

Mars 2024-2025

The big Mars Retrograde in Leo/Cancer is coming.

As you can see in the table below, Mars moves into Leo exactly on November 3, 2024. This intensifies all things LEO which is typically a dramatic, bold and theatrical sign, and the energies of Cancer, domestic, security, safety and the ability to thrive in our lives.

Mars and Leo energies-November 3 – January 5, 2025; Returns April 17 – June 17, 2025.

- Leadership dynamism, respect, dignity.
- Authority and Maturity versus arrogant, reckless, maniacal
- Taking Risks, overly confident
- Taking a gamble, speculations
- Investments of all sorts
- Professional sales, business growth and expansion
- Financial growth pertaining to super charged energy invested in one's projects
- Confidence
- Children and education, childcare and all things pertaining to babies, the young.
- Creative dynamic entrepreneurship activities accelerated.
- Politics and those governing
- Our confidence in ourselves, our need to be admired, self respect, dignity
- Quality of Life, enjoyment.

Sometimes these qualities are neither good or bad, simply containing the potential to trigger circumstances in our lives, and create high focus during this particular Mars cycle. Mars Retrograde periods, intensify our drive for taking action targeting particular areas of our lives.

Mars will remain in Leo up to January 6, 2025, intensifying the best or the worst of the list above.

It can activate positive outpicturing of these traits, and expose the absolute worst situations, where something has definitely got out of hand in abuse of these traits.

At the peak of it turning retrograde on January 6, 2024, which makes Mars appears in the sky to move backwards, it moves back into Cancer all the way to April 17, 2025. This will change the energies from fiery Leo to a sensitive security conscious Cancer.

Themes for Mars in Cancer January 6- April 17, 2025:

- Parenting decisions, protection and concentration upon the family's well being – desiring greater levels of preparedness and safety.
- Children's education, direction, childcare, food, health, diet or emotional well being.
- Heightened emotional reactions in 2025.
- Having enough. Budgeting, saving for a rainy day.
- Dynamic world scene theatrics
- All things Money, metals, Crypto and means of exchange for goods and services.

- Something about Underground.
- Food, all things food. Security, storage, acquiring food.

- Military – (even though Military comes under Virgo, it represents protection, defense, which is Cancer). Something big regarding the Military and war.
- Issues with land, resources, food, water, flooding, weather, geo-engineering and regaining security over regions of the earth.

By the way, Mars has already been crossing through the sign Cancer since the start of September 4 up through November 3, 2024...so we all have been experiencing some of these needs in the list above.

Mars moving into Cancer, changes the theme to security, protecting what needs to be secured. Personal finances needing to be accumulated. Food, water, energy and fuel issues concentrated upon. The fact Mars is retrograde increases the intensity of drama in these activities.

Issues pertaining to our housing, homes, economics, interest rates, abundance or lack.

Because of...

- Mars in Cancer's trine to Saturn in Pisces – February 6, 2025 – April 8 2025
- Mars in Cancer sextiles Uranus in Taurus – January 20 – April 7, 2025
- Mars in Cancer trine Neptune in Pisces – January 14 – April 18, 2025
- Mars in Cancer trine North Node in during this time.... April 1 – 10, 2025

.....it is hopefully a very favorable time for experiencing positive solutions and progress for this Mar also, as aspects such as trines and sextiles open issues up for hard discussion and solutions.

In the time of January through April 17, 2025, these aspects act as stabilizers and bring out the best opportunities for success and advancement, accomplishing all the positive outcomes for the things on the Cancer list.

Saturn trine Mars, February – April, causes a checkmate confrontation against anything opposing security and wellbeing of the population – it is a matter-of-fact sort of attitude or observation that even a child could see the necessity of change and correction to occur. Even though we are all still concerned with our security and money, our well-being, Saturn creates a situation where official solutions, bills passed or regulations in a constructive way are implemented all February through April 2025. Personally, it provides stability, common sense and at least an organized patient sort of progress, where trust is involved in following a practical yet idealistic plan. This Mars will also trine the new Transiting Venus in Aries/Pisces retrograde February through April at the same time, enhancing social acceptance, desire for relief and idealistic dreams potentially realized in some way.

