

Stardrops March 23, 2025

Venus, our planet of healing and transformation, merges with Mercury. The instigator (guiding us in the right direction via the mind) are both retro stationary from mid-February through April 2025, we have all been re-aligning to a higher vision as to how we wish to live. It is as if our entire being is adjusting to this new set of values and priorities.

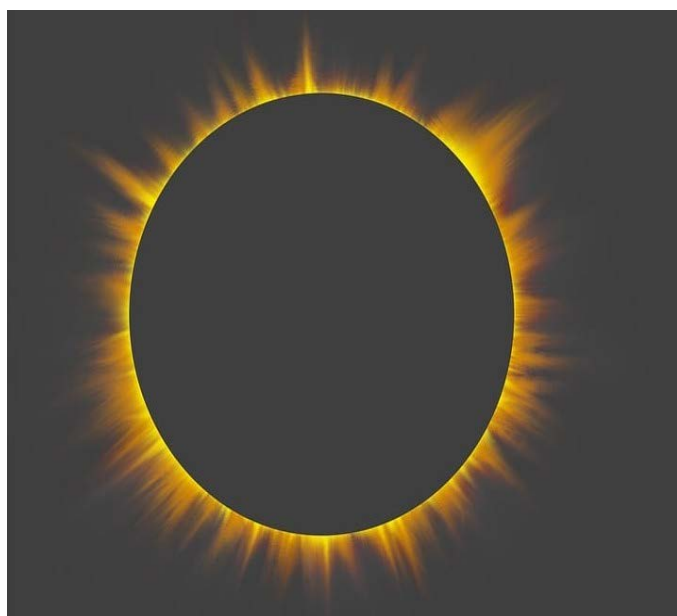

With both planets in addition to the Node, and in a few weeks, Saturn and Neptune joining the Sun and Moon March 29 (Solar Eclipse in Aries) we have a strong motivation to act on our ideals, rather than simply just musing over future dreams.

We couldn't ask for a better time to be forthright, everything out on the table, direct confrontations, seeing things as they really are and moving towards integration with our Higher Divine Self.

This Higher Self is what fills the void within, releasing confidence to be who we really are.

Venus heals, Mercury guides through thought, Saturn brings conviction and discipline, Neptune ideals, the Solar Eclipse, well, that's something else! An amazing time – February – May 2025!

The Solar Eclipse at 9° Aries

On March 29, the Solar Eclipse will release that familiar power in which our inclination to move forward on that one thing will be all we want to accomplish.

It will super charge us with our next step we know we need to take.

This is the way of Solar Eclipses. They behave similarly to the action we get from a Mercury retrograde, but the Mercury is more thought guidance, the Solar Eclipse is an all body, soul, consciousness guidance, not just a thought dropped into our minds, like Mercury. It moves us into action for our best interest, sometimes without even mental awareness or decision involved.

Because the Solar Eclipse is in Aries the Ram, this pushes us harder, increases motivation, action, instigating new plans, a fresh new start in some important area of your life. It feels like a stronger, clearer integration between a trust within as to how we need to live and be, and the actions which mirror that identity insight.

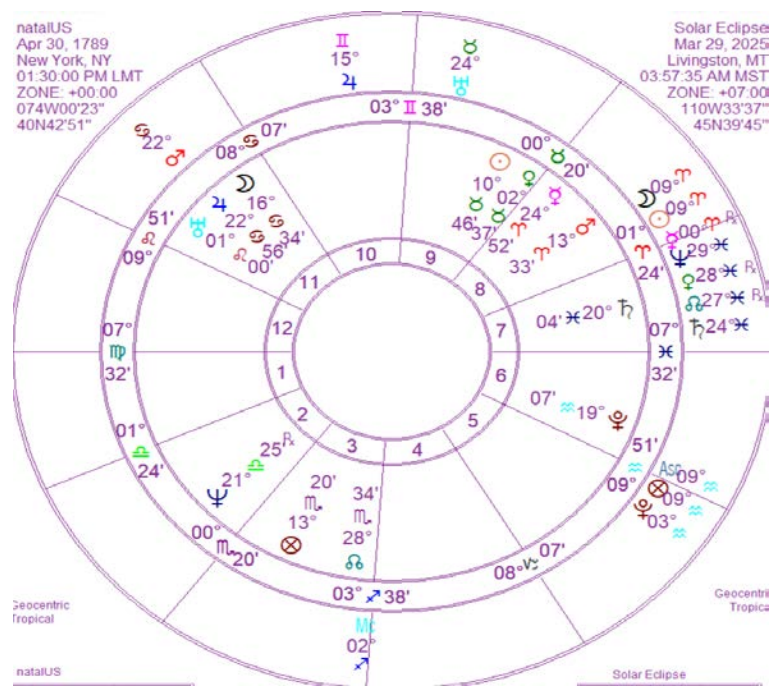

Watch for it! The energy is fully on for 30 days starting soon, March 29, and then will be playing out its new theme for you, for at least five months.

