These excerpts are alerting to a new cycle beginning in America and the world, specifically describing the 2020 - 2023, peaking February 22, 2022 U.S. Pluto Return, once in 246 year cycle, triggering the global revolution against those who have captured our earth.

The excerpts are from the oldest up to present.

When the Rulebook Changed – June 12, 2010

Posted on June 12, 2010

“...We’re ready to pass through this amazing love and power, and light, and make the calls. affirmations and prayers, to project the highest beauty for our country, our life, and the world to pass through it, and be freer than if we succumbed to that dark wave that tried to wipe out all the joy and happiness we once all experienced, at least for the most part, prior to 1998. Can you relate to something happening to you epic in your decisions, your life circumstances that changed something important in 1998 - 2000?”

Most people I’ve spoken to, especially right after those few years, all related. Every single one. Each had their own challenge, their own misfortune or shock, that woke them up quick. Mistakes were made, decisions they said they should have never made - it was as if a Universal protection had thinned, and they were now vulnerable to other manipulations they had not known was possible before.

We had to carve the way with our very own bodies. As of this writing, we have 2 1/2 years left, before 2012....and it will be like the declaration of our independence, setting the blueprint for the new decades ahead, with the culminating date of 2021 - 2023 as the moment it all begins to make sense what we are fighting for, what reality we actually have to bring about into our physical world in order to make this world Beautiful

It’s as if we had to start seeing the darkness that has always been here, but somehow were innocently protected from it, and, there were those of the dark, that put us to sleep so we wouldn’t really know...”

Pluto in Capricorn 2008 through 2025

The Age of Mercury and Morya

Originally written August 2011 (Revised September 25 2014)

This is a perfect time for tuning into your own life purpose and blueprint, and know you can realize your Divine Purpose! This is because in its positive power, Pluto in Capricorn cycle, now through 2025 represents an open matrix to draw your blueprint of your life on it. Pluto is power and being driven, Capricorn is an etheric highest blueprint, your highest dream you would desire to have realized.

Could you see it as a series of smaller dreams, step by step walking them to your one big goal? An outline would help.

This cycle is not only to imprint the nations and earth in a Divine Blueprint, a high standard for all to now live by, but it is also for you personally.

This is a new blueprint from the Great Cosmic Mind,
January 25 2008 to be exact and continues up to September 1, 2024.

The last cycle this occurred was the formation of the Declaration of Independence. from a variety of oppression and agendas of the elite. That is Pluto in Capricorn, it was a new blueprint. A new standard. Capricorn also is a law or a matrix. It is wide open, who is going to grab it, and enforce their blueprint first, for the whole world to conform to? Uranus is trying to challenge the destructive oppressive agenda of Pluto in Capricorn, constantly now, challenging the elite, over and over, as it demands the Aquarian blueprint to take form and last. What was once an American Revolution, is now a Global Revolution.

Pluto was in Capricorn in January 7, 1762 to January 26 1778.

So is it possible that from now up to two years before 2024, ( 2022 is the the year of the exact return of 1776's Pluto's position, degree and sign, return)

COULD REPEAT a time of our declaration of Independence for all of us everywhere January 2008 through 2024 an escalation of confrontation of freedom and rights versus control and slavery....”

America 2011-2013

Posted on December 3, 2010

“...A transition period begins from the old economic structure into healthier model (Gold standard?). This is a major power cycle which has not been around seen since 1767. This cycle then leads up to the great Epic Pluto return in the U.S. 1776 natal chart, Pluto conjoin U.S. Pluto in February 22, 2022.

People born from the middle 60's up through 1993, and beyond, are inspired to take their positions in society to handle the world crisis. People born during this period from every nation will begin to powerfully challenge those who have been behind the scenes, manipulating events. These behind the scenes operators who have raped their countries of security, integrity, jobs, and money.

Many of these courageous souls coming forward will work side by side with those older souls who have been holding their fingers in the dike. These older souls are the ones who have been so burdened by the corrupted, treading water and are relieved at the arrival of the shock troops moving right into the halls of government nation by nation, confronting and denouncing the idiocracy of the corrupted mindset....”

“... I believe in the original dream and blueprint of America, and I know a beautiful civilization is at the end of the rainbow...however... we are not there yet. We have an unbelievable mess to get through... and maybe the astrological cycles could give us a clue to navigating through this next phase. It is so unbelievably complicated, I don't even know where to begin, and I created three sections to make it easier to digest; .Part One, two and three.