Jupiter will still be in Gemini during this time, offering a more ethical theme, mind expanding and logical talks for the 1st half of the year 2025. This Jupiter can assist in good judgment against impulsive irrational poor judgment of the Jupiter square Saturn which has been ongoing from August 2024 – June 2025... and any impulsive destructive Mars triggers violence and war activities.

Back to Mars in Leo...

Mars in Leo, November through January 6, can threaten, bluff or declare a particularly bold and difficult position, mandate or demand, but after Jan 6 as it moves into Cancer that is when it might trigger a knee jerk reaction, a retaliation in defense, as Cancer energies have more to do with being on the defensive.

In a positive sense, it will light a fire to get things done, changed, reversed (retrograde) reviewed and re-done. In a challenging sense, it could also mean simultaneously, things are heating up violating borders, boundaries, safety, prices, and in general an escalation of not feeling secure.

It looks to me like a crisis in several areas escalating, where the positive aspects (dates above) can manage and re-direct these more difficult Martian energies in a constructive way.

This Mars in Cancer on or around February 23rd leaves retrograde dynamically exposing problems with those intensely attempting to secure things, batten down the hatches and scrambling to make changes quickly.

November 2024

In November, Mars in Leo begins a dynamic display of theater, it comes in strong. As we approach January 2025, it moves into Cancer, now dealing with domestic problems of all kinds, with the intent on stirring things up so much, it demands changes to take place immediately.

Here is a run-down of Mars' aspect to the planets:

One cycle which is disturbing would be Mars at 29* Cancer to 2* Leo oppose Pluto at 29* Capricorn, All October, mainly peaking October 26 – November 10, peaking exactly on November 3-6, 2024. Returns December 31 – January 5, 2025. Mars opposes 1776 Pluto on January 9, 2025 – January 14 once again just like October 25 – 30, 2024.

This is an extreme potential of a false flag or challenging event taking place, abuse of power in some form. It could cause an event to erupt at the price of someone's life, where a situation occurs where the U.S. election must be delayed or shut down. It is an act of control, abuse of power against the public, or an individual.

It could come out of nowhere, yet there are other stabilizing planets aspecting at the same time, so it might just be an incident which gets handled, yet creates much destructive energy. Of course, this might also be occurring somewhere else in the world, it does not have to be U.S. related. However, the Mars and transiting Pluto are both, lining up on the U.S. Uranus at 1* Leo (April 30, 1789 chart)

The other November 4-7 astrology is positive, such as the Saturn trine Sun presenting a theme of acceptance of election results, unlike the 2020 astrology which was an absolute mess.

The start of so much Martian trouble would be when Mars conjoins the U.S. 1776 Conceptional Sun along with transiting Hades at 13-14* Cancer...September 25 – 30, 2024. It is intensifying from August 2023 – May 2025 the already dark energy from transiting Hades conjoin America's Sun and Fixed Star Sirius, which is attempting to destroy the ideals of America, a Cancer country, involving all ideal Cancerian traits (list above.) It returns on

Dates: September 25 – 30, 2024; conjoin U.S. Mercury on October 17 -22 2024; oppose the U.S. 1776 Pluto (not good) on October 25 – 31, 2024;

The Mars Retrograde at 0 - 6* Leo conjoin 1789 U.S. Uranus and square Natal Venus at 2* Taurus

Date November 12 – December 29th 2024; January 20 -30, 2025; March 28 – April 20, 2025.

Yet another volatile cycle for aggression, violence and global disruptions, especially crisis in the U.S. The Dates I would say might be extremely hot are:

November 4 – 6; January 1 – 4; April 18 – 21.
Mars conjoin U.S. Uranus at 2* Leo.

