

STARDROPS MAY 1 2022

FRIENDSHIPS, AND OUR SHARED AWARENESS, WE ARE READY!

No matter what view or vantage point you are looking from, this is a time when mostly all can agree upon the need for collaboration, integration, change and being ready. A True Parallax – Definition

Let's begin...

April 30 – May 4, 2022 Venus 27-28* Pisces conjoin Jupiter and sextile Pluto.

This cycle, warms us up, opens our hearts and drops some shields. We need this right now, and along with series of sextile transits below, this is emphasizing one theme primarily – which is about loving, warmth, talking, reaching out, sharing and exchange of helpful planning, ideas, and providing encouragement.

You have been entering a strong period of open ideas, which began a week or so ago, opening the way for a network of very intuitive and intelligent friends, sources of information, and globally.. bright independent individuals, journalists, influencers, and our friendships and connections, seminars, conferences, webinars helping us to learn, compare notes, come to honest clear conclusions as what is happening and what should we do to constructively move forward in our lives and thrive.

People are willing to work with other people no matter what their background or views. It is higher and stronger than it has ever been. Sharing, idealism, and finding similar views to agree upon is a major theme.

The Venus conjoin Jupiter, enhances a sense of your own self image in a beautiful light, plus radiates good will towards the people around us, assists us in making some sort of progress in areas of our life which we have decided are our priorities, even though the world is in a big fat mess.

The sextile to Pluto offers financial deals, arrangements, agreements, or progress made with your own plans for expansion in business, organizational or personal financial situations. Even if it is involving things like passports, legal issues, divorces or marriages, and other key things which require cooperation. These are good cycles now throughout the rest of May. It has been building for a week or two.

It is of course important to see how these fit with your own personal natal chart's forecast.

May 2 – 28th Venus moves into Aries

A more assertive approach to our dreams being realized, beginning now.

Venus is suppose release a magnetic heartfelt emotional nature which draws beautiful things to ourselves, the thing we value the most while living on Earth, whether items, food, projects, activities or types of people we love.

When Venus moves into Aries, we receive a big surge of confidence and that close your eyes and just jump, sort of impulse. This will be the most obvious thing we're magnetically acquire, within ourselves now.

It is impulsive, dynamic, initiating action into the areas you value the most, that you would love to have in your life. Focus on that for a while, and allow oneself to care about these things which mean the most and nurture them into a more complete state in your world. That includes, friends!

May 3 – 5 Mars at 14* – 16* Pisces sextile Uranus at 14* Taurus

Cooperation, agreements, sharing brilliant original ideas with others.

Opportunities for reaching out to others, even communicating to Higher Realms for assistance. Now is the time to really step up one's idealistic visionary nature, no matter how strange and dark things might look, because a sextile reaches the ears of a best friend, an angel, therapist or the one source from where solutions and support can come from, your Divine Presence.

Technology, websites, engineering, science, programming, or any activity which involves moving towards more liberation in some capacity, is coordinated with another, now.

This cycle can also change your environment, your situation around you, or increase the beauty, the aesthetic artistic psychological, intuitive energy in your life somehow. The Uranus part of this aspect brings in new energy, new awareness, sudden exciting ways of seeing something, like a new design, or something has changed because of the help from another, even if it is invisible.

May 5 Sun conjoin Uranus 14* Taurus

This aspect is important, as I feel very strongly, it is the start of a bigger, longer astrology cycle, moving through the next 3 -5 months... GEEK ALERT... excuse while I divert into a special layer of cycle emerging, leading to the New Mars Retrograde in September through October, 2022.

Here are the three highlight dates...

Sun conjoin Uranus May 5

Uranus conjoins North Node July 26

Mars moves into conjunction to Node and Uranus, then July 26- August 3

Even though Sun conjoin Uranus...is for one day only, and causes us to want to be more of our own person, it's tied to the Solar Eclipse which theme lasts five months, and! it sent me onto a hunt for a new theme emerging, because of this Sun conjoin Uranus, Sun/Moon/Node in Taurus, Uranus conjoin Node in July, Mars conjoin Uranus and Node, end of July into August.

What occurred next, was a sense all these planetary movements cascading into the next big theme which is news, media, information, connecting and exposure – it led to the upcoming Mars retrograde, acting as a trigger and intensifying an increase of new Global Drama in August, turns retro Oct 30, and continues into January through March 2023....

So, whatever is beginning now, as change in ourselves firstly, will begin to be dynamically expressed come late August through October, and on into March 2023.

