Integrating the Cosmic Rays

Integrate:

1: to form, coordinate, or blend into a functioning or unified whole :

Disintegrate:

2: To break or decompose into constituent elements, parts, or small particles

I can't say it's because of the Solar Eclipse or all the other space/earth events, but truly we are in a time of acceleration...it is the time investing in our own souls – increasing our solid grounded identities at our very core – by a conscious action of nurturing ourselves and those in our care around us. Communion with what is REAL, versus unreal. That's the way...The Cosmic Rays appear to be increasing, and so as we want to Integrate with them, all that is NOT REAL within the world and within ourselves, is also flying off from us like tiny little particles, shavings of black metal – in a cycle of disintegration.

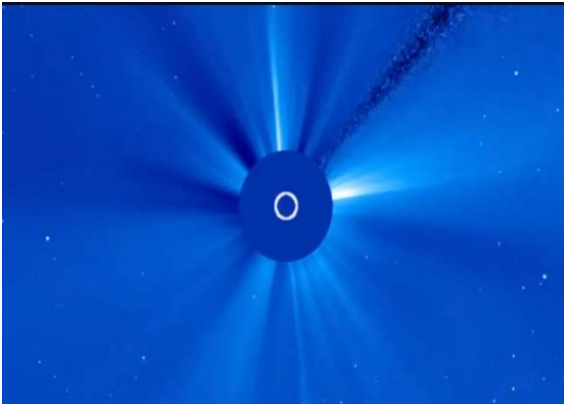

If you feel strange, moody – unsure – the parts of you that are not who you really are, just may be flinging off and out from you, and so wouldn't it make sense, parts of our egos' attachment to the unreal, is separating out and leaving. I would think it could feel threatening. Are any of you relating to this?

It could put you in a panic for no reason – a mood, an uneasiness, uncertainty – yet you can't put your finger on why? Your mind races to figure out if you've forgotten something important...yet it comes and goes, and keeps happening.

Some may feel this, others, may not...But we survive it. We have been taking on the hard stuff each day, and determined to love, be strong and get through, no matter what. I touched on this disintegration in the past Solar Eclipse and Lunar Eclipse videos (posted in the past few articles)...you can review them if you like ....so ...

With all that is happening in space and earth right now, scrambled and burdened seems to be the common theme I hear from others. I thought it would be nice to capture the essence of each planet in our Solar System's position now, and create an affirmation for all of us to give. This can assist in increasing our own personal empowerment and anchor that positive energy, those qualities at this time.

I also sense our bodies, our minds, nervous systems and spiritual centers are being impacted by the comets, the space "thing", the coronal mass ejections, earthquakes, super novas exploding and so on – we must be effected by these things, as we are all connected to time/space/earth and each other. Remember, Solar Eclipses, comets, etc..are symbols of great change in the earth and for humanity – the way things are now going to go, for all of us.

Today, as we go day by day through our planetary cycles, we're going to isolate the planet's positions, the signs each planet is moving through now – the timeframe, and an Affirmation. This can expand the full purpose for each one in order and help us to receive the best energy from each planet. (I know I just said this, but I'm saying it again.) This is very important in order to completely counteract the negative potential of each planet in the sign it is in. Okay! Here we go....

Planetary Cycles

Sept 28 – 30 Mercury in Libra inconjunct Node An adjustment of our paperwork, our priorities or tasks may take place today – as other priorities are taking precedence over what we felt was best.

Mercury in Libra...

September 18 – October 6 “I AM the support for others in need, pooling our resources and mutually benefiting from our unique gifts freely given.”

October 1 Mercury in Libra square Jupiter in Cancer

Our thoughts need to be put on hold, our desire to agree with others, volunteer or invest in some task or purchase, should wait until this day is over. Not the best judgment comes from us on this day, or from others towards us.

Venus in Virgo

September 19 – November 6, 2025 “I AM easily focusing upon the smaller things, my service, my desire for perfecting a task and aligning myself with the love for order and attentiveness to details. Personal satisfaction and relief appears with each project handled. I AM the executing of my abilities with such precision; there is always a positive end result in all I do.”

Oct 2 – 4 Venus at 16° Virgo conjoin South Node and Mercury oppose Chiron.

What we value and are hanging on to, might be older patterns which really are not working for the present need of the hour. Others may need something else, and so it might be necessary to give rather than feel stuck waiting for something you want.

Oct 4 – 7 Mercury at 27° Libra inconjunct Saturn, Neptune, and Pluto – An adjustment continues from the 2nd of October, for accommodating, changing up one's schedule, shifting to fit a new insight or upgrade into a project, or an arrangement during this time.

Oct 6-7 Mercury square Pluto Not the best time to try to deal with a serious conversation, a meeting, signing papers, making important final decisions. It's a time for our minds to take in the reality of something which must be done – get your things in order, plan and don't neglect anything. Be practical and trust your intuition at this time.

Oct 8 Venus sextile Jupiter This is a great day for experiencing health, protection, support and especially competence from professional people you are counting on.

The Sun in Libra

September 22 – October 22 "I Am grateful for all those who are in my life, have ever been in my life, the love shared, the lessons and balancing of old debts. My heart is full of earth's journey, and only abundance, beauty, success comes to me now."

Oct 9 Sun inconjunct Node and Venus inconjunct Chiron

A bit of tension could take place between you and the people who you would think should be on the same page with you, in-sync with your values, your ideas....it is a time to be patient and non-reactive as others' behavior or personality might trigger you.

Mars in Scorpio

September 22 – November 4 – “My efforts invested in financial, resourceful, and complicated tasks and decisions, will easily work out, with the right timing, the proper support, the best results, as the Mighty I AM is conducting successfully complex and overwhelming situations, with excellent outcomes always.”

