

Stardrops 14, 2025

The fallout from Lunar Eclipse in Pisces September 4 – 10, peaked September 7

Video:

Planetary Cycles

September 15 Venus sextiles Mars A productive day for positive conversation, learning something new, spending quality time with good people. Take advantage of this day, and be open-hearted, positive, and helpful, have fun, enjoy the day.

Sept 16 Mercury 26* Virgo inconjunct Chiron Aries

Mercury in Virgo puts our mind upon work, tasks, general health, and energy levels within our bodies. It is a bit out of sorts today – try to take all your supplements, get fresh air, sun, take it a bit easy today. Rejuvenate your brain and mind, with purposeful reading, learning, visits, conversations, and mental engagement in order to inspire you to get yourself back to what is really important after all.

Sept 16 – 17 Venus 26* Leo trine Chiron Aries Venus helps us appreciate quality time with special people, support, and social connections. These people help solve problems, you solve their problems, you share mutual insights into the why and what fore of life's difficulties. You can find some minor comforts and stimulation which brings love and warmth into your heart and soul.

September 16 Mars 26* Libra oppose Chiron at 26* Aries Social tension, personal and global, irritates us one way or another. Certain people might put extra demands upon us as we attempt to accommodate. Mars aggressively makes judgmental statements, polarizes, and finds difficulty with showing up for others as there are conflicting sides. Some troubles planning. It is important to remain balanced.

September 16-17 Mercury at 28* Virgo oppose Saturn at 28* Pisces Disturbing news, problematic outcomes, disappointment with ongoing drama played out on the world scene – stupid and obvious decisions being made in the world scene which makes one wonder, how on earth is this allowed?

A high level of communication restriction – harsh limitations with the way others decide a course of action, difficult information. A lack of explanation and getting the answers you need.

We tend to be boggled down with limited thinking. Is it our own or others? Push through to get your tasks done, don't give up, find creative ways to go around obstacles today – you might have to make a final decision once and for all, as to how you should move forward, eliminating interference, cumbersome things are pushed out of your way.

Sept 18: Mercury enters Libra Now through October 6 our minds have the ability to ask the right questions and find a way to get better responses – we think in a more positive cooperative mode with others. We are more willing to put ourselves in the shoes of others, see what they are actually coping with. It is a good time for partnerships, meetings deliberating upon how things should move forward and having mutual agreements, for the most part.

Sept 18 Venus at 28* Leo inconjunct Saturn

Social disconnect, and awkward inconvenient situations might occur, but we typically must move ahead and remain open to the beauty of life, regardless of how we feel.

Sept 18 Sun inconjunct Chiron This is the last aspect of a planet in this report to Chiron, which has been building since September 14 – 18th. This tells us, Chiron in Aries is causing trouble. Our vitality might feel a bit low; the authority we project or ascribe to certain people is disappointing. Incongruencies, disconnects, frustrations with how things are being handled, all lead to a possible break of faith with something. It's only a day – so if you're not sure, wait until tomorrow.

Sept 18 Mercury oppose Neptune (and Saturn, [above]) Confusing deceptive talking and relaying information. Something isn't being said. The important people are quiet, impossible to reach. Certain decisions made don't make sense. There is an energy of withholding, mysterious void. We need the Mercury now to shed light onto a situation and find a new pathway to success. As Mercury is in Libra trine Uranus and Pluto both. Finally, we have some clarity as a new way opens up for us to see a way which is intelligent and helpful. The dates for breakthroughs from the undermining influences would be September 18 – 19. It is an option, an idea which rushes in – yet it could work. This is bringing greater truth, effortlessness, liberating activities. Somehow, some new pathway is opening up for future success, as we drop and surrender the old way, the past we had become so used to.

Sept 19 Venus moves into Virgo So, I've known people who are born with Venus in Virgo-they are the most well-mannered, nicest, and accommodating people, and ! They are sticklers for details, projects and methods, lifestyle handled properly, to their expectations. It could be about manners, wardrobe, relationships, and partners, it could be about wine and food, décor and especially money. We have until October 13 to experience the motivation for detail in any particular way which matters to you.