Here is a snapshot of Mars, Uranus and Node –

Aspect	Date	Time	Event	Type	P1 Pos	P2 Pos	EXL
♂ -- > ♃	07-05-2022	02:05 am	♂ > ♃	Tra-Tra	00° ♃ 00'
♃ ---- ♂ ♃	07-26-2022	03:50 pm	♃ ♂ ♃	Tra-Tra	18° ♃ 35'	18° ♃ 35'	Exact
♂ -- ♂ ♃	08-01-2022	04:12 am	♂ ♂ ♃	Tra-Tra	18° ♃ 17'	18° ♃ 17'	Exact
♂ -- ♂ ♃	08-01-2022	07:53 pm	♂ ♂ ♃	Tra-Tra	18° ♃ 43'	18° ♃ 43'	Exact
♂ -- > II	08-20-2022	03:57 am	♂ > II	Tra-Tra	00° II 00'

The Nodes deal with what’s trending, popular to discuss, pass around and investigate information – along with financial trends and what is required to now learn about or attempt to assimilate into our new repertoire of abilities. All this is intensifying, and don’t worry, it can’t be kept hidden.

What is trending is independence from monetary and unnecessary social control and these configurations bring solutions

Mars moves on, but as it triggers financial, engineering, economic space, medical/health and social media transparency issues to high alert level this July/August, it will then move into the communications, information, news, media and networking sign, Gemini – on August 19/20 –and take all these new developments right into the population of independent news, intensify these activities. This will occur as Mars begins to turn retrograde, starting late August, in Gemini, then exact Oct 30, up through... March 2023.

Which means, the internet news, new platforms for information exploding, new video live streamed video platforms are emerging everywhere – links are being shared at such a high volume, you think you can’t keep up with the information now, just wait.

This cycle is exceptionally good for anyone who is planning on a big launch of a business, promoting something, building a web presence, opening a store, networking, marketing self or helping others expand. It is great for presentations, speeches, lectures, any form of information which you feel needs to get out about yourself or what you care about.

August 2022 through March 2023, remember that and write it down. The highlight would be September through November.

*During this period, especially end of September up through October, Mars will also square Mercury, which initially will go retrograde in Libra, but turn backwards, then move into the sign, Virgo. When it hits Virgo, October 1 – 5 to be exact, it will oppose Neptune in Pisces on October 10 – 13 and also Mars will square the Mercury in Virgo and square Neptune.

*Below is a wheel for October 1 – 13, I chose Oct 6 to display, as this is the moment Mars moves the closest to a square to Mercury, which has just come out of retrograde, and Mercury is in opposition to Neptune – creating a t-square. This creates a momentary crisis, regarding honesty, truth, reliability and transparency. It means tension and confrontations are building, end of September all through October, truly escalating Oct 1 -13.

Wheel is October 6 2022

We'll write a separate update on that later, but it has a lot to do with issues regarding social credits, social monitoring, confusion, lying about it, disguising bills and laws passing, etc...the Mars calls these activities out, bringing out wording, facts, documents and information to confront the Neptunian deception – this is all stacked on top of the May – August Mars in Taurus theme, which includes an increase of territorial movement across the globe, money, currency, economic changes, re-prioritizing space and other strange and brand new concepts in our physical material world of engineering and machinery, including Mar/Gemini communications and social networking/media issues.

(At this point, I'm sheepishly apologizing for the bombardment upon your brain of all this astro-jargon, degrees, planets, signs, etc... sometimes I'm writing these patterns for astrologers, so they can see what I'm thinking)

Multi-Layers of strategies, agendas, and end goals intended on all sides continuing during this cycle. Even though Mars is the planet of war, it will be a war on the mind. Influencing people's thinking, information, truth and exposure, even mind control technology which intrudes on our personal choices or tracking, versus sabotaging these attempts by other communities of well, geniuses. These battles escalate during this cycle of August – March 2023.

So...what does all this mean?

The 3 big dates, Sun conjoin Uranus, May 2, July 26 Uranus conjoin Node, and Mars moving into that t-square of information/mind wars (including space/satellite tech) October 1 – 12 as the 3rd date, coinciding with this April 30 Solar Eclipse conjoin Uranus/North Node in Taurus, begins a new cycle of more and more people developing the ability to advance in truth and Ingenuity and originality, become stronger, more independent and educated on these issues, take care of themselves more and more, bit by bit. Personally, it assists with your own progress in any area which needs help.