Jupiter in Cancer

June 9, 2025– June 28, 2026 “My feelings and emotional body are under complete control from the full power of my Divine Presence, my Higher Self every day ...I AM always experiencing a powerful radiation, harmony, financial abundance, comfort and security, released into my world. I welcome the purging, the dissolving and healing of the negative mother energies of Cancer which may have burdened me, and now life only desires for my needs to be met, and for true healing from the past to occur now..”

Oct 11 Venus oppose Saturn.

Today, our feelings are a bit cautious, guarded, as we could be presented with some duty or responsibility involving another person, which isn't the easiest to handle.

Saturn in Pisces

2023 – February 12, 2026 “There is only growth, overcoming and conquering the illusions of this world, and my own past energies – the dissipation of unreality within and without, is easily mastered. I place my love and efforts upon the love for others, for a job well done, and towards an ideal purpose. I AM full mastery over all shifts and dissolving of the old self, allowing the light of the Sun to infuse me with The Higher Reality now.

Uranus in Gemini

July 2025 – November 6, 2025 “The Mind of God, is everywhere, accessible, infusing my own Mind with truth, ingenious thoughts, and the desire to be free. I AM being guided each day as to what will bring me closer to that ultimate self-realized liberation!”

Neptune in Aries

March 30, 2025 – October 21, 2025 “Only love is all that matters – my heart and longing is for fusion with a vision and purpose bringing soul satisfaction. “

Pluto in Aquarius

2023 – 2041 “I AM increasing my cosmic consciousness more and more each day – participating in humanities’ advancement, transformation and upgrading our capacity to desire a better world, personally and globally. Truth, liberation, excellence of efficiency in our everyday world, transmutation and alchemical change transforms this age for all.”

Mercury Retrograde November 9

Mercury retrograde coming up on Nov 9 at 6* Sagittarius....it will be making the strongest aspects here:

- Mercury trine Jupiter, Oct 24 – Nov 22, Dec 6
- Mercury trine Saturn, Oct 26, Nov 22, Dec 7
- Mercury trine Neptune Oct 29 0 Nov 19, Dec 11,

- Mercury oppose Uranus Oct 29 , Nov 19, Dec 10
- Mercury sextile Pluto Oct 30, Nov 17, Dec 13. (This last one, is the tightest surrounding the

Below are the descriptions for each of these Mercury aspects:

Mercury sextile Pluto from October 30 – December 13, brings to us a theme of cooperation with organizations, corporations, banking, political agencies, and places of conglomerate power. In our personal lives, it brings harmonious meetings, discussions, problem solving and support. This energy assists with negotiations, closing deals, signing papers, making good decisions. It supports meetings and conversations. It opens the way for inspiring goals planned and discussed for expansion in certain areas of your life. It promotes integrity.

Mercury oppose Uranus October 30 – December 13, typically challenges us with breaking away from a traditional regular routine, a past arrangement or connection – things are changing, and a separation is most likely beginning to occur – it could be discussed, as Mercury means the issue is being talked about. Practicality, finances, or your availability could all be part of the discussion.

Mercury trine Neptune Oct 29 – Dec 11 – helps us tune in to our spiritual divine love side of our natures- it can bring relief from some form of problem – a feeling of faith in something important. Better conversations, mental attitude is better, one feels they are making some progress.

Mercury trine Saturn Oct 26 – Dec 6 stabilizes our affairs – our letters, content, writing, conversations, meetings, our appointments, our arrangements. It brings a degree of success and completion, professional success – and trust in those people who we may have been counting upon.

Mercury trine Jupiter – October 24 – December 6.... a lovely energy of expansion, personal breakthroughs in some way – one's health, vitality, one's attitude and outlook is brighter. Good fortune with travel, journeys, important connections, or meetings. Anything related to contracts, documents, signing papers, good news, can occur during this particular cycle. All of these, in fact, are very positive for travel, sales, documents, signing, meetings, arrangements, quick trips and get - aways....conversations, mail, bills, and basically cutting through and getting much done during the month of late October through November 2026.

Of course it would be a very good idea to discover where you have Sagittarius on the outer house cusp, in your own chart, and place the Mercury retro there – that would be the area (the houses' meaning) where Mercury brings you guidance, a prompting to take some form of action and decision which will help you. Then we would want to know what other planets it is lining up with – what kind of aspect is the Mercury making to your planets – you will have a pretty good idea what sort of advice, insight and vision is given to you during late October through November 2025.

Next...Solar Eclipse effect upon us all...

Let's re-cap the Solar Eclipse which occurred September 21, 2025 – The purge, the filtering of issues, separating a better life and away from the lesser choice, personally and globally – justice and judging public figures – picking people out, isolating targeting – purifying and purging the unnecessary, the spoiled, the detrimental from the rest seems to be what is happening.

Filtering and separating is always the best way to describe editing Virgo – along with using good judgment to make precise decisions on our personal situations, global political situations – this is the powerful theme at this time. It began mid September, and is in full force, in the world, and in our own personal lives.

Analyzing, editing, micro-targeting the details of injustices which have occurred, yet finding the way to move forward with a stronger more confident state...this is all because of the Saturn, Neptune in opposition to that Eclipse.

We can expect this process to continue within our own personal lives and the political world, for five months out. Much change and hard decisions in the world will be occurring – it truly seems to be a time for that Mental Pragmatic Purification and smart assessment of situations, coming from the Mercury ruled, Virgo Solar Eclipse at 29* Degrees. Mercury causes the Eclipses' influence to activate powerful thinking, mental astuteness.

I am always welcoming your own personal experiences with these cycles –

Thank you as always for your support, and that's all for this week's Stardrops! See you soon – Christine.