HOPE

5. Pluto in Capricorn (January 2008 – 2024)

“,,,Pluto square Uranus December through March 2015 Pluto oppose Conceptional Chart of the United States (2014- November 2015)

Every zodiac sign has a unique purpose, a personality filled with qualities positive and negative. Each sign is seen as a position of Hierarchy in the Heavens holding a theme, a matrix to use as a standard of a virtue that can influence human affairs. It is as if we could say in Astrology, mundane and in Cosmic Astrology ( the Cosmic Clock) there are 12 frequencies, standards one can acquire, and should strive to acquire them all eventually.

The 12 qualities are shown in the higher descriptions of these 12 signs.

Power = Capricorn

Love = Aquarius

Mastery = Pisces

Control = Aries

Obedience =Taurus

Wisdom = Gemini

Harmony and Wealth = Cancer

Gratitude = Leo

Justice = Virgo

Reality = Libra

Vision = Scorpio

Victory = Sagittarius

Capricorn is at the top, the sign of power, blueprints and a matrix. It is considered the first cause and all ideas are conceived at this point, so if you have Capricorn in your birth chart, ( or a 10th house with strong planets in it) you really desire to create from the inside out, from the bottom to the top.

You don't like to jump into anything without knowing where it is going or without careful preparation. It is a sensible, responsible and a power sign. Capricorn qualities have the ability to be ambitious and conceive of a blueprint a game plan to create functionality and manifest an idea into the physical. It is the beginning of the conception of an idea or project..it is the Blueprint.

There are Divine Blueprints and fallen blueprints. There are Divine God-Like Frequencies and fallen or lower frequencies that become intertwined within blueprints or game plans, or concepts. You can tell in your heart if it is a good idea or a bad Will it bless and serve, or harm and self serve someone.

Capricorn is associated with CEO, the dominant parent, the Boss, the President, the Corporation and the institution that holds the power. It makes the rules.

Without Capricorn, there would be no structure. Capricorn rules the skeletal system. It rules the pillars and the beams and shell of a house to hold up the rest of the materials.

Without Capricorn the Blueprint of the game plan, would not be present. Capricorn conceives and overshadows the project, Taurus builds it, and Virgo carries out the functional duties to fulfill the Capricorn's concept/goals.

Capricorn's negative trait is narcissism, bending rules and the structure to build an elite empire for its own power and certainty. It will lack empathy and compassion. They don't get it. There is no certainty in mortal form, yet this kind attempts to keep its life going, and fears death. The Capricorn black magician will create energy cortices in the astral plane, tools, familiars, entities with knowledge contained, so if and when he/she re-embodies, they can tap back into these powers, pick up right where they left off, and continue their huge patient epic agenda to rule their world. They create the Astral Sea Monsters interfering with our lives.

Sincere prayer removes them. You can see by now, Capricorn is a huge responsibility. It is synonymous with the 10th house of a zodiac chart, ( and synonymous with what we call the 12:00 clock line of the clock )

The planet which rules it, is Saturn. Saturn is either our Divine teacher and initiator, purely speaking, or feel like the devil. It releases a sort of binding law for our lives and in our charts is either punitive and abusive, non feeling and negligent, or loving firm boundaries. We have to have this planet in our lives to be held responsible and NOT make bad karma, and abuse our free will, and to push us to accelerate and gain greater mastery. With that background on Capricorn, now understand what Pluto is.

Pluto is a small planetoid/planet way out at the farthest reaches of our solar system, possibly even not an organic planet but a space station created eons ago.

For something this small, and far away, you would think it would have very little impact on our Earth, our personal lives and our astrology cycles, but in fact, it has the most long lasting and powerful influence of all the planets. Pluto's energy is like a deep relentless wave. It moves in, effecting our world as it first begins to move into a new Zodiac Sign, then contacts one of our own personal (pr the U.S. Chart) astrology natal chart, usually 2 months before its first angle with any other planet.

Pluto moved into the sign of Capricorn in 2008, it has not been in that sign since January 7 1762 to April 3 1777. When that happened, the effect of Pluto began pouring into every Capricornian power structure on the globe to fuel those who would either transform and upgrade and motivate their lives, colonies, or commerce, government congruent with a higher more excellent spiritual law and blueprint structure, or add fuel to the service to self structure to control.

