

Stardrops June 1, 2025

Positive cycles

It's time to catch up using June, as an incredible open door for much achievement, but more than that, there is a gathering of people, whether in person or energetically, who are being reunited from long, long ago. These people are part of an enormous bond of brotherhood from all walks of life, who have always held a vision, a belief, life was to be free and glorious. You are most likely one of them. You detest the darkness which seems like it will never be gone. All the cycles below are strong indicators of a reuniting, networking, and magnetic connection to each other all over the planet. Sextiles in abundance bring people of like mind together. Jupiter trines and conjunctions, Mars and Mercury sextiles and trines, so many as you read through each one provide inspiration, vision, and expansion of a code in the heart all resonating as one. Something important regarding a people coming together is happening this June, and it will accelerate up through the next Mercury retro in Leo into August.

For your personal life, these cycles can only help you now. All the cycles below in this section are the best for catching up, getting ahead, and making headway with your plans. It is positive for getting your ideas across to others, being appreciated, listened to, supported, and being equally receptive to others' plans, needs, and situations. Mutual cooperation is in the air. They open the way for truthful conversations, intelligent advice and professional action taken in order to solve problems or fix issues. They are positive for employment, interviews, important professional meetings that need to happen in order to clear the air, know where you stand.

These periods of time throughout June brings agreeable outcomes, for most of the things you might need others' help with, or at least their approval. You find yourself more relaxed and trusting to move forward with others, build a rapport, increase sales, make purchases after hard consideration. It supports breakthroughs for any other challenging financial decisions. It can open the door for greater understanding, insights and going beyond our five senses, the reality we see before us, and somehow, slip us into a new clarity in vision, putting the pieces together. Below are the highlights for June for good fortune with your endeavors.

After this section, we'll go into the challenges to look out for. Use these positive dates to empower yourselves to get ahead with the key issues in your life now - regardless of what you might be experiencing in your personal astrology cycles to your birth chart. See them as two layers, the planet's interaction with each other, which is what Stardrops is all about - and your own personal astrology cycles.

Planetary cycles

Venus in Aries trine Mars in Leo

Venus 25* - 26* Aries to 1* Taurus, Mars 23 – 26* Leo
(June 1-4 still active, was exact May 20-27)

Fiery energetic Aries and Leo motivate and inspire. Socially inspired to meet up and enjoy friends and outings of all kinds. Industrious ideas motivate one to keep on a specific train of thought which can lead to attractive products, business plans, and financial gain. People are happy with you and desire to be part of either your life, your fun or what you are providing in your work.

Venus sextile Jupiter

Venus 27* Aries to 3* Taurus, Jupiter 27* Gemini to 0* Cancer
(exact June 1 – 10)

This is definitely a communications period of time. Whether it is in your own mental work or relating to important people where there requires an ethical moral or cultural compatibility or cooperation, it's the best. Sometimes positive Jupiter creates legal or spiritual issues which are very supportive now.

A strong plan of action is agreed upon.

A nice social period of time to hang out with friends, feel supported and help out others who deserve your advice. Material possessions have a high degree of value for you at this time, whether they are tangible physical things, apps, devices, or even the value of quality friend time together. It is a constructive period for negotiating, even with the Saturn square Jupiter discussed below!

Venus sextile Mercury

Venus 28* Aries to 8* Taurus, Mercury 25* Gemini to 9* Cancer,

(June 4-14, June 10 -12 exact

(Returns Mid-July 10 – 14 as Mercury stations retro in Leo 13-15* and sextiles Venus at 13-17* Gemini)

Again, with Mercury involved, communications, documents, facts and figures, numbers, finances, or details of issues are discussed, mulled over. It is positive, and one has a good feeling, things are going to work out for the better. A positive time for stimulating conversations, meetings of all times, health procedures, transportation, short trips, learning new things which you feel are key to your progress. Your relations with others of all types of people, professional/personal, are harmonious and satisfying. You feel heard, validated, and supported.

