New Moon In Aquarius February 9, 2024

The New Moon theme from Feb 9 to the Full Moon on Feb 24 creates a strong urge to reject our old set patterns. Humanity as a whole can feel the winds of Aquarius increasing and reject mass consciousness opinions, mindsets and programming. Whatever issue is going on in the world (or in your own personal world) the new moon in Aquarius square to Uranus and Jupiter in Taurus, would be an impulse to think independently, and a desire to break molds.

We can apply this for the next few weeks, with any thing we see as a rut in our world.

Project oneself into another mindset, a new experience. It's a good idea to get out and go somewhere different from your usual everyday local environment as any change of frequency around you will also increase the ability to embrace something refreshing.

The challenge of the square within this new moon, would be to tune into a new experience, in order to get what we could call, an upgrade for our entire being but a square to Uranus sometimes creates erratic unexpected issues we must navigate through, without abandoning our ultimate ideal.

Can you think of anything dynamically different and positive you could experience, in order to challenge the body, emotions and mind/spirit to a positive expansive change?

This New Moon could be triggering unique ideas inside us, in order to prepare for an acceleration of what we are capable of. I see it preparing us for the bigger transformational movement towards an even greater potential when Jupiter and Uranus finally conjoin exactly on April 15 – 30, 2024.

Affirmation:

I AM one with the greatest possible transformation from my Divine Presence, and masterfully holding Earth and all humanity within my heart. Immense light penetrates negative conditions, planetary disruptions and manipulations which can be used for dark purposes. The world is awake to love, intelligent plans, courageous powerful direction, leading all into a higher form of existence, now.

The New Moon in Aquarius is also sextile the North Node in Aries, it appears to me, it's happening globally to millions of people everywhere – this desire to break molds and prepare for something greater.

We notice it in the news, on the internet, how people are thinking, feeling, responding to this or that new program or world crisis. Everything digital will be seriously argued, pro and against.

Look for unpredictable radical responses and comments increasing and more push to manipulate programmable money and digital Ids to get implemented. Something expansive and revolutionary is occurring to the old outworn world and patterns, where more and more are complaining about these old paradigms and agendas, and deciding they don't want it. It's as if no one cares anymore what particular leading organizations are pressing on the public. Aquarius and Uranus won't be easily controlled.

Interesting opportunities might also land in our personal laps as we go through these two weeks for expansion. I sense a sharpening of many people's observations on what could be better, handled better, like we're ALL receiving an upgrade!

Feb 11 2024 – March 22, 2024 Mars enters Aquarius

Mars also entering Aquarius during the period of the New Moon in Aquarius can supersize this experiment in breaking away from an old matrix around us, especially beginning on February 11...up through the 22.

This Mars brings strong drive and motivation to transform something in our life. Be prepared for a new experience plopping in your lap! It can happen in your physical real life, possibly in contact from a person – a friend....yet with so many resonating together with this new way of understanding something, the entire planet's majority of souls who are energetically leading how the positive future will unfold, are connected. And so it's not just happening to you alone, a change, a revelation, a new insight which can lead to a new direction in life, but it will be a theme all over the world, resonating on the same page a similar outlook and attitude together.

I won't deny, anytime Mars in Aquarius, near other planets in Aquarius (Sun and Moon) and especially square to Uranus, creates the potential for sudden stressful disruptions within society. We'll go into these a bit later ...

Mars brings action, drive, motivation and desire for harmony, upgrading, transformation and humanitarian truth and transparency – something scientific, or globally factual, which can help in so many areas of conflict now. I know I keep saying it, but it is, an upgrade for advanced solutions to the world issues, and also, a change of opinions among the many, to choose intelligent factual course of action.

Let's go through the rest of the planets for the next few weeks.....

Feb 12 – 16 Mars in Aquarius conjoin Pluto

We discussed this conjunction a few weeks back, as we ran down the planets' contact to Pluto, the U.S. Pluto and Moon in the 1776 chart. In spite of the positive new mindset of the innovative thinkers in the world, and our own guidance to change certain things for the better now, this conjunction still has the potential of a dangerous volatile eruption of some sort. I always think electrical and energy, tech and internet when I see Aquarius and Uranus active.