Pluto went into Capricorn in January 2008 and leaves on March 2024 The last time this Pluto was in Capricorn was 1762- 1777. We saw the spark, the beginning of the Divine Man and Woman wanting economic fairness and prosperity, and Independence. As Pluto in Capricorn began in 1762 to influence the elite to push against the civil unspoken golden rule, and unleash an increase of abuse each year of its progress, in the way of more control of the colonies' lives and industry, increasing its drive to clamp down in an almost reckless way, it led up to 1776, the trigger to counteract this oppression and injustice.

Everyone feels Pluto in Capricorn, but how it is released and how one envisions a NEW POWER BLUEPRINT, is up to the soul of each individual, and the group comprising of these particular souls. If these souls are of the light and have good will towards their fellow man, the Capricorn Blueprint is Divine and Fair. It will build a new structure in the world for the better...or If the souls are service to self, it will oppress and be a parasite through those selfish souls. From 1776 to 1777, that was the last year of the Pluto in the power sign of Capricorn- it is matched in 2021-2024. A rerun...."

It is peaking from 2020-2024 and is once in 243 years. Of all the astrological cycles we are or have been experiencing, on a scale of 1-10, I would put this one up at the top as a 10.

Pluto releases a deep and undeniable energy to motivate people to have 2nd house ( Taurus house ) ownership of their land, products, money and the laws that will protect it....and in the sign of Capricorn, it emphasizes A FORCE DESIRING TO crystallize a government blueprint, and crystallize a particular consciousness of a country as having the right to own certain rights within that country.

Saturn in Aquarius and U.S. Pluto Return

Saturn enters Aquarius

“...Innovation and transformation from one kind of life into a new way of life and thinking; one social climate bending into a new way. Now it is incredibly challenging, yet there is promise it will evolved into a higher, more truthful community, a fresh new and more transparent and logical way. The Global Community is passing through a Saturn in Aquarius initiation from March 20 2020 - March 2023.

“...This fallen Aquarian pattern is being held back by a force of energy, magnified by the awakening minds of millions all over the world, desiring safety and liberation from those in the shadows. It is not even so much found in one particular astrological cycle, but a higher astrology found in the heaven world, and dictates cycles turning.

The closest signs which could symbolize this light released would be the Uranus in Taurus, The Pluto return in 2020-2024 in the U. S. Conceptional chart, and any other cycles which have come and gone in recent years...”

“.... The August 2017 Solar Eclipse was enormous moment in time where hundreds of individuals claimed they felt baggage drop right off from their world, during and after that eclipse occurred, no matter where they lived. And, continue to experience this phenomenon as the years go by.

Do not be too jaded during these new times, as powerful love is changing the hearts of people, and flooding the world everywhere with justice.

Do you understand how incredibly corrupt and dark the perversion of Aquarius has gotten on this earth? It has become like hell in so many places, networking all over the globe, thinking they own the earth and the people here.... “

“... So the Uranus in Taurus, is to liberate the corruption of the money.

The Pluto conjoin the U.S. Pluto on a scale of 0-10, is a 12. It is the process of doing surgery on banks, financial institutions, economic controlling clubs, societies, organizations and agencies who could all be seen as Aquarian Perversions.

“.... The economic structure is shifting into a brand new way .

It appears to be initiating in the U.S., and will spread.

This combined energy of Saturn and Uranus in 2021, will be a moment where change is pushed into place, changing the old way money has been handled.

These old patterns must yield to a new innovative matrix. The pressure is the resistance seen in the square.

I've been watching develop for a few years ( since 2016 -2018 ) the introduction of radical change to our global and national economic systems, without disrupting our everyday business and function of the population.

This cycle we are in now, is increasing the power of those shifts and will continue through 2026... however, the major disruptions right now, with loss of jobs, doors closing, lay offs and businesses shutting down has been triggered from other cycles. This cycle of Uranus would not have resulted in such extreme disruption in early 2020 if the U.S. Charts had not received devastating Pluto aspects #1, and #2, the ominous Transiting Hades conjoining the Transiting North Node ( the public being negatively disrupted by a dark energy ) had not occurred. This is my personal belief.

This financial and social change began in 2019, escalating in 2020-2021 and continue throughout Uranus' cycle in Taurus up through 2025, ( our values, money, metals, gold, silver, our value of each other and all things we find of great worth to us.)

The initial awkward adjustments, creating unpopular uncomfortable and rather difficult situations, which hopefully leads to a higher life, could be during the following:....”

March 15 – April 30, 2020

(The dates above, can be challenging for us, disruptive and create frustration, some anxieties and confusion...yet, I have a very strong feeling, there are several layers of events taking place which are incredibly good, while at the same time, there are also layers of dark activities which are attempting to counteract and introduce very negative things into the world, all at the same time.

