The dates above are key moments in the U.S. as the start of extreme volatile polarizing of certain activities, organizations, groups, against one another. The potential for out of control escalation in several areas, beyond border confrontation has started, as all Pluto transits begin at least 4-6 weeks prior to the first exact peak date. As we can see above, the very first peak is February 21, 2024.

As we have mentioned in past Stardrops, this has never happened in the U.S. before, and it creates a trauma of separation and alienation from what use to be a safe group, or a community which one would have never thought would turn against another, but now, it's as if one community of people are facing alliances and friendships who have turned into a completely uncontrollable force against the other. The U.S. leadership, could face being alienated from the world community as they continuously behave and act as if in unreality. This challenge can cause increase of rash stupid decisions one after another, as the public stand by in disbelief.

One can never go back to the trust and bond they once experienced, after this cycle is over.

It is a dangerous period opening us up to an increased vulnerability from invasion, aggressive and radical escalation of chaos and increasing the people's awareness of the need to seriously confront how situations are not being handled smartly. It will cause such an extreme split between the majority of the people versus leadership in government and corporate, media etc...along with another extreme split between the leaders of the world versus American leadership utterly failing to recognize they are behind the Aquarian Revolution of problem solving on all fronts, including economically. It is the sign of an extreme relationship trust breakdown.

The cycle takes many forms, mutates into many unique issues, confrontations, variations of problems and accusations throughout 2024. And it doesn't let up until it's over. Avoiding emotionally charged reacting would be absolutely key to pass through this cycle successfully, and instead, go deep into examining a bigger picture occurring on the planet instead of the one pulling on our attention in one direction.

Our job is to hold a matrix, a blueprint of a smooth process of truth, issues erupting without extreme disruption of our societies' basic well being if possible.