It spreads into the Venus conjoin Pluto on the 17th, the Venus conjoin the U.S. Pluto on February 14th, and Venus conjoin transiting Mars on February 21-23. Conjunctions also create eruptions of energy.

With regards to the U.S. chart, it's mostly regarding our financial crisis – people are increasingly challenging oppressive situations with new solutions.

These conjunctions easily could provoke an artificial national crisis leading to emergency digital control. Also, the power of these conjunctions intensify challenging these agendas. Anytime Mars and Pluto are involved, an intense and aggressively pushed agenda occurs, whether positive or negative...both sides. It's as if the whole world has become totally fed up with an old pattern, individuals and systems which are so obviously not working, and only serving the few. Many intense discussions will be going on everywhere, everyone has an opinion, and many are excellently explained. Also for those who desire to rapidly step up increase control, suddenly are increasingly impatient and could at anytime pull the trigger.

Military aggression is still high on the radar, yet this will not go well, as a degrading of faith in discernment of leadership will continue to escalate.

It's like the world of awakened individuals are becoming more and more unified for a higher way of life, smarter solutions.

February continues to escalate tensions within the world. We desire change and it is happening, but the children of light in this world right now, need more.

AFFIRMATION

I call on the magnificent powers of the divine, the angels and perfected beings to release a flood of transmutative and transformational light and love into the potentially triggering disruptive planetary positions, from Mars, Venus and Mercury in the signs of Capricorn/Aquarius, conjoining transiting Pluto at zero degrees Aquarius, the U.S. 1776 Moon at 27* Aquarius, and the 1789 Natal U.S. Pluto at 19* Aquarius now. Transform these energies now into higher inspirations of freedom, divine solutions and call to action for more evolved leadership everywhere.

Feb 13 2024 Venus sextile Neptune

One day of social connections, negotiations, arrangement, pleasant meetings and constructive helpfulness towards each other.

Feb 15 Sun semi-sextile Neptune

Our focus is continually brought back to what it is we're desiring to manifest in our goals, what is the desired results we're looking for. A semi inspiring day reminding ourselves to stay the course, and keep the positive outcomes we want forefront in our minds.

Feb 15 Mercury sextile Chiron and Node

Recognizing the problem is the first step towards positive change. This would be a great day for taking one small step towards that future ideal. This day can offer intelligent work, writing, communication and smart decision making. Self improvement and really enjoying a good book or interview which hits the spot for your need for rejuvenation. Collaborations with others who share similar experiences support the work at hand.

Feb 15 – 16 Mercury 19* Aquarius square Uranus

Internet, communications, electronics, tech, cyber hacks, satellite issues and other networking activities could experience interference during these days. (and throughout February). Some mix ups with arrangements, plans, schedules etc..could happen. Keep reviewing schedule and collaborations with team and friends, as this day might glitch plans. Electrical issues, weird weather and geophysical disruptions can occur.

Feb 17, Venus conjoin Pluto

Discussed above under the Mars conjoin Pluto, a socially intense movement globally to utilize power for a social particular agenda, linked with finance - it intensifies conglomerate personal and group resources to take control over systems, policies, and make a huge impact statement.

Personally, a day of internal emotional drive to re-capture one's worth and value (Venus) and align oneself with very practical arranging of one's money, shopping, needs, personal order. Anything which pertains to thriving, surviving, investing, saving, and drawing upon your own internal abilities talents and resources to get you where you want to be, versus depending upon others and their support.

It is a decision to get something done, regardless of the circumstances.

Feb 18, Sun moves into Pisces

Feb 21-23 Venus conjoins Mars at 6* Aquarius

Combining the social financial and internally emotional will and determination to reach our objective now or in the future, Mars enhances this determination with strong energy to get up and get it done. Expect motivation to cut through and accomplish things you might have been putting off for a while, on these days. This is all part of the breaking free from an old rut, thing.