Sept 19 Venus 0* Virgo inconjunct Neptune and Pluto Venus demands a shift from past protocols, past ambiguous and set old patterns and things we have gotten too used to. Now it is time to allow the love and the editing of things in our lives to take its course, to take care of business in the most organizing and functional efficient manner and let that adjustment take us farther than we were before. Even though these cycles might only trigger a one-day impulse, they can help us advance for weeks and weeks ahead – every little thing matters!

Sept 19 Mars in Libra inconjunct Saturn in Pisces. Mars wants to resolve, wants to close a deal, wants to finalize, yet there is hang-up as another expectation as to how it should be, is interfering. A frustrating incongruency between something which desires closure and action in a negotiation? And another force which is holding up the high bar of expectation as to how it really should be. Both are at a standstill.

Sept 19 – 20 Venus 1* Virgo square Uranus This Venusian energy causes rejection, pushing away, a sense socially, there is an alienation of some sort with the behavior or lack of accessibility of another or others. Knowing this helps us locate the resistance of transparency, friendship and where others stand on issues.

Sept 20 Sun at 28* Virgo oppose Saturn at 28* Pisces This Sun energy is strained by the restrictive and confining demands of Saturn's impersonal guidelines and parameters already set. One must comply and align with a structure or other expectations to some degree. It is a disciplined, going through the motions sort of energy – and it's tied to the Solar Eclipse theme, which will be approximately 5 months long. Especially noticeable for the first month. It's like, our hands are tied in certain areas, and one avenue of hope and expectation for a more creative progress is a bit constrained. It might clue us in to an illusion (Neptune is involved) of diminishing power and influence in our worlds, our ability to shine, be happy, creative.

Sept 21 Solar Eclipse (Launches a new mindset and is in high focus five months)

The Theme: An explosive stream of expectations as to how to analyze, edit and target problems, in order to fix them and then make progress is happening now.

This leads to micro - discussion and analysis of what is wrong, stuck in revolving negative situations and issues we are fed up with and desire to change. This will obviously be showing up in fixing degenerating world events, trends which cannot continue the way things are. Saturn Neptune oppose the Solar Eclipse (Sun/Moon): as to how it should be. What are the next steps we must take in order to reach these ideals? What is the Virgo strategy and steps to realize the dream and bring in the permanent change? The Saturn as we said above in the previous transit (Sun oppose Saturn ) appears slow, laborious. It behaves so unfair, dumb – restrictive and its typical limited non-creative solutions presented, where the Neptune presents a higher ideal, fluid, a divinely inspired download of best possible solutions.

Challenging and disturbing events have been building up all September...especially highlighted by the malevolent energies of the September 7 the Lunar Eclipse in Pisces square Uranus. This event maxed out a string of events. Lunar eclipses or full moons always bring a growing theme to a huge crescendo.

I've always said, Lunar Eclipses are associated with witchcraft, bad luck, and to be extraordinarily careful during the few days before and after these eclipses.

Now, The Solar Eclipse in Virgo – comes in on September 21, setting the stage for the aftermath of these events. It elevates a theme for analytical and deep emotional loss and grief, anger, delusions and presents a matrix as to how things are now going to move forward. This eclipse highlights the social justice energies of Virgo, along with the Mars in Libra theme.

The planetary ruler of Virgo, Mercury, which is the leading planet Mercury, raises the issues of building a new relationship with each other and a new powerful path to walk.

This eclipse highlights a theme of scrutiny and discussion of what is terribly wrong and out of sorts with something in our own personal lives, and what is terribly going wrong in the world. It will be an escalation beyond belief of information coming out, globally, with issues pertaining to Virgo-ness: injustices, and Justice meted out, the need for purity, purging, deep criticism, fault finding and thorough analysis. And ! A 29* Virgo Eclipse is a critical number, the final number/degree within a 30-degree zodiac sign – it is final...a judgment or final decision in regard to solutions to social injustices. Sounds harsh? That's what 29* signs feel like when any planet transits to that point, whether in the world view or in a personal chart.