This cycle tells us there is yet another increase of enlightenment and spiritual protection, expansion and power given to millions across the earth as certain kind of individuals in global power, keep trying to roll out their version of Mars in Gemini agendas for invasive mental control, including socially, economically.

I would simply put on my calendar or in a notebook the following dates...

April 30 is all about launching a new self enlightened, expansive empowerment for being who you truly want to be, who you know you really are and a game plan laid out as to how you're going to get there.

July 26 – A moment in time, when physical global events could be displayed in real time, some of the signs of shifts and changes occurring in the world regarding money in so many levels, spending, value of our currency amidst the backdrop of the most recent changes in Russia and Euro including changes in middle east economy – and how we are prepared in small and big ways to feel more secure (including food) ... This is observed as a sudden explosion of revelation and actions taken to embrace Uranus' acceleration for a positive humanity evolving.

October 1 – 12 where significant amount of information is surfacing everywhere and can not be stopped at the same time others desperately attempting to hide information as a strange form of agenda is rolled out, social monitoring systems, election plans, as if assisting in everyone's safety in society. And whatever else is presented which is not true, yet pushed, this is because of Neptune's part with Mercury in Virgo. Mercury will be coming out of retro in Virgo, oppose Neptune in Pisces, and Mars square Neptune and the Mercury at the same time. See chart above.

Change, change and more change on the world scene continues.

Back to the Solar Eclipse and the Sun conjoin Uranus....

Our Sun is vital energy blended with that dynamic planet of absolute truth, sudden surprises, dramatic change of the chess game.

Public awareness, our money globally has now permanently changed, its value, exchange rules, country by country, So this April 30 – May 5 marks a positive moment in time, among all these other sextiles of opportunities we have noted here, to help everyone to share, discuss and collaborate with others in order to gain stability and security in our lives, Especially now up to May 5, is a time when it really begins, when we can finally take a deep breath, and take in the reality of what is truly going on here, and a new day has arrived, with the powerful Cosmic Forces disrupting the dark side of Taurus negative consciousness on this planet, which is a greedy Territorial perversion of the ownership of assets, humanity and the earth. Who owns the earth? Honestly, it's still whoever has the biggest weapons, and we're not talking about nuclear missiles anymore.

Inner light, dynamic internal heart and soul power, can move mountains, especially in the millions. Your love and day by day decisions to simply be your best person, is working.

It's time to find little ways each week, building up to July 26 at least, to do things which help you to move towards more independence in your life and of course, just keep on being amazing!

May 3- 6 Mercury 4* Gemini sextile Venus 4* Aries

Opportunities to make arrangements for social events, gatherings, drawing together people who have similar values and shared purposes.

Image credit

It is yet another positive conversation and reaching out for information from key sources or people around you to get put in the right direction with certain planning. It's a good day to build trust, connection and let people know where you are at with your plans, or even working together on a project with another. Sharing facts, schedules, planning and getting clear what is going on, is involved with this aspect...and is a very good time for meetings.

May 6-8 Sun at 16* Taurus sextile Mars at 16* Pisces

A dynamic cycle of meeting with another, or a group to promote a concept and ideal. It is either artistic, discussing psychological state of some situation, bringing a greater level of compassion and pulling down a dream, involved.

The Sun's radiant energy is motivating you to reach out and connect with others. It would be idealistic content or subject matter... a bit lofty, hopeful, helpful and bringing vision and faith in something is presented. Cooperation and negotiations continue globally, among those who are engaged in volatile activities, even economically or war, positioning themselves in a more agreeable place.

May 10 Mercury 4* Gemini Retrograde

Begins May 1 – peaks May 10 – June 3, 2022

As Mercury begins to turn retrograde, remember, this one planet has the ability to drop a thought into your mind, a few weeks before and up to the retrograde date, May 10 in this case. This idea is to prompt you to become inspired and motivated to act on it.

In Gemini, it is about writing, publishing, multi-media, video, artistic expression, studying or applying oneself to a new concept or activity which can enhance your life in some next step towards your happiness.

It might be an important meeting or several meetings scheduled to move forward with your career or projects...and also, scheduling out the next several months and what you want to achieve ..physically and health wise, money, personal and professional. You'll see, if you take a sharp notice at what keeps pushing you in one direction right now, write it down and carry it around. Try to implement the necessary steps to outline it, concentrate upon it, and make it happen!