Mercury conjoin Jupiter

Mercury and Jupiter at 28* Gemini to 1* Cancer,
(June 7 -9 exact), strong between June 7 – 12)

Because Mercury once again is involved, documents, content, reading and assimilating information could be part of these days. Jupiter could mean it's a lot of work, or an abundance of material, or big thoughts, expansive goals, and expectations. Anything related to Mercury (computers, phones, internet, emails, text messages, data, cars, short trips, and networking) are positive, yet beyond that! They are dynamically inspired to make positive changes, move forward, and make a clean break with one's old mindset.

Classes, seminars, learning, mind expansion, trips and events all come into play. A beautiful time for expansion in some way – a feeling of progress, inspired to act on something which could provide you a sense of completion, fortuitous action taken to increase your wellbeing.

Mercury sextile Mars

Mercury at 22-25* Gemini, Mars at 23-26* Leo
(June 4 -8)

This period of time for Mercury, the mind, is the mini version of a greater cycle in August. I love this energy because it fires up our social connection, takes command of a situation, provides confidence with reaching out to others, or they desire to include you. Assertive yet richly explored issues, with an intensity to settle on to a conclusion, solutions could be felt. A unifying of purpose, almost militant in energy, of one mind is occurring among many people who feel kinship.

It involves your thoughts stimulated and coming up with inspired ideas and practical plans to execute a future project yet the sextile involves friends, community...it is perfect for marketing yourself, selling an idea, a vision to others....your performance, leadership, collaboration with others is extremely positive...your presentations motivate others, they listen...an increase of success for constructive action with the full support of those who know what they are doing. You feel satisfied and fulfilled as your expectations on projects and professional analysis are going very well.

You are inclined to focus upon editing out extraneous unnecessary expenses, unnecessary steps to a business structure, or focusing upon greater functionality for some activity. If it is personal, people listen to you as you present your plans, your personal needs and new way of living. You want others to get it.

This cycle is especially great for inventors, coding, technical expertise, as Mars in Virgo zeroes in on finely detailed production.

It brings support and harmony yet there is a detailed laid out plan of action involved. Sometimes it is mechanical or industrious part of this cycle where either tools, software, materials, expertise is involved with deeply precisely examining, fixing and working on something. It might even involve health...diet, exercise. It's a great cycle to see progress with one's body, anything related to health, beauty, restoration or launching a new improvement for yourself, home, work, or business platform.

The Mercury sextile Mars returns in August with a greater impact on your life!

All the above energies are amplified now. The planet Mercury returns incredibly stronger August 5 – 28 as Mercury turns station direct at 4° Leo and Mars will be at 3-8° Libra, In fact, this 2ND cycle, increases the motivation to literally get up and make things happen, which may have only been an idea or plan in previous months...it is 100%, no procrastination. All the descriptions above are magnified during the August period of time.