How I see it is like this – with the grouping of planets moving between late Pisces and early Aries, we are being softened and inspired to come up higher in our world in some way, and this has been going on since last January 2025. It will continue into mid-May.

But the March Mercury and Venus retros, have sharpened our awareness as to exactly how and why and what we must do to progress.

Then comes the Solar Eclipse, which I see as the full force of the Sun to push us into that new situation fully on March 29 through all of April. 2025.

The Solar Eclipse in the U.S. 1789 Chart March 29, 2025

In the U.S. natal chart, we have this Stellium situated in the 8th/7th houses of negotiations, deals made, collaborations, give and take between the U.S. and other countries. Some challenging and abrasive, violent and direct, others idealistically negotiating and closing arrangements.

The Mercury (mental, mind, ideas and communications, decrees, documents, paperwork, and records) is sitting on the Mars in the house of death, also, dirty deals, negotiations, and arrangements) All March 2025.

The Venus is also sitting on the U.S. Mars in Aries in the 8th house, (Venus ruling money, social shifting positions, relationships and agreements, greed, acquisitions, desires, and insatiable passion for control {Aries}). This has been building up from end of February up through March especially, then moving on through April 2025.

These two planets are triggering all secret docs unfolding and expose real time issues which will be changing lives.

The Mercury can expose and dig deep as it moves through the 8th house of data, secrets and layers of subterfuge, the Venus can penetrate issues pertaining to law, morality, and uncover unsavory acts and lack of values, ethics in the 8th house. It involves sex, trafficking, and other extremely dark issues, thugs, criminals, and underground organized crime. Venus is usually associated with Love, but it can also tie us into the social world... (Venus rules our relationships we magnetize to us or are accommodating, those we allow, enable engage with or are familiar with).

Any action going on in the 8th house reveals serious issues which desire to remain hidden, including murders, death. These issues will be forced into transparency.

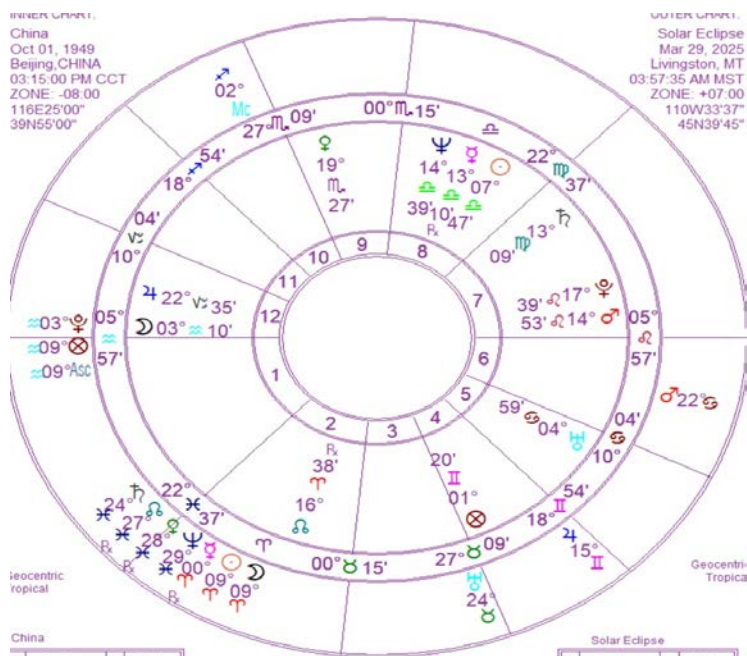

The Solar Eclipse moves into the same 8th house in the sign of Aries as well as the other planetary positions are.

It is releasing the full power of an eclipse to enforce bold actions within the arena of mutual agreements and negotiations on a very high scale of risky issues.

The U.S. could be pressing for a confrontation regarding any one of these 8th house issues listed above, and/or wrestling with 8th house underground activities against the U.S.? With the 8th house it could go either way. There is another concern, and that is if we insert China into this planetary configuration, as we can see in the chart below, it is not having an easy time with the wave of planetary influences.

China and the Solar Eclipse – not a good mix.