May 10 Jupiter enters Aries

This beautiful big Jupiter moving into Aries, helps us launch things, brings us the ability to better set things in motion, take action, and stop revolving and re-thinking over and over again our situations.

We have this for one year.

May 15 Sun sextile Neptune

This cycle again, is about exchange of ideas and discussions or planning something to look forward to. It is opportunity to experience hope and trust with some path chosen which feels exciting.

The radiance of the Sun in Taurus embraces that higher dimensional love and idealistic power of Neptune, they merge together, and the Sun intensifies spiritual intuition, love, sharing, meetings, conversations, empathy and compassion.

May 18 – 19 Mercury sextile Jupiter

Sharing and collaboration with others who have a good heart. Mercury's intelligence joins Jupiter's good fortune, wisdom and good will now. It is an excellent time to trust others with whom you are discussing plans with. The energy provides a few days of powerful productive creative work, designing, music, beauty, or business related meetings where you all can agree upon some very creative and expansive projects now. The energy is high.

Image credit

May 21 – 23 Mars sextile Pluto

Taking, planning and discussion is going on which is of a more financial nature, involving estimates, pricing out, business opportunities, or anything related to a purchase or decisions to increase one's personal power or moving forward with a more serious commitment and relationship.

With these two planets representing depth and richness of creative potential, hard jobs get done properly now. Focus and tenacity, long hours and deep dives into issues is in the air.

May 22 -24 Sun sextile Jupiter

Talking and planning with another who has good will, talent, expansive thinking and supports your own needs.

With both the Sun's power blending with the Good Will planet Jupiter, you have positive higher solutions being discussed. Plans, cooperation with brilliant courageous and confident individuals in positions where they do have the capacity to impact positively, the flow of life, money, food, economy, the most important activities which keep society running, is powerful now. With Mercury sextile Mars and Saturn both, contracts, agreements are made, engineering, software, productivity is arranged, combining ingenuity and systems are strongly put in place now.

And....

Mercury sextile Mars and Saturn

Saturn creates concrete agreements now. Solidifies relationships. Agrees upon events, financial resolutions, or positive sales or negotiations. Art and music are also productive and accepted nicely.

Personally, it is yet another cooperative excellent time for meetings, planning, and all sides being open to learn, share and discuss the most positive way forward that will last and bring solid future success now.

May 24 2022 Venus sextile Saturn

Our social life, friendships and planning for events and discussing all the details, is positive and works. There is common sense, organized scheduling, we can rely on others and their steady character.

May 23- 24 – June 10, 2022 Mercury station direct at 28* Taurus, trine Pluto at 28* Leo'

Peaks exact June 3

During this period, The Mercury Retro is going to culminate in a deep and powerful plan. Something which has practical functional nature, business, financial, securing ownership of something and locking it in. The Mercury trine to Pluto locks it down, and cements the decision. It can be used for your own personal financial, professional decisions, to achieve some mini-goal that you've maybe been working on for a month or so. Personally, it is basically a good cycle to believe in your own internal power, which can do anything if we could maintain and sustain that internal connection with our higher Presence which lives in infinity and eternity, and has no limitation or lack what so ever.

Train the mind throughout this period, to repeat positive confident affirmations towards your greatest practical needs at this time.

Behind the scenes, some organization, concedes and yields to a deal, agreeing to back off on some destructive activities. A contract has been signed.

May 24 Mars leaves Pisces,

Pisces is the sign of sacrifices, very high idealism, dreams, sometimes confusion, dichotomies and psychologically imbalanced states of mind with certain individuals in the world, depression, discouraging outcomes, loss and fear.

This has been permeating many activities instilling fear, peculiar states of mind, low energy since April 14.

Mars moves into Aries on May 24, and intensifies black and white, crystal clear direction, for good or ill...and can intensify aggressive positions taken with no flinching.

Mars can motivate us to move forward much more dynamically in our lives, especially to launch new projects.

Thank you for supporting Starfires and the Stardrops series.

Remember to always see how far you've come, what you have already accomplished in the past few years, and realize, even though the most unbelievable things are out there to face, somehow we're still here and making it. Are we in a permeable bubble or chamber of energy, where we can flow in and out of this world into the other worlds, then return again for safety? And this safety depends upon our emotional strength, keeping our lives positive and pro-active as each issue emerges to overcome.

If we can accomplish this through the next five years, I would say, we've done it. 2027-2028 in my mind is the date we have made it.