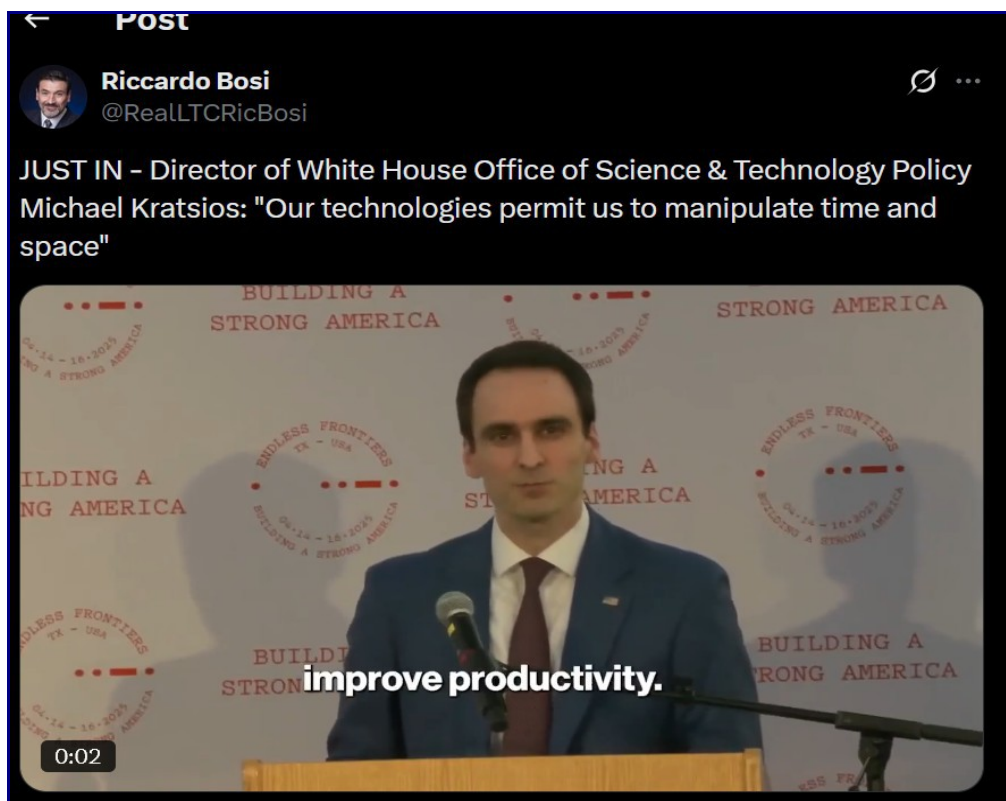

Things are moving, getting done. Management, admin work, re-organizing and clear direction are all part of this stimulating productive helpful period.

Mars sextile Jupiter

Mars 1-4* Virgo, Jupiter 0-3* Cancer

(June 18 - 25)

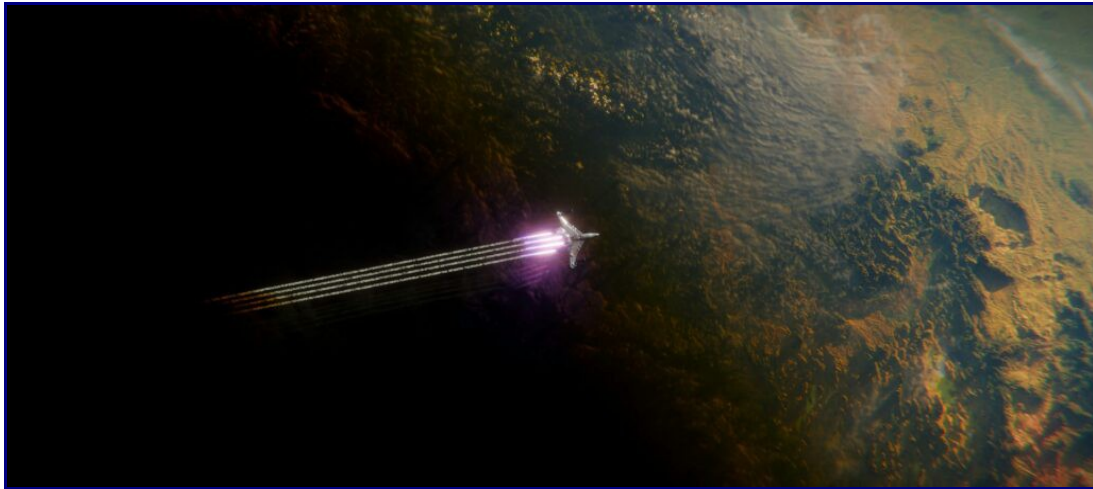

This period is excellent for sports, athletes, physical work, body, and home renovation, cleaning out old things, carpentry, house cleaning - organizing files, information.

However, that last part all sounds very boring! ...So, whenever Mars and Jupiter make positive angles with each other, we have an abundance of physical energy, excellent finished products, health success, craftsmanship or artistic musical excellence inspired from these planets – but there is a high energy with it. It is not laid-back casual, but energetic, functional, and extremely refined detailed focus on the tasks at hand, in order to get every little thing perfect. And you will! Funnel that energy into something worth your while,

This energizes space, tech, rockets, innovation, revelations, and all forms of information which appear science fiction.

Mars has been in Cancer/Leo far too long (since September 2024) and it's time for a change!