Transiting Mars stationary retro in Cancer, square the U.S. 1789 Natal Mars, conjoin the U.S. Natal Jupiter and Moon in Cancer and square U.S. natal Neptune in Libra:

September 25 – October 18, 2024

Returns: January 20 – 29; February 18 – 28 as Mars stations at 17* Cancer, making an almost exact conjunction to the U.S. Moon at 16* Cancer; and March 20 – 30, 2025.

So basically, the entire time between Mid September 2024 – April 2025 is volatile and super energized with potential emergencies.

My Thoughts...

My brain hurts tracking Mars retrograde in Leo/Cancer 2024 – 2025. Never have I had such an avoidance issue to tackling this Mars energy, writing it all out and I am totally unable to synthesize it all in my mind, as each date, each Mars cycle describes its own unique event globally and in the U.S. Just know, each date timeframe, will be a significant event, one after the other....and not always negative either.

But basically, Mars is triggering dangerous energies, motivations within certain antagonistic people, organizations, or shall we say, undesirable sources.... yet at the same time other individuals in leadership positions are also signing documents, passing laws, making serious national and international decisions which are monumental moments. In retrospect, as I re-edit this document on October 11, 2024, look at the date this Mars all started (September 26 2024. This was the beginning of Helene and Milton Hurricanes. Also, Diddy activities emerged, and the Ukraine discussions of a cease fire began.

These drama events are ongoing repeatedly, along with certain people being convicted, seriously (the original Mars document was written August 2024) and there will be groups or individuals activated to counteract positive events occurring in the world, threatening and mobilizing retaliations...it appears everything is erupting, yet the Mars conjoin Mercury and conjoin the Nodes in the U.S. 1776 chart, which represents trends, finance, our currency and economy, is all at the same time in full command in a positive manner with economic financial change in an innovative provocative unrolling of events and certain proclamations are being declared, presented to the people, with the Mars on Mercury. It is a relentless movement, like a military operation in a way, however, conjunctions can also simply trigger control, takeover and aggression from Mars.

Because this Mars is also conjuncting 1776 Cancer Sun (along with Hades) August 2023 through May 2025) you've got to be blind if you don't know this is war and it might not be a typical conventional war we're used to but it is definitely putting the U.S. in a most Cancerian defensive posture for protecting everything good it stands for, for its future, along with Hades influencing those who are attempting to tear it down with their sabotaging actions as this Hades makes its last round conjuncting the Sun up to May 2025. Reminding, this Hades has never been in this severely undermining position before in the history of America.

This Mars cycle is definitely worth doing a video on as we get closer to August, as there is so much blow by blow detail of what we call Martian aggression, assertion, leadership, taking control, retaliation from other areas etc...etc...it's quite something.

Description continues

This cycle of Mars in Leo retro, then moving backwards into Cancer during the election time through June 2025 and especially strong November 20 – December 10, 2025 has the potential of causing much high stress and escalation of tension where we could be witnessing destructive activities escalating.

. It will build and build as it becomes stationary exact retro on December 6 2024. It releases the power to instigate events, attitudes, decisions and disruption within and without America during all these dates you will see here above and below. but most especially when Mars conjuncts the U.S. Natal 1789 Uranus, This can be volatile, dangerous and at the least, extremely guarded and alert times where Uranus freedom and shall I say it, revolutionary energies are at its all time high. The most extreme dates are:

November 5– 7 2024; January 1 – 4, 2025 and April 15 – 30, peaking exact on April 20, 2025. Again, these are specifically when Mars conjuncts the U.S. 1789 natal Uranus. We have to add, this Uranus is already being opposed by Transiting Pluto, that heavy planet which is already intensifying a split or breakaway in some form (description later in this article.) and the astrology cycle we continue to explore and bring up since the end of last year.

So watch and prepare for an escalation of personal, national and global sense of urgency in some form as this Mars begins to slow down and turn retrograde.