It will activate as we said a week ago, militant operations (overtly or covert), and all things pertaining to Venus issues – social media etc...human social society de-evolution addressed.

It could cause certain people and families to read the handwriting on the wall and face certain Saturnian truths where they must make detailed plans (Mercury) to re-arrange one's priorities for safety and security.

Globally, it would intensely tear apart every detail of the social (Venus decan ruler {below}) values, lack of values, lack of social boundaries, etiquette and caring, etc...or whatever which way it will be examined, every single traumatic event and thing which has built up from last week's Lunar Eclipse moment. This cycle is harsh from now through next February, as the Solar Eclipse is opposing Saturn, and Neptune. This causes a harsh review of the serious loss and a deep awareness of sacrifice which we talked about in last weeks' Stardrops... Sacrifice of lives, surrendering to what can never go back and be regained.

*Sun/Moon, in the 3rd Decan of Virgo 29**

0-9*59'	10*-19*59'	20* - 29*59'
Virgo-Virgo	Virgo-Capricorn	Virgo-Taurus
Mercury	Saturn	Venus ruled = Social

The Solar Eclipse is in the 3rd Decan (table above, the last 10* Virgo-Taurus. Venus rules Taurus. Not only is there a Mercury ruler of Virgo theme, expression of one's ideas, mobility, travel, communication and networking – but we also have a sub-Venus theme – social, society values, friendships and relationships, feeling happy, experiencing love and defining core values which support love.

Solution for this new Solar Eclipse

Personally – Face one's weakness in our lives – holes, unfinished tasks, or possibly it might be character, spiritual – psychology – facing our mistakes or defects bravely, where one is or has been deficient.

We desire our own wholeness and the healing and putting back together of an original once was, ideal blueprint, full of hope.

We want to fix it. We want to put something beautiful which once was, back together.

Begin calling down change, miraculous light to intervene and create change in a big way. Believe this can happen. This change is to turn around parts of our lives which are ready to be examined, purged, perfected, and brought into a greater functionality.

The world is at that point also, intensely. If it doesn't move into that new changeable direction, as has been predicted by solar-geo-physical and space events, this new energy will unleash certain powers throughout the world, and do the purging for us.

That is what is coming if humanity cannot initiate a purge, if they are too slow, weak or don't ignite.

We are at a point in the war, where almost everyone is pretty much awake and knows what's going on.

We're at the point of the war, where it has moved into the spiritual realm. Realizing an acceleration, a greater bravery is now being required. Being faster and moving upwards towards a higher way, holding the bar for that higher way is now the weapon. We don't see it as a weapon, but more as a relief, a goal and vision – this would be the power of Neptune conjoin Saturn – the Neptune is the inner eye set on a divine love experience in our own lives and the world, we are not willing to surrender, but all else can be ultimately surrendered for it – it is the way. Saturn would be the crystalizing in matter, of that ideal dream. Both planets are opposing the Solar Eclipse Sun and Moon at 29° Virgo, the line of karma – Virgo's secret function, is the mystery of how to move through karmic cycles. Virgo is justice, cosmic justice – don't you think a 29° Virgo and Saturn (also at 29° Pisces) Neptune oppose would compel a response of finality and impersonal release of returning energy upon so many neglected issues built up to this point in time and space? Well, it is happening.

Globally: Hold the vision for practical sifting, filtering and deductive critical thinking for issues to be discussed, analyzed, taken apart and come to a one -pointed conclusion, an action decided upon. It should resonate with a Virgo/Mercury/Venus/Taurus restoration of core values, eternal human values and of course, the Justice part of Virgo. It's almost like saying, the darkness in contrast to the light has become so brazen, the reaction of cosmos, is eminent and out of our own hands. Yet, we can still find the new door open, the new path.

Something intelligent and very specific is now running through millions of people's minds as to how to move forward with their futures. It's like an escape pod – but universally.