(Do not worry, we are amazingly powerful, and your very own heart and soul alone is magnetizing positive invincible change into the world to defeat any threat from any direction now.)

We could say this Pluto cycle is a targeting of an attempt of misfortune upon the people who have that complex engram within the heart which makes them stand out as quickened, awakened, uncontrollable, unusual, and an unrestrained people, and so much more.

Jupiter moving into Pisces temporarily, at 0-2° Pisces inconjunct U.S. Uranus at 1° Leo from May 23 - July 17, 2021 Returns December 2021 - January 2022

- Creates a huge paradigm shift, an alteration in ones' thinking in regards to our country and the world's future humanity. Some form of difficult adjustment, a split or an incongruity in the possible following areas, could lead to increase confusion as to what is true and what is fabrication. A disconnect increases among different factions of the nations and global community over:
- UFO disclosure and unreliable agendas as the motive for transparency at this time.
- International disjointed out of sync messages, activities, none of it working out for any side. Failure for large societies to implement plans.
- Health, vaccine passports
- Flu, Viruses, Cov -19 facts and fiction
- Political and Government confusion leading to unusual and extreme disruptions with events, that are not congruent with what was supposed to be laid out.
- Economic turn of events in regards to Crypto - Bitcoin, Gov created digital currencies, and all technological roll outs versus alternate and confusing activities.
- Travel disruptions, attempts to control transportation yet with an inconjunct this not only creates an attempt to enforce frustrating restrictions, but also another inevitable force inserting laws, rules and alternate agendas to disconnect from these activities.

- Afterwards, Jupiter will move backwards into Aquarius again for the rest of 2021
- In general, this inconjunct creates an appearance of serious moral and ethical crossroads in key themes on the planet, where a powerful wave is heading one direction, and another powerful trend is moving in an entirely disconnected and independent direction from the other trend. Neither one can come together and join. It's a split, and it is not just America, it's everywhere. 90 days

How do I explain this epic transit properly? This cycle is what I would call the return of that time which launched the American Revolution, only this time it is Global.

This transit was the very first clue I saw back in the early 2000's that a global revolution was going to happen requiring people to stand up to ALL forms of corruption in power.

People were going to question, wake up, challenge and throw out those elites from way way back 12,000 years or so, all those elites who have been taking advantage of what they would consider as the common people who just live their lives while a massive undermining has been happening. *A Great Video to explain that one....*”

So from now, September up to Christmas, we’re in the very end leg of the race of this game between these two hugely important planetary energies playing their roles, checkmating, tricking, upping their ante, then challenging, exposing, restricting and attempting to shut down and control, and doing it again. The only issue with this continual game which is really not a game and is not fun, is that it’s building and building escalating into bigger and more potentially destructivity, increasing the delivery of the strategy.

Each side is escalating, and, it’s heading towards that Pluto Return in the United States Conceptional 1776 astrology chart, which has not been experienced since 1776. Remember, this cycle launches February 2022.

Pluto return (conjoin U.S. Conceptional 1776 Pluto) begins February 2022 - up through December 28, 2022 peaking exact February 22 2022, (all of these cycles are once in 246 yrs). That particular cycle is going to deal with so many many issues, regarding the 2nd house of the U.S. Conceptional chart: It is occurring in the 2nd house of the U.S. Conceptional Chart, which governs over ownership, economy, banking and what we value, which includes ourselves.”

“Now, the Pluto in the sky in 2022, is about to return to that placement for the 1st time since 1776. It will escalate and bring home to roost, all the issues positive and challenging Pluto in the 2nd house represents, and will intensify the main issues Colonists valued more than anything in the world, back to 2022, but this time, it's not Americans fighting an external enemy, it's the whole world motivated to declare what they value, against something that wants ownership. I wrote about this in many posts, starting in 2001, and my message hasn't changed once. It has all come true, unbelievable! ...” To read Full Article Go HERE

Stardrops November 13 -20-2021

“...Expect from Venus at the end of the month, a sensation of padding, increasing ones' standards in life because of a new knowing your own worth as a person. This will be happening all over the world, and there will be a force that is also going to try to tap this Venus' power, and lock down a new fallen blueprint for the planet that will attempt to negate the positive realizations people will be going through. This will segway into the February Pluto return in the U.S. 1776 chart. It could be a spiritual moment of the return of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, but this time, not just for America, but globally. Good Fortune and see you in a week!..."