The planets have been triggering China's 2nd house of economy, especially with the upcoming Solar Eclipse. It will make a direct opposition to China's 8th house Sun in Libra, the pressure to let go of past relations and agreements, disengage, and let go or break certain expectations and relations as they were. They could feel forced to move in a new direction in order to gain greater control. And the relations they are separating from don't have to be solely the U.S. They might appear to accommodate and negotiate however, both the Eclipse and other planets in Aries and China's Sun in Libra make a t-square to their Uranus, which indicates erratic independent and unpredictable behavior in order to avoid accommodation. The pressure of these planetary energies are triggering and appears to be seriously upsetting China's financial future plan. Control, aggression and potential unexpected moves is what I would predict.

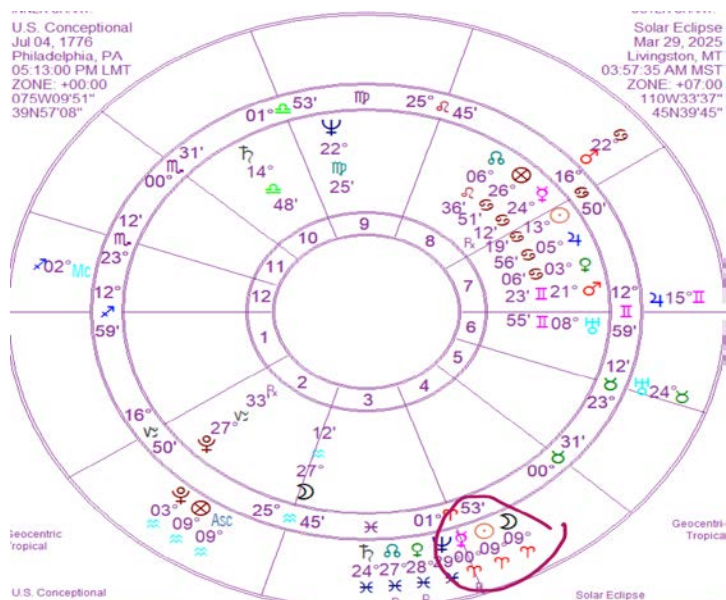

More Insights into the Highly Charged Planetary Alignments and Solar Eclipse

March 29 – April on – up through August 2025 – Aries is fast acting, urgent, immediate, and impatient. ...it can be attacking, blunt, involving weaponry and attacking energy.

It will be the people who represent truth everywhere who are digging hard into layers of information 8th house mysteries, trine the U.S. Uranus, uncovering the pattern which is emerging as to how, who, where and when all the 8th house underground activities have been involved in manipulating our lives, and mostly leading to just a few places no one can deny.

Remember how many times we have been discussing the unprecedented power these grouping of planets would be in our world right now? January 18 – May 15, especially increasing their full potential March 2025? Especially because of the leader, Venus retrograde, bringing deep transformation and healing whatever it takes to make it happen, however far down it must go, it does its work. Unrelenting. Regardless of any other harsh energies, Venus is having its way with every living person in the world at this time.

Solar Eclipse around the U.S. 1776 Conceptional chart

The Stellium in Pisces/Aries (Saturn, Neptune, Node, Mercury and Venus retro, and the New Solar Eclipse) are all situated at the bottom of the outer rim of the U.S. wheel in the 4th house.

The 4th house can represent our homeland, the ground, underground, minerals, oil, agriculture, gas, fracking, earthquakes, drilling, flow of water, crops, real estate, and the boundaries of the United States.

It also represents our need for safety, security, boundaries, and protection.

In a person's chart it rules your home, and the Father who is meant to secure the home, provide safety and functionality in the home.

These planets sitting there, along with the New Trigger planets, the Solar Eclipse on March 29, 2025, active for one month fully, then continuing its theme for five months, makes me very uneasy.

They are of course, all in Pisces/Aries – Aries being the prominent sign – (remember the Aries descriptions above?)

This puts tremendous volatile emergency activities on the ground of the U.S.

Are they natural such as Geo-physical eruptions? Or are they yet another escalation of violent acts so many to manage? Does it represent an invasion of some sort or the exposure of one already taking place?

I can sit here and speculate these possibilities from the astrology I see and put it on a shelf watching to see just how these will play out – but I have the affirmations to make, *we all have the affirmation to make – to transform this potential challenge into a non- issue. I can't imagine being a reader attempting to digest these issues brought up and not knowing to what degree of seriousness these activities are bringing to us.

Let's focus upon the AFFIRMATION at this time to transform, transmute and roll back any potential eruption.

