish manifest.

The Fixed Star Terebellum conjoined Pluto at 26* -27* Capricorn

globally and in the U.S. 1776 Natal Pluto
July/August 2021 - exact January 2022 - January 2023

image credit

The theme throughout this cycle, would be the attempts to enforce and activate a punitive, socially manipulative and cunning strategy, with intent to re-organize and project an ambitious new order, a new way of life upon society.

Personally, one would need to be on the lookout for situations, attempting to manipulate our emotional natures, our natural disposition and outlook, in order to conform or oppress us into to a bleak monochromatic existence devoid of that sparkling effervescence of life and excitement, joy and vivaciousness.

It would be the attempt to impose an antithesis to liberation and ecstatic living upon our world, personally and globally. Terebellum plays upon the themes of love, emotional needs, our social life, succumbing to a negative relationship, the value of our money, the ownership or access to our finances. It deals with our individual worth as a human being versus something seeing us as objects to be utilized or destroyed.

Fixed star Terebellum mixed with Pluto is an incredibly powerful and dangerous cycle attempting to implement these social organizing agendas, once in approx 245 years.

Some part of Terebellum itself, can bring fortune in our lives through a factual realistic approach to the handwriting on the wall sort of outlook, providing opportunity to secure our own assets whether materialistic or people or loved ones – protecting and organizing our own goals for ourselves. Organizing and strategically maneuvering global activities for the advantage of securing business, finance or government activities for individual empowerment.

Its conjunction to Pluto could provide an increase within own ambition, achievements we desire to reach, our professional goals, financial transformation and big changes with our view of our money.

It can intensify political government ambitious agendas and visions, for good, with much sacrifice, with incredibly complex strategies and desire to launch large systems to transform and reform, rejuvenate, put to death and rebuild a new future, reset and re-design global or large scale projects, personally, professionally, economically, politically. Its impact, similar to 1776, would last for centuries.

If you have this Pluto and Fixed Star together aspecting planets in your chart around 26 degrees, then you might feel a surge of goals come upon you in 2022 overriding other aspects of your nature. This is seen now, globally.

However, one would want to be very wary of making big mistakes by underestimating the cost, the price involved with these complex goals as this fixed star warns of mistakes made, especially when dealing with positions of power, authority and top management levels.

There can be regrets. A sort of cunning, serpent like behavior is sometimes involved, with a stoic punitive nature involved possibly with individuals put in positions of authority, or could it be the confrontation of those in leadership roles who are now being revealed to have these negative characteristics and the danger or risk following from a bold calling out of that power? It is cool, calculating, possibly with a theme of the end justifies the means.

It can release the theme of death, the conversations around the subject, death. because of its conjunction to Pluto at this time.

The issue of Pluto in Capricorn, which rules conglomerate power, with this fixed star, discusses death of a world, a way of life, a population, our loved ones, (Venus' connection) any future harbingers of death, what to do about it. It can attempt to play upon the theme of being overcome somehow with these issues and society realizing it must reverse and roll back the concept ( and the reality!) of being under siege, captured by an enemy. It might mark the moment in time, when these realizations finally hit us, we've been captured, played and now the whole entire picture is revealed.

Pluto in all it's ambitious abuse of power forms, attempting to remold society and destroy our most treasured values is seen.

See the positive and the dark outpicturing of these activities and also see there is most likely, the possibility of another powerful positive and equally ambitious energy paralleling the former, now intensify these forces, one attempting to out strategize the other in the world.

Venus deals with our heart, our values, economy, money or issues with regards to social bonding, caring, however this fixed star it is also associated with Saturn which is hard, teaching one a lesson, cold and non responsive at a personal level. It wants restrictive rules and protocol. It can be either all business in order to get a job done, or hard hearted.

It is of the nature of Venus and Saturn (cunning, bad morals, mercenary, repulsive habits, perverted tastes, unfortunate love affairs, seduction.) The Fixed Stars Dr Eric Morse.

AFFIRMATION

“ I AM calling down the most powerful impact of light upon the world, transforming my life and all those I love with constructive change in the highest form. I call for the beautiful design of the Divine Blueprint from the heart of God's plan for all on earth, my own life purpose outpictured in all it's glory, wonderment and success.

I AM commanding and demanding this supreme power of God's design to counteract and replace the potential challenges presented by the emanations of these Fixed Stars Terebellum conjoined Transiting Pluto in Capricorn, Markab conjoined Neptune in Pisces, Algol conjoined the transiting Node in Taurus and Skat conjoined Jupiter in Pisces with a peaceful transformation of all that is securing the safety and freedom for humanity and individuals everywhere and all that is good.

Mighty Archangels of supreme powers of love, come into the earth and uplift and transform all activities under the umbrella of divine perfection, health, prosperity, truth and transparency, liberation from slavery of all kinds, perfect leadership and governance now.

Direct my own life and all my goals and visions, hopes and dreams. Help me to circumnavigate around all potential tricks and deceptions, abuses of power or potential scarcity, withholding the goodness of life and keep me moving towards the highest love always.”
