The Sun conjoins Venus exact on Oct 22 2022 at 29* Libra.

We spoke about his cycle coming in last week which required a shift away from frustrations, worries, negative anxious situations and outlook towards remembering what you are truly hear for. This cycle was and is forming a Finger of God or a YOD, which funnels all the challenging situations into one focus, love and confidence in one's purpose. Re-claiming your worth, your purpose and value as an individual, plus your life goals is where we place our concentration no matter what else you're dealing with during this cycle. Even though this is a quick post, this one paragraph is the KEY to know the way through this time. Know your worth, don't abandon your future purpose and goals. Keep strong your vision before you. You might need to adjust and shift your schedule or way of achieving it, take off roads here and there, but don't lose your sight.

This cycle brings an inner warmth added to all life situations. It magnifies your worth, re-enforces your priorities and keeps us focused upon our goals...helping us believe in those things we desire to achieve...realizing it's worth keeping up with our vision to achieve these things.

AFFIRMATION

"I AM Now calling for the most positive outcomes to appear in my life. I accept my worth and value and push away and dissolve all negative destructive situations, replacing these things with the positive breakthroughs, opportunities and beauty coming into my world each day. "

Oct 17 – 19 Venus and the Sun trine Mars in Gemini

An upswing of positive energy supporting us to move forward with a better outlook, hopeful attitude because of breakthroughs with actual real time information, organization, communication, plans, schedules and news.

October 19 – 22 A long string of quickly moving challenging energies beginning late Oct 19 and experienced here and there, and hour here and an hour of the day there, up through early part of the day on the 22nd.

It will be Mercury square Hades, Sun square Pluto, Mercury inconjunct node and oppose Chiron, Venus square Pluto and Mercury inconjunct Uranus.

These are nagging mentally susceptible days where projections coming from negative energies, dark forces messing with our thinking, attempting to manipulate our positive visions which must be rolled back off of our being. To do this effectively, the power of our voice takes charge of this pesky attempt to disconnect us and cause mental derailing.

AFFIRMATION

I claim the power of my Presence, the divine Masters of Love who are in full charge of all things in my world. I Call for peace and prosperity, confidence and faith all things will be successful in my world. "

All things pertaining to documents, decisions, writing and communications, receiving inspiring vision and inspiration as to how to approach this or that situation. Sharing information. Feeling mentally clear with any sort of documents signed, agreed upon, plans for your future or decisions made which have a positive outcome, a finality, are all positive now.

October 8 – November 23, 2022

Mars continues to square Neptune

This cycle is like being out at sea in a storm of confusion. Where is the lighthouse? Where are the cliffs and will we make it. October 8 – November 23, keep our vision within the heart very clear.

Mars continues to create a universal overlay of discouragement and facing the unknown outcomes for our future. Mars in Gemini challenges Neptune's darker side. Mars is the power of our minds over illusion. This confrontation within us and without will be forced to challenge worst case scenarios, fears, peculiar goings on in the world, but mostly astral low frequencies. Prayers, affirmations and energy work to claim the absolute success of all positive outcomes would be most helpful now.

In regards to every day living, you can literally engage in a course of action through this period, to address things which have been neglected as this Mars squares the planet

Neptune. Neptune could represent things not handled or confusing things which were hanging out there not knowing what they entail. The dates exact for the square will be October 8, 2022 through November 23, 2022. Remember how powerful you truly are, transcendent and omnipotent the light is inside of you. This is the ticket for getting through October and November for sure!

October 22 – 23 – 24

Sun and Venus conjoin moves into Scorpio

This moment introduces a period of about 30 days (up to Nov 22) where there could be the introducing of a new theme regarding money, possessions, preparedness. It also is involving a deeper commitment put into anything which requires stepping up in your work, your relationships or delivering specific outcomes for others. It has to do with our wills poured into a greater investment of energy in order to shift things in our lives, making sacrifices now in order to have a positive outcome in the future.

What do others need, require or expect from you during this cycle? What do you need to do to secure a positive outcome? Scorpio involves support towards others, financial strategies and increasing the protection of your money- a value system rapidly changing, going through a transition leading up to the Solar Eclipse on October 25 2022 in Scorpio at 2*.

Solar Eclipse

October 25

The Sun and Moon in a Solar Eclipse reach 2 degrees Scorpio and trine the Black Moon in Cancer. This creates a kind of a destiny for future security, preservation of our financial future, a way to see a way to continue an industrious way for greater future self reliance.

Scorpio/Cancer in a positive energy supports family, real estate, food and reserves, metals and other means of financial backups. It should be a natural guidance to assist us to feel support and move forward with plans which bring an emotional intuitive security in certain ways in our lives.

The Jupiter at 0 degrees Aries inconjunct the Solar Eclipse would be inconvenient situations which continue to present straggled loose ends which we all must walk through in order to get to that deeper self reliance and preservation of what we need in life. Obligations to take on tasks, projects or situations required to handle if we're going to shimmy through this crack opened for us right now and get to the other side. All inconjuncts require work, and with Jupiter it will be about opinions, judgments and suggestions others might present we need to do, which seem as if it is setting us way back, but there's nothing we can do about it. It's a process.

With Scorpio, everything is already a process anyway! Now there's' an inconjunct with the huge planet Jupiter pulling us this way and that way, where something else has now assumed a position of control. The direction Jupiter might take us could appear very sideways, taking us temporarily from our original goal. Never the less, there must be something which must be handled, gone through in order to settle all things.

The Trine to the Black Moon is still there promising a positive outcome, it's just the steps we need to take to get there might not be so easy.

Adjustments are required. Shifts with our thinking will be demanded from us. Re-arranging our view of things in order to handle our new world in some way.

AFFIRMATION

“ I AM NOW completely trusting that only light and good is guiding my world. The power of divine Love has my best interest at heart. My body, money, family, security, home and well being is easily moving into new situations to adjust to a greater security and certainty each day and I accept this for my life now. “