AFFIRMATION

I AM Calling to the most impenetrable invincible power of universal LOVE, Protection, Intelligence to shield and seal all nations in rings of light now. Archangel Michael, take command of the earth and all challenging potent astrological planetary alignments, Allow only growth, forward movement int our new positive life for freedom, prosperity, safety, and Divine Control, through these Aries energies now.

Roll back the violence, insanity, and aggression in all ways, and restore peace.

The positive of this cycle would look like how we described these planets in our own personal charts at the start of this Stardrops at the top of the page.

Instigating new change, commitments to a new way, even if they are many small steps – the country's new restored identity as to what we truly have always meant to would be crucial during this time, and this goes for every nation in the world, January 18 – May 2025.

Remember, Aries rules Higher Identity and Self Control, taking full control over one's higher destiny and self, harmless, direct, honest, and acting on one's higher inspiration for good and peace always.

A quick reminder, Transiting Pluto continues to square the U.S. 1789 Natal Venus in Taurus in the 9th house – Spring 2024 began, became much stronger February /March 2025 – all through 2025.

This is a once in a 250 year cycle for the U.S. to tear down and purge all negative indulgent immoral agencies, organizations, institutions, activities, organized financial corrupt CULTURES and you know, I hate to say this, but it is going to include organizations, individuals who have set themselves up in higher minded leaders of society as do -gooders, some leaders within churches or higher social orders – including religious hierarchy – we went into this pretty seriously in a past Stardrops which you can read here.

This astrology cycle is really strong right now up through the entire 2025. This is the year these corruptions will be turned inside out.

They were supposed to be the moral guidance for society. Not all, but some are going to be purged.

Daily Planetary Cycles

March 22 Venus conjoin Sun (Casimi) A lovely day, Friday – Sunday, for expressing the total idealistic beauty of our own true needs and values. This cycle empowers us towards creative work, music, arts, design, instigating positive new business cycles. It can help us to act on our health, eyes, brain, face, appearance, or anything stress related, blood pressure, anger, or unresolved issues.

March 22 – 24 Sun and Venus sextiles Pluto. A coordinated effort to reach out and build a communication with others whom you can help, or they can assist you in achieving goals.

Again, finances, business, health, music, and the arts, building social networks, increasing design, cooperation with projects and expertise can happen during these dates.

March 24 – 26 Mercury, Venus sextiles Pluto – with the addition of Mercury, we know there will be details discussed, precision, analyzing and pinpointing the exactness of when and how to execute plans. Much talk, mental and idea sharing, communication and coordination of schedules, appointments and other meaningful planning will take place.

March 24 Mercury conjoins Sun (Casimi) The brilliant mind, idea, mental astute, clarity, logical day of all days!

March 26 Mars squares Chiron in Aries at 22* A hard day for handling issues as we might feel restrained, blocked, restricted or control over a situation is removed.

March 27 Venus retrograde moves back into Pisces and conjoins Neptune at the very end of Pisces.

This has been going on since January 18, 2025.

It has been creating a powerful theme we have covered, providing the world with a downpouring of idealistic vision, hope, a release of a new wave from the Culture of Venus, overriding everything which is crass, course, ugly and perverted.

It has been in Pisces (the desire to be saved from demonic world) and Aries, (integrating with the Christ, the Higher Self) the return of the Christ Light into the bodies of people.

The Venus joined by Neptune and the transiting Node...

- January 18 – February 4
- March 22-28,
- April 1 – 24,
- May 1 – 3 2025

Venus represents the Culture of the Kumaras, who came to earth ages ago to infuse humanity with the spark of life, once again after it had been diminished and snuffed out within their hearts. The degradation of the people went to the lowest level possible, until the Kumaras came with the 144,000 to attempt to restore the fire within the hearts and restore the Culture of civility once again.

Every time Venus turns retrograde for a time, we are receiving an influx of POWER of a higher grace in so many ways, from Venus' energy. It is a bright brilliant in the early morning and late evening as the Sun sets.

The release of transformation is so exact to each person's unique needs at this time. It is subtle, but you can detect it by noticing positive foreign inclinations guiding your inner world at this time.

By now, we are well into the thick of the Venus retro experience – take note at some thing which is evolving deep from within yourself that you want to keep, preserve, and cherish – act on it and have more of. Now.

March 29 Mercury conjoins Neptune (Along with the Solar Eclipse)

Ideal inspiration, confidence with expressing self, going for what you desire and have in this life.

Inspiration for all areas of our lives, greater compassion, love, vision restored. (It is already happening as of March 21)

March 30 – April 3 Mercury and Venus conjoin the NODE.
A new life begins.

Have a beautiful March and we'll be back to review next week! Christine