Stardrops December 19th What Is Going On?

December 18, 2021

This cycle we're living in is Epic

"...If you have heightened emotions recently, apprehensions and fixation upon the world events, it's because you know at some level, this is a time of the Great Spiritual War and it is truly epic. What happens through this period of humanity is going to dictate what direction humanity on Earth will go in, for the future, for all time.

Never before has any civilization come to this point in time/space where we can actually defeat not only corruption but its very source. Can't you see how there is this rush coming from certain areas, to take over everything way to urgently? Panic is everywhere among those who have the most to lose, because there are those that have no ability to spiritually survive after this is over, and they know it. They need your love, your obedience, your brilliance, individuality, the blueprint within your genetics which hold the hologram of your very soul...they want that soul stuff in order to survive and live, because they don't have it in themselves. Some may ask, how is that possible? It has been the biggest kept secret on planet earth.

These exhausting astrological cycles we've been reviewing and living through, all lead up to the major Pluto conjunction I've been calling the second American Revolution on February 22th, 2022..."

...Pluto's horrific attack upon the minds of the people

"...In 2019 - 2020 and especially starting March 2020 through 2021, Pluto tore down, manipulated and gas lighted the emerging enlightenment of people, their higher beliefs, a great awakening which had been building for years. Pluto suddenly moved in, insinuating its complex energies onto the world. It also escalated its manipulation of information and altering the accurate transmission of everything we absorb from TV, radio, internet, music etc...within the Mercury in the U.S. charts. It would step up mind control, devices, technology, gas lighting and mental manipulations at any level against the population. Who is doing this and why? It isn't a country, ..."

The Pluto Return

".... The Major Epic Cycle, Pluto at 27* Capricorn conjoin the U.S. 1776 Pluto, will most likely intensify the punitive measures to maintain severe and stepped up control and harm of humanity by penalizing people for any thing that does not fall in line with a Plutonian agenda. This cycle has been building for the past several years, but only now is it full on.

February/March 2022, up through November 16, 2022 continuing through 2023, and is the 1st return of the Pluto to the U.S. 1776 astrology chart. It is exact, February 20, 2022.... “

This is the return of that 1776 moment, of the declaration of independence from those particular systems 246 years ago, but this time, it is humanity's Declaration of Independence from the corrupt, on the whole entire Earth and beyond.

Regarding the Neptune transit

Things will happen that will support these truths, and when the next Neptune/Node cycle occurs, on March 27 to April 20th exact on April 14th 2022, Neptune sextile the transiting North Node - Pisces/Taurus, a new acceptance of the obvious will occur. It is very possible, as Neptune rules film, photos and things hidden, videos, files, photographs and confessions will emerge. This cycle won't leave much chance for any speculation any longer, for the negative manipulative Neptunian deceptions to continue. We have been in nothing but confusion since January 20, 2021, when Neptune in Pisces squared the Nodes in Gemini/Sagittarius.

Posted on January 22, 2022

There is no denying, we have an escalation of intensity with the Pluto conjoin natal Pluto in the U.S. chart re-occurring February 2022 for a few years kicks in. This will be marking the repeat of the 1776 revolutionary cycle for the U.S. and this time around, the entire world (symbolizing a tearing down and re-building economic, financial and philosophically powerful activities challenging oppression and restrictions, manipulations and abuse globally, just a small issue to deal with!).

An integral part of this revolution would be to reconstruct a more sane world to live in. The purpose of presenting this report is so we can pay attention to a higher productive movement taking place with these other planetary influences. They will be providing a higher and more ideal functionality for our lives, At the same time, everything seems to be in full chaotic shambles, weekly changing narratives and threats of aggressive dramas, yet, we could build an amazing world which eventually replaces what doesn't work any longer, gradually overriding the old.

When a new year begins, I look ahead for the bigger cycles for the year in order to plan important events. Use these dates as markers for your planning (along with your own personal forecast to your birth chart planets). There are a few negative ones, so try to circumvent these for your more important activities.

Stardrops January 30, 2022 Exciting Times We Live In

Posted on January 29, 2022

“...This cycle is intense, only because of three things – Mercury has been retrograde and already conjoined Pluto once as it started the retro, just after Christmas 2021, then returns as Mercury begins to move forward again, from that January 29 to February 11, 2022 period. Secondly, It’s occurring during the New Moon in Aquarius square to Uranus, which is its own unique force. And thirdly, we are entering the Pluto return in U.S. Chart, cycle in February. If Mercury is in a holding pattern for over a few weeks, which it has been, it intensifies the impact of it’s purpose.