Restoring functionality and witnessing a special power released towards all social situations worldwide, placing great value upon virtue and hard-working individuals who deserve to be safe and have greater certainty and hope. Yet, it will be individual by individual, community by community – yet will have a common theme – and we're all moving through the same pathway towards the same destination. .

In fact, this Solar Eclipse is releasing a unique alchemy to infuse the body of earth with an intelligent light to shift people's awareness. This shift will increase access to other higher levels of dimensions for a clearer and more meaningful life. Somehow, this is happening right now.

These are my thoughts in regard to the new cycle the Solar Eclipse is taking place on September 21. It will be a cycle of Justice, interpretations as to how that Justice should look, and how to fix many things that have gone wrong. It will be the next level of the world in transition.

Planetary Cycles, continued...

Sept 22 Mars enters Scorpio From September 22 – November 4. Mars' dynamic driving force penetrates layers of complex activities, like an investigator, determined to get to the bottom of something. Personally, we're willing to put in the extra-long hours, and hard work to get the job done. Financial juggling, re-purpose things, purging our stuff, repairs, and renewing, working with others regardless of our time or money constraints, etc...will show up now.

Sept 22 Sun enters Libra.

Sept 23 Mars 0° Scorpio inconjunct Neptune 0° Aries A bit of a disconnect with misunderstanding – where one had the idea to do something this way – and the other person desires it the other way. The 22, 23, and 24th can be a bit messed up in, just let it pass. However, it would be a good idea if you feel inclined, to double check on anything which doesn't seem proper, correct or right – address it, fix it regardless of waiting on another to do it or acknowledge it.

Sept 23 Sun oppose Neptune Same issue as above – only this one could mean someone has forgot or doesn't get the significance.

Sept 23* Sun trine Uranus, trine Pluto, oppose Neptune, semi-sextile Mars, oppose Saturn The trines bring clarity and physical energy to cut through and accomplish important activities – and the opposition has already been discussed in the Solar Eclipse. From the 21st on, overcome and get a handle upon disappointments and discouraging situations. Some revelations can be experienced, and new pathways open up, new ways of looking at your life shifts from the negative limitation to a positive new perspective which could change everything! The trines help make breakthroughs.

Sept 24 Mars at 1° Scorpio inconjunct Uranus at 1° Gemini and square Pluto at 1° Aquarius This day can require a change of direction from how you had originally planned your day would go – tasks now must be handled, arranged. Adjustments of schedules, obligations to pay for things, organize things, put other things aside and do what needs to happen in order to stay on track.

Sept 28 – October 1 Mercury at 17° Libra inconjunct Node and square Jupiter So far, is it my own perception or has September just seemed riddled with incongruencies, unanswered questions, trauma, disappointments, and confusion? This is not the best day for purchases, counting on someone else's support, meeting, signing contracts or documents, handling anything which would count on yourself being in top form, or others showing up the way they should. A weird, off day.

Conclusion – This report was difficult for me to do – the content and the video. In conclusion, as a community of divine beings down here on earth for whatever reason at this time – global, personal and karmic most likely, our bodies, cosmic light centers (chakras) are antenna super charged with information and powers as we hook up to our higher source. These powers are invisible to most, but I have witnessed them. Our personal presence can make a difference, and the harsher energies of the world simply stand out louder, as they are desperate to survive. The heavy energies we experience are theirs swimming in their astral sea on earth and in 33 levels beneath this plane. We are at the nexus and have the cord of light to go up and down and execute brilliance and change into this dimension...they do not, even though they try – it is not the same.

Do you have a morning ritual? Do you light a candle in the morning, get out your favorite inspiring book, video or list of affirmations to give? Can you visualize and gaze at your vision board, feel and believe these things are already here? Start a club for physical time shared with others and commit to not being on our devices more and more. Get back to what is real. There is a force which is attempting to override our organic natural state and all the cosmic intricacies inside of us which makes us amazing. We can harness tech and remain human. Virgo filters separates the poison from the healthy. Here is where we are at.

See you soon, happy September 15th week! Christine