Venus conjoin Jupiter

10 – 15* Cancer

(August 8 - 13th 2025)

Venus, our planet of magnetic social loving interactions and attraction, is highly amplified by Jupiter, bringing golden opportunities for beauty, love, vacations, financial increase, and deep satisfaction. This cycle increases the love for family, home, and emotional contentment. It expands protection, good fortune, and blessings for all around you in the things you value.

It is possible, some good fortune, good news or decision someone is making, could truly be a blessing. It is the best for vacations, love, special events. Finances can be protected and positive change occurs with economy, money, the value of currency and cost of living in some way. This cycle is quick but could initiate change for the better in our personal world.

Mildly Challenging Transits

June 4 -6 Mercury at 22-24 Gemini square Nodes at 23* Pisces/Virgo

Some possible stressful responsibilities for spending money, managing money, handling personal affairs however, with the positive cycles above protecting, good fortune can come at the same time.

June 8 - 10 Venus at 2 – 4* Taurus square Pluto at 3* Aquarius

For these three dates, some tension is in the air regarding companies, corporate or work environment. They are social issues. Personally, it is not the best time to confront, discipline children, or have that serious talk with another.

May 28 – June 2 Venus conjoin Chiron at 24 – 27* Aries

From the last two weeks in May, Venus has been creating for some an exceptionally moody challenging time. Chiron is the planetoid, which triggers past life wounds, scars, hurts and one's weaknesses.... Have you been feeling vulnerable and insecure lately? This cycle is almost over, and typically the exact days it peaks, finally brings healing and clearance to the ancient unresolved issue.

June 13 – 17 Mars at 28* Leo to 1* Virgo square Uranus at 28* - 29*Taurus

Be cautious now for unexpected weather, lightning, storms, navigating harsh water, and anything involving electrical or mechanical issues. It can be a great time for confronting tech issues, internet, computer, phone, devices, or mechanical problems and finally replace or fix them.

It is a tense period, energy is high, possibly volatile, unruly. Be careful driving, overwork, pushing oneself too hard. Be cautious and alert – and try not to take on too much.

The configuration of Saturn square Jupiter returns from last August – September 2024 joined this round with Neptune – and Mercury
(Descriptions below)

Jupiter/Mercury in Gemini/Cancer square Neptune/Saturn in Pisces/Aries
(Jupiter 0-2* Cancer square Neptune 0-2* Aries) Chart above
June 14 – 23 exact

Well, here we have a mysteriously confusing energy where an uncomfortable feeling deep inside makes one wonder if everything is really going to be okay. Family and home conflicts, issues arise. The ideal need for home, money and security is met with interference from another situation which tends to make you feel your light, energy and finances are draining away.

The energy of this Neptune is the problem, as Neptune is challenging when in aspects like a square, an opposition or inconjunct. It can diffuse clarity, cause worry, guilt, and a false sense of obligation towards others.

Get a grip on one's sense of duty and responsibility at this time, and do not allow others to emotionally compromise your ethics or boundaries and goals you have already set for yourself.

Saturn conjoin Neptune at 0-1* Aries
June 8 – 11 continues up through February 28, 2026

The desire to materialize an ideal outcome. A major cycle. We are all being asked to come up higher and capture a vision of our next level of potential, our higher self-image, who we are to become, no matter what our circumstances, life situation, age, condition etc. We must lock onto a goal, a vision and ideal outcome and make the effort to bring that vision down into reality.

This cycle of Saturn/Neptune has already been working on us for the past few months. It has been impacting our deeper needs for resolution, healing, and breakthroughs, yet it is targeting how we see ourselves, our worth, our divine purpose and self-image and awareness of who we really are,

from February 19, 2025 – May.

Now it increases, and you might be confronted with a situation where you truly must integrate the real self in order to achieve something of worth. Because YOU are worth it! Facing someone's weakness, someone's inability to perform in some way, is not your responsibility. It's important to wake up and accept an individual or a situation, it is actually unable to lead YOU to your ultimate goal. Neptune is a projector, and Saturn has come to shock it out of the projection of unreality, an unrealistic expectation upon a person and/or situation which is bothering you.