Because of Pluto’s ability to reach far and wide, this will encompass the world. Remember, this mind planet conjoined with Pluto/Global one pointedness with a plan, is running right into the 1776 Pluto return in the U.S. Conceptional 1776 chart which builds up to the official date of February 21 2022....and who knows how long this new revolutionary power will last. It could last years, once the doors swing open.

As this Pluto return kicks in, on February 21, just after the Mercury/Pluto event, it leads to yet another power conjunction on February 22 – March 6, peaking exact March 2, 3, 4th of the Mars, Venus and Pluto conjunction at 27-28* Capricorn. ...”

Bending the River Stardrops February 20 – 26, 2022

Posted on February 20, 2022

The Fixed Star Terebellum conjoined Pluto at 26* -27* Capricorn globally and in the U.S. 1776 Natal Pluto

July/August 2021 – exact January 2022 – January 2023

Fixed star Terebellum mixed with Pluto is an incredibly powerful and dangerous cycle attempting to implement these social organizing agendas, once in approx 245 years.

Some part of Terebellum itself, can bring fortune in our lives through a factual realistic approach to the handwriting on the wall sort of outlook, providing opportunity to secure our own assets whether materialistic or people or loved ones – protecting and organizing our own goals for ourselves. Organizing and strategically maneuvering global activities for the advantage of securing business, finance or government activities for individual empowerment.

Its conjunction to Pluto could provide an increase within own ambition, achievements we desire to reach, our professional goals, financial transformation and big changes with our view of our money.

It can intensify political government ambitious agendas and visions, for good, with much sacrifice, with incredibly complex strategies and desire to launch large systems to transform and reform, rejuvenate, put to death and rebuild a new future, reset and re-design global or large scale projects, personally, professionally, economically, politically. Its impact, similar to 1776, would last for centuries.

If you have this Pluto and Fixed Star together aspecting planets in your chart around 26 degrees, then you might feel a surge of goals come upon you in 2022 overriding other aspects of your nature. This is seen now, globally.

However, one would want to be very wary of making big mistakes by underestimating the cost, the price involved with these complex goals as this fixed star warns of mistakes made, especially when dealing with positions of power, authority and top management levels.

There can be regrets. A sort of cunning, serpent like behavior is sometimes involved, with a stoic punitive nature involved possibly with individuals put in positions of authority, or could it be the confrontation of those in leadership roles who are now being revealed to have these negative characteristics and the danger or risk following from a bold calling out of that power? It is cool, calculating, possibly with a theme of the end justifies the means.

It can release the theme of death, the conversations around the subject, death, because of its conjunction to Pluto at this time.

The issue of Pluto in Capricorn, which rules conglomerate power, with this fixed star, discusses death of a world, a way of life, a population, our loved ones, (Venus' connection) any future harbingers of death, what to do about it. It can attempt to play upon the theme of being overcome somehow with these issues and society realizing it must reverse and roll back the concept ( and the reality!) of being under siege, captured by an enemy. It might mark the moment in time, when these realizations finally hit us, we've been captured, played and now the whole entire picture is revealed.

Pluto in all it's ambitious abuse of power forms, attempting to remold society and destroy our most treasured values is seen.

See the positive and the dark outpicturing of these activities in the world, and also see there is most likely, the possibility of another powerful positive and equally ambitious activity, paralleling the former, intensified, these forces, one attempting to out strategize the other.

Venus deals with our heart, our values, economy, money or issues with regards to social bonding, caring, however this fixed star it is also associated with Saturn which is hard, teaching one a lesson, cold and non responsive at a personal level. It wants restrictive rules and protocol. It can be either all business in order to get a job done, or hard hearted.

It is of the nature of Venus and Saturn (cunning, bad morals, mercenary, repulsive habits, perverted tastes, unfortunate love affairs, seduction.) The Fixed Stars Dr Eric Morse.

Quote from January 29, 2022 Stardrops...

“...As we approach this date of February 22 – March 3, emotions can become out of control, so much so it could cause an inconvenient mishap. Important now, to engage in visualization and affirmation and prayer to contain the highly charged on the surface RED HOT, values (Venus) leading to extreme measures taken in order to solve social problems once and for all, during these dates.

This could be the date of that shot heard around the world return of July 4 1776 moment, February 21 beginning for two years – Mars can make it very very physical.