Remember, we are still moving through the 1st quadrant of 2024, up until April 8, so even though we're talking about a lot of action taking place, much change, dynamic decisions and positive mindset transformations occurring, it's still the 1st quarter of the year, which is basically (rapidly!) setting a strong theme, a blueprint, of what is to come and be seriously out pictured in the world of reality, a new reality, as we enter the emotional quadrant on April 8, 2024, and so on.

So, what this means to me, is that all of this intense conversation, ideas and impulse for a better future, is good to engage in, and it is quite amazing to witness within myself and the world, how restless everyone is! I for one, am continuing to concentrate upon the things I feel are truly important to achieve as I draw down the matrix for the first quadrant of the Etheric Blueprint now up to April 8. I also notice it continues to become more enhanced and real, possible as the weeks go by.

The year broken up into four quadrants, beginning on the New Moon in January 2024, then consecutively switching to the next quadrant theme, and the next, can be found HERE, and more details regarding other key planetary events can be found HERE.

Feb 23 Mercury moves into Pisces

Mercury brings new information into our thoughts. It also conveys messages from the outside world into our personal lives in the sign of Pisces, it generally switches back and forth between an increase of sensitivity and compassion, artistic and musical inspiration, higher dreams and ideals, versus, reactions to what is wrong, what isn't the way it should be. disappointed or impatient with our situations, our suffering or life issues which are not the way we desire it to go. Harness the power of Mercury and be more assertive during this time to get the thing which is causing the suffering, out of the way.

Feb 24 Venus in Aquarius square Jupiter

A day to watch out for over committing yourself or counting too much on another.

Be moderate in your expectations of others and yourself. Not a good day for spending. Impractical exaggeration of finances, purchases, investments or even the promises of others during the 24th. Moderation and sharper observing required in order to conserve your money or avoid disappointments with others.

Feb 26 – 28 Mars at 10* Aquarius square Jupiter at 10* Taurus

Potential waste.....is it a waste of your time? Money? Expectations? The 24th – 28 are plagued with stronger desires for a certain outcome, but you could over do it now. Over commit, not judge oneself or another's abilities properly – possibly over commit to a purchase, a decision which is pressing on you during the week.

Global conflicts with attacks, financial confrontations and realities – waste, poor judgment, inappropriate behavior or comments from leadership – this could already be starting, and escalates up through this week.

Feb 28 Mercury conjoin Saturn at 9* Pisces

Serious complaining, scrutiny, analysis, strong disapproval and heavy words or strong opinions expressed this day – a sudden realization of the serious nature of a situation. Challenges with wrapping our minds around personal and/or global situations. A strong dose of reality.

Feb 29 Sun conjoins Saturn

This aspect begins on the 28th and results on the 29th with a stronger reality check, the 29th issues are more revealing as to how to proceed, so whatever we're all experiencing on the 28th would be fully understood in its entirety on the 29th of February. A potentially heavy day for any situation involving Piscean issues – neglect, avoidance of truth, sabotaged (being sold down the river) betrayal - with consequences following, suffering, sicknesses, viruses, word released regarding a dire global reality of some sort – sobering statistics revealed regarding something we can all relate to.

Events occurring which require some adjusting within ourselves, from a state of indifference, or of ambiguity to awake, clear and motivated, is now happening. February 28 - 29th will cause many to wake up and Saturn definitely get their attention.

Whatever is going on, which began in the first part of February in regards to global world events, certain things are not playing out as some desired them to be. This cycle of February feels like a karmic accountability period for many in global leadership positions and are only going to increase as we quickly move into the next Solar Eclipse on April 8.

Mercury sextiles Jupiter, Venus sextiles Node fortunately the month ends on a positive note of expansive ideas, helpful discussions, supportive relationships and socially universal harmony and consensus as to how personal and world situations should be.

Thank you for supporting Stardrops! The year 2024 has several key events playing out. In order to get this to you quickly, I refrained from including a repeat of all the other major events taking place, but you can read about them especially in the last two – three Stardrops.

Have a successful February! We'll have to see how it all turns out!