Action is required.... confidence and trust in one's Higher Wholeness and deserving of the best in life. This integration will play out now up through February next year, helping us get ahead and accomplish things which change the way we look at our potential and our role in the world.

Mercury joining the Jupiter square Saturn/Neptune

Jupiter 0-2* Cancer square Saturn at 0-2* Aries

(June 9 – 20 exact) This cycle simply helps us articulate it, write the issue down, and be able to logically accept it. It brings a higher source of wisdom you can trust is accurate and then act on it. It protects you.

Mercury at 29* Gemini to 5* Cancer joining Jupiter means we become awake, more conscious, and not just a fading in and out dream. We are aware in great detail of what we have to do. We have examined all the facts. It is in square to Saturn and Neptune at 0-2***

Aries as it conjoins Jupiter at 0-2* Cancer.

With Mercury added to this square, a more positive optimistic attitude is felt – and one could experience the desire to expand, take a risk, have the attitude, “what could go wrong?” Yet Saturn still requires a process you need to go through in order to reach your end goal. It requires patience, and with Mercury, possibly meetings, discussions, paperwork, crunching numbers and analyzing finances. It requires factual realistic data in order to support this expansive end goal!

Dates where you are aware of a new thing you want to accomplish, but life is also pushing you, opening doors for you to step through and achieve this thing you might sense is inevitable, practical and will solve many issues in your life. It requires, however, good discernment. Is it a purchase, the commitment to a new project? Is it for your planning, projects, travel, commitments with family or friends or any decisions which are larger than normal investment of time, energy, or money?

One usually feels quite overwhelmed with this square, as there are so many people, dates, schedules, factors, financial issues, and events at stake, yet we must act!

This cycle requires longer processing, analyzing one's paths to take, and can even include career or project decisions, income, outflow, financial or professional decisions, purchases. Some important major events one needs to handle arises during this cycle, and requires thoroughness of planning, patience, and discernment to make sure we're making the right choices. Asking for knowledgeable professionals rather than just one input of information will result in a far better choice and can even save you money.

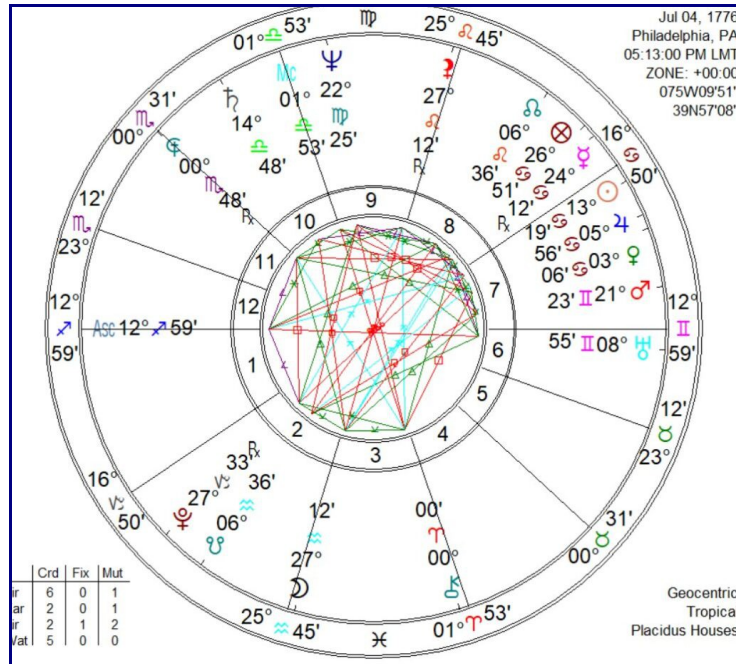

.... And lastly, Hades finishing up a rare conjunction on U.S. 1776 Sun

The finality to a hard period from August 2024 – May 2025, where challenging oppressive interference to US progress, success, has accelerated. It increases drama, challenges, and potential increase of dangerous activities of all kinds. It can manipulate and scheme financial control, increase demonic or dark energies to work through people, organizations, and agencies to undermine the wellbeing of the people and any activity. As soon as we are out of May, we enter a recovery period from this heavy energy.
