

Learn How the 2026 planets are influencing the world and our personal life:

Pluto in Aquarius, (2023 -2041) Pluto is putting pressure on you for an even greater awareness of what is going on in the world. It increases global humanity awareness, desire to understand, improve, support positive and transform the old and dysfunctional.

Pluto in Aquarius will do the same for your personal life. It can enhance our thinking towards efficiency, desiring more freedom, liberation from monotonous mundane chores. It enhances tech and efficiency systems to organize our affairs, bringing us more excellent service, information, and accuracy with problem solving in every way. Expect your world to rapidly sail into The Future with this advancement of Aquarian energy!

Saturn's dynamic energy in Aries, June 2025 – 2028, motivating you to take action and expect things to happen in your life, faster, right now already! Impatience could be a problem with this cycle, but mainly, this energy assists in making faster decisions to act on things which matter to us now.

Saturn helps us honestly observe immaturity, lack of humility and patience within ourselves, or at least recognize it in others. It brings discipline and responsibility with bringing forth creative ideas, innovation and taking action, versus procrastination.

It can also create sudden decisions and actions which appear to be childish or egocentric. War comes under the sign of Aries, as it is Mars ruled....thereby increasing risks of confrontations, stand offs, war and serious brash stubborn altercations between others, leaders, companies, family members or nations. Saturn in Aries brings karmic lessons involving one's ego identification with world things which are too wrapped up in self, what the self wants or is addicted to. It will challenge one's life situation forcing us to take stock in what is holding us back from acting as we please, or need to in order to feel we are in control over our own lives.

It causes us to ponder and strategize how to change the restrictions and constraints in our world.

Yet at other times, increases the boldness to just do, rather than overthink and sometimes that's a good thing!

By learning where Aries is in your chart, it will help you take action and be brave, instigate new cycles and regain control over your peace of mind in some way.

From 2025 July through 2033, Uranus is accelerating your life, it's taking off in new ways, and it does this by accelerating and helping ideas expand, new people, new programs, new projects or learning you need to develop. Uranus increases your mind's ability to comprehend and advance your familiarity with AI, Financial Economy for the future, personal insight into yourself, improving communication and taking in way more news and information than ever before. Most likely, everyone will want to experience change immediately, however, we have eight years of this cycle of mind/tech/information expansion, so be patient. It comes when it comes. For sure, our way of thinking and handling things will progress into a more objective smarter way of solving problems and understanding ourselves.

This cycle will increase rapid information, exposure of false news and information. Validation of accurate news, conversations, events. It also brings apps, devices, software of a very high futuristic design, to bring truth, transparency or at least efficiency to humanity, to assist us in making things clearer, work better, and expand into the Future!

Neptune's magical energy is presenting to you repeatedly, the ideal way, and stop ignoring what you know is right for you.

It may be a career, your home, lifestyle, relationship, finances, or how the world should be, as it moves through the sign of Aries. March 31 2025 – 2034

Jupiter continuing to expand and enhance positive experiences and opportunities in areas of family, home, security, housing, real estate...or issues with parents, children and money. June 2025 – June 30 2026.

Jupiter moving into Leo, June 30 2026 – July 2027, motivating us towards greater direction of success, presentation, outgoing behavior, confidence and increase of a pursuit of happiness in our lives. Increase concentration upon investing, stock markets, real estate, taking business to the next level and better management of our affairs.

Venus, Mars and Mercury all turn retrograde October 3 2026 – April 2027. Love/feelings and deep personal needs can not be ignored within us during this period.

Mars Retrograde in Virgo.

Work and professional life seems to take a new turn. This all begins November 2026 into February 2027. Our job, tasks or skill and level of service in the world escalates into sharper, smarter and more excellent output and efficiency, usefulness. Many will feel it in a greater ability to analyze, use their deductive reasoning ability, sort options through hierarchy of priority.

Body, fitness, health become high focus in the world. These are all Mars qualities as it sails through Virgo during this time. It literally will last up through July 2027, yet is retrograde, which means the strongest influence, first of January up through April 2027.

Mercury Retrograde in October 24 running through November, leaving retro on November 13, then continuing in Scorpio up to December 6, 2026. Our mental guidance leads us into an arrangement, an agreement with another, accepting the way things are yet expecting a give and take in the relationship which might not have been there before. For some it will be a non-negotiable decisions and meeting that is had, in order to express how one really feels and what one really wants.

Venus turns retrograde so empowers the love and deep feelings on October 3, 2026. It lasts up through November 13, 2026, yet continues through December, to leave us with a subtle yet deeply moving insight into how we need to value and invest ourselves into something or someone very meaningful now.

APPOINTMENTS
sirius@starfires.com
www.starfires.co